

Are You Blue and Worried?

Nervous? Some of the time really ill? Catch cold easily and frequently suffer from biliousness or headache? The reason is that your system does not rid itself of the poisons in the blood; just as impossible as it is for the grate of a stove to rid itself of cinders. The waste does to us exactly what the cinders do to the stove; make the fires burn low until enough cinders have accumulated and then prevent its burning at all. Your liver is sluggish—you are dull and heavy—sleep does not rest, nor is food appetizing. In this condition, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery eradicates the poisons from the body—a glyceric alterative extract made from bloodroot, golden seal and mandrake root, stone and queen's root, without the use of alcohol. No matter how strong the constitution the stomach is apt to be "out of kilter" at times; in consequence the blood is disordered, for the stomach is the laboratory for the constant manufacture of blood.

Mrs. Blake

Mrs. HENRY BLAKE, of Post Dover, Ont., Box 38, writes: "I have been a great sufferer for years from throat trouble, catarrh, indigestion, female troubles, bloating, constipation and nervousness—at times I would be too feeble to be up stairs. Was under many different doctors' care, and would get better for a little while, then I would go down with chronic inflammation all through me. For fifteen years I had this poison in my blood. After trying nearly everything I got worse. I read in 'The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser' of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. I have used five bottles of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. I am now able to do my work and walk with pleasure. I feel like a new woman. I enjoy everything around me and thank God for letting me live long enough to find something that made me well again."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate liver and bowels.

STOLE A TEAM

But It Was Captured Before the Thieves Got Out of Town

On Saturday evening about ten o'clock two hoboes who were loitering about town pending that they were blacksmiths, moulders, marble cutters and what not, made an unsuccessful attempt to steal a team belonging to Christian Strickler of near town, but driven by M. Coble, his hired man. The horse was tied in front of the Union National Bank. They untied the horse, jumped into the wagon and drove out South Barbara Street, not even removing the blanket from the horse or taking off the hitching rope. Mr. C. S. Longenecker happened to be in the vicinity of the bank, saw the team going, ran after it and caught the horse. When the thieves stopped one of them exclaimed, "Its the blacksmith." Both jumped out and beat it up the alley as fast as their feet would carry them. Nothing has been seen or heard of them since. The team was returned to the owner.

CONGRESS IS DEMOCRATIC

Wilson's Followers Will Control Both Branches.

MANY LEADERS DEFEATED

Ex-Speaker Joseph Cannon Loses His Seat in Lower House, and Norris, Dixon, Bourne and Kenyon, Progressives, Are Retired From Senate.

Washington, Nov. 6.—The new congress will be Democratic in both its branches. The senate will probably stand 52 Democrats and 44 Republicans and the house 292 Democrats, 129 Republicans and 14 Progressives.

"Uncle Joe" Cannon is among the defeated, but Colonel Roosevelt's son-in-law, Nicholas Longworth, of Cincinnati, slipped by a narrow margin, as did also Sereeno E. Payne, of New York, at present chairman of the minority in the house, and John Weeks, of Massachusetts.

The Democratic gain in Massachusetts was not anywhere nearly as great as the enthusiastic Bay State leaders imagined. In Ohio the indications are that the Republicans will have only two or three congressmen, while in the present house they have five. There will be eighteen Republican congressmen from New York as against fourteen in the present house.

In the senate the Progressive leaders were smitten hip and thigh. George W. Norris and Joseph M. Dixon, the national Progressive chairman, are surely defeated, as are probably Jonathan Bourne, of Oregon, and William S. Kenyon, of Ohio. Governor Stubbs, of Kansas, will probably fall on the election.

In the senate the Democratic gains are as follows:

One in Colorado, where Senator Guggenheim retires; one in Iowa, where Senator Kenyon retires; one in Montana, where Senator Dixon goes out; one in Nebraska to take the place of Senator Norris Brown; one in New Jersey to take the place of Senator Briggs, and probably one in Nevada, taking the place of Senator Massey.

In Massachusetts it is expected that on joint ballot for United States senator the legislature will be very close.

Of sixty candidates for the house of representatives so far known to be elected, 32 are Republicans, 27 are Democrats, 3 are Progressives and 1 is a Socialist. There is a gain for the Democrats, and there is a possibility that the Progressives may hold the balance of power.

The terms of thirty-one United States senators will expire on March 4, 1913. In addition to most of these, four seats now vacant were involved in the elections. Fourteen were Democrats and twenty-one Republicans. The Democrats whose present terms expire next March are: A. O. Bacon, of Georgia; Joseph W. Bailey, of Texas; John H. Bankhead, of Alabama; Jeff Davis, of Arkansas; M. J. Foster, of Louisiana; Obadiah Gardner, of Maine; Thomas F. Martin, of Virginia; Robert F. Owen, of Oklahoma; Thomas H. Payne, of Kentucky; Lenox Percy, of Mississippi; F. M. Simmons, of North Carolina; Benjamin R. Tillman, of South Carolina, and Clarence W. Watson, of West Virginia.

