EDITORIALS

Many a man who knows his place is unable to keep it.

If you would keep your friends, let them keep their money.

Mexico is clamoring for Diaz again, but Don Port isn't standing at Armaçeddon.

Col. Roosevelt is now out in the region where he particularly approves of votes for women.

It must get Colonel Roosevelt pretty mad to be compelled to buy gasoline from the Standard Oil Company.

The Courts say that the Socialists have a right to display a red flag as the party emblem, but what about the red handana?

Maybe that Long Island husband who refused to cook for his wife simply was taking a precaution against becoming a widower.

Mr. LaFollette announces that he is not boosting Taft, but he need not hope to prove himself unique by such an announcement.

T. R. may be a tramp of the skies, as George Sutherland says, but he is too energetic to be in good standing in the hoboes Union.

One good thing about the Maine election is that all three parties insist that they are very happy, thus setting a bright example of optimism.

Governor Wilson has gained 8 pounds since the convention and his campaign manager should help him reduce. Nobody loves a fat man.

T. R. speaking in Idaho, promised to revise the conversation policy, but he looked around carefully first to see if Giff Pinchot was in earshot.

For a man who is rushing us in to war for political purposes, President Taft is certainly considerate not to send the army down there until after the dog days.

Wall street must hence under take high rank as a sanatorium for the recuperation of broken down and apparently moribund practitioners of high finance.

To suggest that Oscar Straus would make a first rate new party presidential candidate in 1916, would be an act of great cruelty to one of our most sensitive bull moose.

Taft, Wilson, Roosevelt and all other kinds of clubs are being formed in almost every town in this section. Clubs are all right but if they all go parading at the same time, look out for trouble.

In compelling the police to go for 'em, instead of sending 'em in their cards at Mulberry street, Gyp the blood and Lefty seem determined to upset the cherished traditions of the New York underworld.

As Adam was surveying the animals he was called to name, he smiled with satisfaction as he remarked: "Whatever else may happen there never will be a shortage in the supply of party emblems."

Speaker Clark writes entertainingly of presidential aspirations that have failed. He may not be a great statesman, but to lapse into the chaste Addisonian English of our day, he is some historian, take it from us!

The 420th anniversary of the discovery of America, and Messrs. Rockefeller, Morgan and Carnegie will give a dinner on that date to Christopher Columbus, who found it for them. The 27th will be the anniversary of the landing in this country of the man who will be celebrated in an appropriate manner by every one who has put the important syllable in any thing nice, the moon will be full on the 15th, the pass word for the month is butter.

Two harvesting machines, identical in all respects, manufactured by the Chicago Harvester Company, are on exhibition in Texas; one bought in Germany for $80 and the other in Illinois for $125. There will be rooms of "explanations" and just one reason.

October was originally the eighth month of the Romans, but it brought watermelons and pumpkins in at the same time, and Numa Pompilius, who liked both, pushed it along to tenth place to keep from founding himself. A Bull Moose party formed to dethrone him, but he held on, and was able in the end to pull the skulls of his enemies around on a string on Halloween, with a candle inside, from which we have our present day Jack-o-Lantern.

GETZ BROTHERS,

Mt. Joy Hall Building Mount Joy, Penna.

