

How The Body Kills Germs.

Germs that get into the body are killed in two ways—by the white corpuscles of the blood, and by a germ-killing substance that is in the blood. Just what this substance is, we do not know. The blood of a healthy person always has some germ-killing substance in it to ward off the attack of disease. The fountain head of life is the stomach. A man who has a weak and impaired stomach and who does not properly digest his food will soon find that his blood has become weak and impoverished, and that his whole body is improperly and insufficiently nourished. To put the body in healthy condition, to feed the system on rich, red blood and throw out the poisons from the body, nothing in the past forty years has excelled Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a pure glyceric extract (without alcohol), of bloodroot, golden seal and Oregon grape root, stone root, mandrake and queen's root with black cherry bark.

J. H. MARTIN, ESQ.

"My husband was a sufferer from stomach trouble and impure blood," writes Mrs. JAMES H. MARTIN, of Frankfort, Ky. "He had a sore on his face that would form a scab which would dry and drop off in about a month, then another would immediately form. It continued this way for a long time. He tried every remedy that any one would suggest but found no relief. He then tried Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery which completely cured him. He has stayed cured now for two years, and I recommend this valuable medicine for impurities of the blood."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules.

DREW A FUNNY LITTLE MAN

Sagamore Signature to Indian Deed Recorded in Maine—His Signature Was a Bow and Arrow.

A funny little man, drawn all with black ink, his inch-high body standing club-footed and with arms like a scowrow—this is the signature or "mark" to the first Indian deed recorded in the state of Maine. This deed conveyed land in South Berwick on the Piscataqua river, and was made in 1643. It is much rarer than present-day deeds, as will be seen:

"Know all who these may concern that Humphrey Chadbourne have bought of Mr. Roles the Sagamore of Newichawanke Half a Mile of Ground which lieth betwixt the Little River & the Great River to begin at the Northern Side of ye old Ground & for the Conformity thereof the aforesd Sagamore Mr. Roles hath hereunto set his Hand May the 10th 1643. And the sd Mr. Roles doth hereby certify a Parcel of Ground called by the Name Compeghan wch he doth keep for himself."

The signature of Samoset, he of "Welcome, Englishman," fame, was a bow and arrow, as seen on the deed he made to John Brown of Pemouquid long before the deed of "Mr. Roles." But most Indian signatures deeding land to white men were random touches of pen to paper, always, however, "in the presence of" white men as legal witnesses.

The eastern colonies early forbade buying lands of Indians except with the permission and approval of the general court; yet they did not pronounce Indian deeds as such to be invalid. But by an act of 1715, no one not in actual possession on July 31, 1720, could hold under an Indian deed in Maine thereafter.

CHARACTER TOLD BY TONGUE

Many Ways by Which That Organ Reveals the True Disposition of Its Owner.

Germany has taken up the pastime of reading character and telling fortunes by the tongue. A long tongue is said to denote openness of character; it suggests generosity and free-handedness. Its possessor makes friends and enemies easily, but does not save money.

When the tongue is long and thick the openness degenerates into a tendency to gossip and scandal. The future of the owner is best with iron-bits of his own making. It also indicates flightiness and inconstancy.

Short tongues indicate secretiveness and dissimulation. Their owners make good detectives and attorneys. The owner may acquire some money by economy and guile, but has not largeness of spirit to make a great fortune. Very thin pointed tongues are found in different people who do not succeed in life.

Short and broad ones accompany craft and falsehood, the person who has such a tongue is compelled by it to deceive and betray, whatever effort he may make to keep straight.

The vibrant, quivering tongue denotes the artistic temperament. Brilliant carmine hue is a sign of long life, pale pink tongue denotes both weakness of character and delicacy of constitution.

Canned Whole Hams.
Among the methods of sending cured hams into the market, that of canning the whole ham has been introduced by an innovating German meat packer. This was several years ago, and the new idea seems to have taken firm root in that country.

The canning process, as applied to whole hams, is comparatively simple, says Pure Products. After being salted, smoked and otherwise cured in the usual manner, the hams are placed in a can of suitable size and shape. It is then weighed and the weight marked on the outside. The space left in the can may be filled either with clean water or the ham may first be boiled and the broth, after the removal of the fat, may be placed with it in the can. The can is then closed and the contents sterilized.

The popularity of canned whole ham may be inferred from the number of patents which have been issued to various inventors, who have covered every possible form of can for this purpose.

Turkish Island Rebels.
The Turkish island of Nicaria in the Aegean sea has proclaimed its independence. The inhabitants, whose number about 15,000, seized and imprisoned the Turkish officials.

The island of Nicaria, which has an area of about 50 square miles, is famous in mythology for the death of Icarus, whose waxen wings melted when he was flying. At the present day it is occupied almost by charcoal burners of Greek nationality. The principal town is Mesaria, which consists of a group of about 200 houses. The islanders have hitherto paid an annual tribute to the Pasha of Rhodes.