The Republicans whose terms end next March are: William E. Borah, of Idaho; Jonathan Bourne, Jr., of Oregon; Frank O. Briggs, of New Jersey; Norris Brown, of Nebraska; Henry E. Burnham, of New Hampshire; W. Murray Crane, of Massachusetts; Shelby M. Cullom, of Illinois; Charles Curtis, of Kansas; Joseph M. Dixon, of Montana; Robert J. Gamble, of South Dakota; Simon Guggenheim, of Colorado; William S. Kenyon, of Ohio; Knute Nelson, of Minnesota; Harry A. Richardson, of Delaware; William Alden Smith, of Michigan; Francis E. Warren, of Wyoming; George P. Wetmore, of Rhode Island, and Albert B. Fall, of New Mexico.

The three vacancies in the present senate which were filled at the election were caused by the deaths of William L. Hughes, Democrat, of Colorado, and William B. Hoeyburn, Republican, of Idaho, and the ousting of William Lorimer, of Illinois.

Several of the senators whose terms will expire next March already have been re-elected by the state legislatures and were not therefore involved in the balloting.

Several faces that have been familiar to visitors in the senate galleries for many years still be missing after March 4 next, among them being Senator Bailey, of Texas.

Nebraska in Democratic Column. Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 6.—Wilson has carried the state by upwards of 15,000. Stephens, Democrat, has been re-elected to congress in the Third district. Sloan, Republican, is probably elected in the Ninth. Wilson carries Lancaster, Bryan's home county. The race between Norris, Republican, and Shallenberg, Democrat, for United States senator is close.

Delaware Goes to Wilson Column. Wilmington, Del., Nov. 6.—Indications are that Wilson will carry Delaware. Franklin Brooks, Democrat, is elected to congress.

NEW YORK GOES DEMOCRATIC

Wilson and Marshall Sweep the State.

SULZER ELECTED GOVERNOR

For the First Time in Years a Democratic Presidential Candidate Carried the State Outside of the Big City.

New York, Nov. 6.—Wilson and Marshall have carried New York state by pluralities of anywhere from 150,000 to 200,000.

For the first time in years a Democratic presidential candidate has come down to the Harlem river with a plurality to add to his own plurality in the greater city of New York. Wilson and Marshall have outrun both Roosevelt and Taft in the Republican strongholds beyond the northern barriers of the Democratic city of New York.

But the Democrats this year have seemed to stop at nothing. Congressman William Sulzer has knocked the spots out of both Oscar Straus, his Progressive opponent, and Job E. Hedges, the Republican standard bearer. Mr. Sulzer has a plurality of 140,000. Wilson has carried the greater city by not far from 125,000.

New York, in addition to choosing Democratic candidates in the state and nation, has put the Democrats in power, apparently, in both branches of the state legislature. The state senate will stand 33 Democrats to 18 Republicans and Progressives. The lower branch of the state legislature will be almost two to one Democratic. It will stand 100 Democrats to 50 Republicans.

The Democrats have also elected their associate judges of the court of appeals.

The party of the Bull Moose has run second in New York state and the Republican party third. It has been said that the Republican bosses would at most as soon have seen the Progressive ticket win in the state of New York as to have run second. To run second means that the Bull Moosers will have second place on the ballot at the next election, and it will mean that they will share with the victorious Democrats an equal division of the election machinery of this state.

If there be real cohesion in the Progressive party and if, as their national leader has said, the Progressive party is more than a man and an eternal principle, this second place in the race this year will give them a very considerable advantage in the election machinery of the next election and, so far as the election machinery is concerned, the Progressive party will be the real party in opposition to the dominant Democrats.

CONNECTICUT FOR WILSON

Democrats Also Elected Entire State Ticket.

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 6.—Connecticut swung back to the Democratic ranks. The vote of the state shows the choice of electors who will cast the seven votes of the state for Woodrow Wilson, that decision being made by a plurality of 10,000.

Baldwin, the Democratic governor of the state, is re-elected by a plurality that threatens to exceed 15,000. The election of five Democratic congressmen is indicated.

The large plurality of Governor Baldwin carried the entire Democratic state ticket with it, something that has not happened in Connecticut in this generation of voters. Governor Baldwin ran well ahead of Governor Wilson.

The Democrats will control the state senate, thus making certain the ability of the governor to secure confirmation of his appointments.

The house is close and the Progressives may have the balance of power. The state does not choose a United States senator, however, this year.

The showing made by the third ticket is a disappointment. President Taft's friends in this state rallied behind him as a Yale man, and the indications are that his total vote will be nearly double that of Roosevelt. Herbert Knox Smith, the Progressive candidate for governor, apparently ran behind his chief. Connecticut will have five Democratic congressmen to take the place of the present Republicans and one Democrat.

PRESCRIPTION

For a Long Life.
This is the prescription for a long life given by an old gentleman in Connecticut, who is ninety-nine years old and still well and cheerful. "Live temperately, be slow to anger, don't worry, take plenty of exercise in the fresh air, and, above all, keep cheerful."

Should the system get run down—digestive organs weak—the blood thin and sluggish, take Vinol, which is a delicious combination of the medicine—body-building properties of cods' livers, with the useless grease eliminated and tonic iron added. We regard Vinol as one of the greatest body-builders and strength-creators in the world for aged people.

Mrs. Mary Ivey, of Columbus, Ga., says: "If people only knew the good Vinol does old people, you would be unable to supply the demand; it is the finest tonic and strength-creator I ever used."

We wish every feeble old person in this vicinity would try Vinol on our agreement to return their money if it fails to give satisfaction.
