Bernhardt's Odd Mistake.

Sarah Bernhardt was once the unconscious victim of an amusing mistake. When returning from one of her visits to England she chanced to encounter King George of Greece, who was waiting for an outgoing train, at the Gare du Nord, in Paris. The great actress was overwhelmed. "Sire," she said to the king, "you honor me. I cannot sufficiently thank you for your courtesy in coming here to meet me." His majesty gracefully accepted the situation.

His Opportunity.

"Harry, I've been reading up on parliamentary usage. I've got to preside at a meeting of our girls' club. But there's one thing I don't quite understand—what is the 'previous question'?" "It's the question I've been trying to ask you for a whole year, Mabel, but you never would listen to me. You'll let me ask now, won't you?" "I—I suppose so, Harry, if you are sure it's parliamentary."—Chicago Tribune.

How Long Will Mary Be Away?

Before Mary went away for a vacation somebody asked her when she was going and how long she would be away, and this is what she said: "When it is the day after tomorrow I shall start a week from yesterday, and I'm not coming back until the day before five weeks after a fortnight and three days before the day after a couple of days before I start!"

Handing Him One.

"You must have seen some trait in me to admire," said Mr. Meekton, "or you wouldn't have married me." "I did," replied his wife; "your sublime nerve in wanting to be my husband."—Washington Star.

Many People Give Gloves At Christmas Time

COME to think of it, gloves do make pretty nice gifts, don't they? Everybody wears them—and if they're not received as gifts, folks have to buy them, so gloves at Christmas time are acceptable for more reasons than one.

But when you give gloves, you must be sure that they are the kind, or at least as good as the recipient would buy herself, so if you select any of our popular grades, you will choose wisely.

The H. & B. Queen is conceded to be the best $1 glove made. Of selected lambskin, and finished like the usual dollar-and-a-half quality. In black, white, tans, greys, modes.

A Very Dressy Glove at $1 of glace finish, has heavy silk-braided backs and is full pipe sewn. In white, self-stitched and black-stitched.

Maggiorelli Gloves at $1.50 are of real Italian kid. They are splendid dress gloves and sure to please. In all wanted shades. Be sure the name "Maggiorelli" is stamped on every pair.

This is the time of the year when long gloves are a necessity, for the opera and various holiday social functions, so you can't go amiss on a pair of these, daintily boxed.

Lambskin Glove in glace finish, with silk corded backs, in light weight, very pliable and good fitting. $1.79 a pair, 12 button length.

Briefly Featuring the Leading Makes of Women's Winter Underwear

A good many women will receive new underwear for Christmas and if it comes from our underwear section, it will be one of the leading makes, for instance, Forest Mills that is all hand trimmed and finished, or Carter's invisible rib underwear, or the beautiful seamless Richelieu.

There are all desirable weights in cotton, merino and silk and wool.

Vests and Pants: cotton at 50c; part wool at 75c; silk and wool at $1 to $1.50; and all-wool at $1.50.

Union Suits: cotton at 75c; heavy fleeced at $1; merino at $1.50; and silk and wool at $2 and $2.50.

Good Sweaters at $1.95 And Up

THIS is just the time of the year when a sweater comes in mighty handy—in fact, there's hardly a month in the twelve that a sweater is not found convenient and comfortable. This is why they make such nice gifts.

These all-wool sweaters come in cardinal, black, grey, brown and white. Both plain and fancy weaves.

There are unusually good values at $1.95. Others at $2.95, $3.95, $5, $6.75 and $8.50.

Beautiful Fur Sets & Coats

THERE are all kinds of fur sets from an attractive red fox at $12 to beautiful Eastern mink at $250. There are many novelties this season, for instance the new reversed moline, and reversed nearsail. Fox in its many varieties is very popular, and at $25, is an excellent assortment of good sets.

Handsome coats range in price from $65 for a nearsail to $250 for a Hudson seal. Goat Pony Coats from $35 to $100, and marmot at $39.75 and $50.