Vindicate the Divining Rod.
Official experiments made in German South Africa with the divining rod as a means of detecting hidden water seem to vindicate the efficiency of the witch hazel stick. About 890 trials were made and the rod was successful in 80 per cent. of them. It has also been made use of in Hanover with some success in the location of veins of the salts of potash. These results have attracted so much attention that the French minister of agriculture has appointed a committee to make similar experiments.

REALIZE LACK OF CONDITION

Summer Time and a Bathing Suit Combine to Wake Up the Too Fat Business Man.

"From the letters pouring in from the shore, it's evident I must enlarge my gym again this year."

The speaker, a noted physical instructor, swung round from his unusually heavy mail.

"It's at the seashore—in his bathing suit at the seashore—that the American business-man first realizes his weight," the instructor continued. "Stand on a sun-drenched August beach and watch the white-legged, white-armed business-man, just arrived for his vacation. Watch him puff out his chest as he walks seaward. Watch him keep a sharp eye on his stomach, lest it stick out farther than his chest does. Talk about the vanity of woman."

"But, if you keep on watching you'll see his smile turn to a worried look. You'll see his ballooning chest, tired out, collapse. You'll see his stomach resume its rightful position, on ahead of him, like a captain, leading the way."

"And as the business-man eyes with anxiety and disgust his protruding stomach, he realizes at last that he is becoming that hated thing, a fat man, and his thoughts turn to dumb-bells, golf and tennis, and he resolves to write to me."

"He writes that afternoon after an unusually abstemious luncheon. And here are his letters—50 of them—50 by every mail—dated from Atlantic City and Bar Harbor, Long Branch and Cape May, Narragansett and Bay Head."

CITY'S MEAGER MILK SUPPLY

Spanish Capital No Place for One in Any Way Fond of the Lactical Fluid.

There are no large dairying concerns in Madrid. Part of the milk supply comes from the city and cows pastured near the city and kept in lecherias in the city, where they are milked; some is brought in from nearby farms, usually about six gallons in tin cans in straw baskets slung across a horse upon which the rider mounts; some from neighboring villages by train or wagon, all in tin cans; and a small amount from northern Spain by train—a twenty-four-hour trip. Deliveries to regular patrons are made by mizas carrying a frame from which are suspended about eighteen small pails or bottles, each holding about a quart, but it is probable that most of the families in Madrid do not receive regular supplies, such as is needed being brought in by some member of the family, or a servant, who carries any convenient vessel or pitcher from the house. This milk is secured from small milk shops, called lecherias, of which there are about 650 shown in the city directory. The milk is always boiled as soon as it is brought into the house. It is almost impossible to secure cream and it is almost invariably sour when obtained.

Reindeer in Alaska Increase.

From 1892 to 1902 the United States bureau of education introduced 1,280 European reindeer into Alaska at a time when the natives were threatened with starvation. At the present time these herds have increased to a total of 33,629 head. Their meat is in great demand by both whites and natives, and their skins supply the best winter clothing. It is expected that the exportation of reindeer meat will soon become an important industry. Above all, the reindeer has proved a most efficient civilizing agency. The success of the Alaskan reindeer enterprise induced Dr. Wilfred Grenfell, in 1908, to import 300 reindeer from Lapland into Labrador, where they have now increased to about 1,200, and are a great boon to the natives. Last year the Canadian government bought 50 of Dr. Grenfell's herd for introduction into northern Canada.

Stupendous Figures in Fly Descent.

Dr. Howard of the bureau of entomology, Washington, calculates that a single horsefly, starting about April 15 with an average brood of 120, would, if all her eggs were hatched and all in turn reproduced in like ratio, see by the end of the season her progeny to the number of 1,096,181,249,311,720,000,000,000,000.

As each female usually lays four batches of eggs their unchecked development through twelve generations would make a mass of flies measuring 268,778,165,861 cubic miles, or considerably more than the size of the earth.

"Fortunately," comments the Medical Record, "there are many things destructive to eggs, larvae and adult flies, so the number of the latter is kept down to a possible figure."

Small for Its Size.

An admiring constituent gave Congressmen Legare of South Carolina one of those vest-pocket edition Lilliputian Mexican dogs to take home to the children. Legare—pronounced Leg-ree, by the way—was leading the dog along by a cotton string, when a South Carolina mountaineer stopped him.

"Are it a reglar dog?" the man asked.

"Yes, it's a Ch— Well, I can't pronounce the name of it," said Legare, "but it's some kind of a Mexican dog."

"Just a pup, I reckon."

"No; it's fell grown."

"Well," opined the mountaineer, "that's the best dog I ever seen at no time."—Philadelphia Telegraph.

