Thanksgiving Boxing

The management of the Lancaster Athletic Club has arranged a strong boxing bill for the show of Thursday evening, November 28 (Thanksgiving night.) On that occasion Johnny Greiner, the game youngster will make his debut as a windup boxer. He has been doing excellent work for several years and many friends will be pleased to know that he will be one of the men contesting in the star bout. He will be opposed by Frankie Bradley, of Philadelphia, who has not been seen in Lancaster for some time, but has been before the public almost constantly during the past four years. Everyone in Lancaster knows that he is a good one, and it is when opposed to a stiff proposition that Greiner always does his best. There will be no less than five preliminaries, and it should be one of the classiest battles ever given in Lancaster. The matches are "Fighting Bob" of Allentown, vs. Harry Diamond, of Philadelphia; Young Russell vs. Kidder Platt, of York; Speedy Johnson, of Lancaster vs. Jimmy Duncan of Columbia; Chaley Nickel vs. Young Otto, and Young Morris, formerly of Columbia, but now of Harrisburg, vs. Young McGrady, of Lewistown, Pa.

MARIETTA

Advertise in the Mt. Joy Bulletin Elaborate Thanksgiving services were held in the Marietta Presbyterian church on Sunday. The pastor preached two appropriate sermons, the subject of his morning theme was "Hunting a Thanksgiving Adjective," and the evening subject, "The Flower of Song in the Garden of Salvation."

The Democrats of the borough held a great jollification on Tuesday evening in this place. The parade formed in front of the River-view Hotel, the route being over the principal streets of the borough. The chief marshal was Adam Wisman; aides George P. Resch, C. F. Kistler, William Stultz, George Dunkleberry. Delegations from Elizabethtown, Mount Joy, Maytown, Columbia and other places were present.

The Marietta basket ball team opened the season last evening with the York St. Paul team, and the latter was outclassed in every way, the home team winning easily by the score of 34 to 12. The hall was completely filled with enthusiasts and the line up of the home team this year shows they are equal to any amateur teams in several counties. There will be a game here with Spring Grove on Thanksgiving evening.
