EDITORIALS

Governor Wilson slept 13 hours Sunday, but he isn't sleeping on the job.

Just for argument's sake: Suppose that Charles P. Taft had given those $800,000 to Roosevelt's pre-convention campaign?

Another thing that nobody knows is what becomes of the baseball fans in winter, and what they talk about.

The foot ball players are about due to relieve the public mind by a demonstration that the game has at last arrived at the stage of safety so long promised.

Ex-senator Lorimer's refusal to accept the easy passage into ancient history that was open to him would seem to indicate that he meant business.

A few more hours of the bumper crops may dispose of the question of easier loan rates to the farmer by putting him in the lending instead of the borrowing class.

Hilles says that there is to be a landslide in favor of Taft. Manager McAdoo makes the announcement that there will be a landslide in favor of Wilson, and the Bull Moose managers are confident there will be a landslide in favor of the Colonel. Why are the Debs and Chafin managers so modest?

The Wilharm Forgeries

After forging checks on banks at Christiansburg, Middletown, Elizabethtown and other places, Charles F. Wilharm of Lancaster, was pinched at Mountville while trying to work a bank there on a check supposed to have been given by Dr. J. R. Lehman. Mr. Wilharm is well known here, having been editor of "It" and later "Progress."

Supply House Issues Execution

The Gately & Fitzgerald Supply company has issued an execution for $150.25 against Arthur M. Harlan, demonstration that the game has at

MASTERTONVILLE

Beware of the trespassing signs and you will not get into trouble. If all gunners would act decently when gunning on the farmers' premises, many of our farmers would refrain from posting bills from a visit at York and other forbidding trespassing places.

October's bright blue weather is very delightful and the autumn village spent a few days with her parties may be seen taking outings to the hills to witness the trans-forming of nature into its bright colors and thence to a final rest in Mother Earth's arms.

The Stars, with Elam Shonk as captain, handed the Tigers with Mahlon Ginder as captain, a severe beating last week. The score in games—Stars won 5, lost 1; Tigers won 1, lost 5. These are ball games played at the Mastertonville school during play hours.

The Mastertonville school is progressing very rapidly and if the interest continues as heretofore we will accomplish a great deal. The parents are sending their children regularly and we hope they will continue to do so throughout the year. Not only are we looking for the pupils to come regularly, but the patrons are welcome to call and see us work quite frequently.

His Ignorance Convicts Him

Because he offered to sell 500 two cent stamps for $6, Harry E. McCroskey, aged 33 years, of near Wrightsville, was arrested at York. He later admitted that he robbed the postoffice at Bridgeton.

MAYTOWN

Prof. H. B. Jacobs has returned from a visit at Middletown. D. Robert Esheleman of near Philadelphia, returned home.

Miss Mary Dehoff has returned from a visit at York and other places.

Miss Lillian McCurdy of Millersville spent a few days with her parents in this place.

Mrs. Elizabeth Swiler, of Philadelphia, is visiting her brother C. G. Longenecker and family.

John H. Miller, wife and two children of Marietta were guests yesterday of Mrs. Miller's parents. Rev. E. E. Kauffman who has been pastor of the Church of God for six years will remain here by appointment.

Charles A. Harter principal of the Upper Leacock high school at Leola, spent a few days with his parents Dr. and Mrs. G. A. Harter.

No further light can be thrown on the hole mystery on the Witmer farm near town. Squire Hicks and a number of others are still working on the case. The latest reports showing that the number of the automobile given was from Philadelphia.

RHEIMS

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Witmer entertained Mr. and Mrs. Enos Floyd, of Pleasant Hill on Sunday.

The love feast held by the Brethren church of the West Green Tree district was very largely attended. The church was filled to its utmost capacity in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Givens and family entertained a number of friends and young people on Sunday in honor of their son, Arthur, who returned home after spending six months in the West.

A car load of choice apples arrived here one day last week from Lock Haven, Clinton county. Any one in need of apples or fresh sweet cider can have their wants supplied by calling on Christ Helsey or J. W. Helsey on Main street.

Two car loads of steers arrived in this place on Wednesday evening, containing fifty two steers, purchased by three farmers, namely Harvey Hostetter, David Raffensberger and Elmer Roland. Many of our good farmers are a little timid at buying feeding cattle at the prevailing high prices.

While Mr. and Mrs. Christian Rutty of near Elizabethtown, were passing through this place on Sunday morning their horse scared at an automobile and ran into the fence at Joseph Smith's house, throwing Mr. and Mrs. Rutty out of the buggy. Although pretty badly scared but not in the least hurt, the horse stood looking at the occupants picking themselves up. The buggy was not broken and the horse escaped with a few scratches. Mrs. Rutty was not hurt but badly frightened after which she boarded a trolley car for Elizabethtown.