Philadelphia Man Has No Need to Worry About Getting a Suitable Office Boy.

"Talk about luck in having office boys," said a well-known Philadelphia business man. "I have hit it great. Back in 1887 I took on my first boy, and he was all that could be desired. After he had been with me for over three years and began to get nearly as tall as I was, he decided that he should learn a trade. Before he left he told me he had a younger brother who would like to take up the job. 'If he does as well as you did, he will do all right,' I said.

"The second brother came, and after four years' service he decided on a trade. But before he left he brought his younger brother, who took up the work. He proved as good as the first two, and then he grew too large for a $3.50 a week job and passed it along to the next in the family. Well, the fourth brother went to a trade and two more after him. I began to think that it was going to be perpetual. Then I learned something. The boys were all used up. There were no more to come.

"While I was wondering where to get another good boy, he spoke for his nephew. 'Who is your nephew?' I said. 'John's boy,' said he. It was the son of the first boy that I had started in 25 years before, and he had grown up to the same age as his five uncles and his father when they began. 'Send him along,' I said. He has been with me for several months and is as good as any of his uncles. From last reports I understand I am good for a supply of good boys for the next 25 years."

NO MIRRORS IN ELEVATORS

Reasons for Their Removal in Public Buildings and Hotels in Philadelphia.

Mirrors in Philadelphia elevators are doomed says The Order for their removal from elevators in city hall went out recently, and will be followed by similar orders in the leading hotels and office buildings, notably the Bellevue, Stratford and the Land Title.

The mirrors are being done away with as the result of numerous complaints made by conductors in the city hall elevators assert that nearly every girl who rides becomes so engrossed in "primpling" before the silvered glasses in the elevators that they forget what floor they want and cause delay.

In the hotels and office buildings the conductors of the elevators, who are instructed not to speak to the occupants, utilize the mirrors to flirt with fair passengers, with the result that they pass the floors while ogling the girl. Another reason why the hotels will eliminate mirrors is that occasionally a passenger from the roof gardens becomes too boisterous and puts his fist through the glass, cutting his hand and afterward suing the hotel company.

Liquid Air as Motive Power.

Scientists declare that as a motive power for operating automobiles and the electric storage air is superior to the electric storage battery, since it requires no tedious waiting for the process of recharging and it delivers more than double the power of former, with half the weight. Gasoline is not in the same class with liquid air, for the latter emits no noxious odors, nor is there any danger of explosions. As a refrigerator there is no source of cold like liquid air. Other than operating automobiles and serving as a refrigerator there is hardly a thing the human mind can think of that liquid air cannot do, from providing a magical entertainment to the production of continuous power. Yet there is lacking a process by which it can be produced cheaply enough to compete with other sources of motive force now in use.

LEBANON VALLEY FARMS FOR SALE

I have Lebanon Co. farms for sale at $60 TO $100 PER ACRE that are equal and in some respects better than some farms I saw in Lancaster that were recently sold at public sale FOR OVER $150.00 PER ACRE.

I can show you tobacco raised in Lebanon Co. that equals any you can produce in Lancaster Co.

Write me kind of a farm you want to buy and I will send you a big list to look over and make arrangements to show you any of the farms that you want to see.

71-acre farm and hotel near Jonestown, on State Road. $5200.

42-acre farm, near Schaeffers-town, with saw mill. Large custom saw business. $4300.

50-acre farm, 1 mile from Lebanon, with extra fine buildings; 5 acres of timberland marketable at $650; adjoining small town. $6,800.

60 acres, between Campbelltown and Bachmansville. 2 brick houses; 7 rooms, large stone bank barn 48x70 ft. Very nice farm at $4650.

Hotel and 64-acre farm at Borderville, 1 mi. from R. R. sta. B. Allen, Sylvania, Ga. "After years of suffering with rheumatism, liver trouble, stomach disorders, and deranged kidneys, I am again, thanks to Electric Bitters, sound and well." Try them. Only 50 cents at S. B. Bernhart & Co's.

90-acre limestone farm, extra fine, on Ephrata & Lebanon trolley line, 2 1/2 miles from Lebanon.

107-acre farm, extra fine building of a diplomat.

The Men Who Succeed
as heads of large enterprises are men of great energy. Success, today, demands health. To all it to fail. It's utter folly for a man to endure a weak, run-down, half alive condition when Electric Bitters will put him right on his feet in short order. "Four bottles did me more real good than any other medicine I ever took," writes Chas. B. Allen, Sylvania, Ga. "After years of suffering with rheumatism, liver trouble, stomach disorders, and deranged kidneys, I am again, thanks to Electric Bitters, sound and well." Try them. Only 50 cents at S. B. Bernhart & Co's.

The man who takes the job of fine, on Ephrata & Lebanon trolley ticket chopper for the Panama Canal will probably have to be something of a diplomat.