SPORTING HILL Paul Singer of Manheim, spent Sunday with A. D. Frankhouser and family. Amos Musselman of Litz, spent Tuesday among relatives and friends here. Fred Y. Koser and wife spent Sunday with relatives in Lebanon county. Squire and Mrs. J. E. Stauffer spent Sunday with Christ Stauffer and wife at Kissel Hill. Hiram Richard, wife and son Lloyd of Manheim visited Abram Cooper and wife, on Sunday. Eli Shelley, wife and son Clarence of Rohrerstown, were Sunday guests in the home of Emanuel Kauffman. Mrs. Kathryn Strauss and daughter Helen of Reading, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Cover on Sunday. John M. Nissley and wife of Altoona spent part of the past week with his mother, Mrs. Susan F. Nissley. Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Garman and daughter Margaret, spent Sunday with her parents, Amos Nissleys, at Union Square. Misses Elma Brandt, of Manheim and Fannie Dissinger are visiting their friend, Miss Mae Rohrer, at Royersford, this week. Miss Emma Wenger was a guest in the home of her sister, Mrs. W. D. Groff, at Elizabethtown, over Saturday and Sunday. Misses Nettie Kauffman and Margie Arnold and Mrs. Hollinger, of Lancaster, were Sunday guests of John Kauffman and family. The home of L. C. Williams was on fire on Wednesday morning but the flames were extinguished before much damage was done. Henry Supman and wife and Isiah Supman and wife of Mount Joy were visitors of their brother, Amos Supman and family on Sunday. John Barto and wife and Harry S. Eltnier, wife and son Martin, of Manheim, and Messrs. George Dissinger, Samuel Kurtz and Norman Achey, of Reistville, were guests in the home of D. Dissinger on Sunday. Joseph Wickenheiser and wife entertained the following on Sunday, Phares Mohr, wife and son James, of Salunha, H. C. Long and daughters, Virgie and Mamie, of Lancaster and David Wickenheiser and wife of near Mount Joy.

MASTERSVILLE Jacob Hackman, Jr. and sister, Edna entertained a considerable large crowd of young people on Sunday evening at Hackman's home. Uncle Franklin Brubaker sold his farm of 18 acres last Tuesday for a hand some price. Hiram Sharpe was the purchaser and the purchase price was $4399. The Mastersville school is rapidly rounding into shape and we wish all the pupils could enter early so as to get advantage of the methods and longer term. The patrons are urged to visit our school and all friends of education are cordially invited to pay us a visit. A petition has been drawn up for the purpose of transferring the Union Square voting precinct to Mastersville. All the business is there and the latter place is more central. All the voters are urged to turn out at the next election and show their choice for the highest tribunal in our government. The petition has 160 signers, more than half of the eligible voting list. The Children's meeting held at the Mt. Hope church, on Sunday afternoon, proved to be a great success. The Sunday school and pastors engaged in a spirited sentimental exercise which was followed by interesting and inspiring talks given to the children and parents by Revs. Myers, of Lancaster, and Elder Hiram Gibble. The superintendent, Samuel N. Becker, conducted the meeting and thanks all present for their able assistance and interest shown for the glory of God.

MILTON GROVE Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Helsey attended a love feast at Litz on Saturday evening. Miss Ada Grosh of Lancaster spent Sunday at the home of her father E. F. Grosh. Edward Myers, well driller of Salunha, transacted business in this place during the past week. Preaching services in the Evangelical church on Sunday evening at 7.30. All invited to attend. A. R. Gibble and wife entertained Mr. and Mrs. John Geib and three daughters of Elm on Sunday. A. F. Diffenderfer and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Samuel R. Gibble of near Mastersville on Sunday. How glad we are for the showers of rain we have just had and we trust that we shall have more ere the weather clears off again. Monroe Sheaffer and family of Mt. Joy and Edward Fry of Palmyra were guests of the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Fry, on Sunday. The following transacted business in Lancaster during the past week: Mr. and Mrs. John Kauffman, Mrs. Christian Good and daughter Stella, Mrs. I. G. Zook and daughter Meta and Miss Lizzie Weaver.

As heads of large enterprises are men of great energy. Success, today, demands health. To all it to fall. It's utter folly for a man to endure a weak, run-down, half alive condition when Electric Bitters will put him right on his feet in short order. "Four bottles did me more real good than any other medicine I ever took," writes Chas. B. Allen, Sylvania, Ga. "After years of suffering with rheumatism, liver trouble, stomach disorders, and deranged kidneys, I am again, thanks to Electric Bitters, sound and well." Try them. Only 50 cents at S. B. Chandler & Co's.
