

Wonderful Cures Reported in Germany.

The use of simple herbs as remedies instead of the more concentrated and usually more dangerous inorganic substances, has been revived very widely of late.

It was Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute of Buffalo, N. Y., who first advocated the extended use of some of our native roots, such as: Golden seal and Oregon grape root, mandrake and queen's root, black cherry bark.

J. D. MATHESON, ESQ.

"I suffered for over five years with what the doctors told me was dilated condition of the stomach, associated with a certain condition of some, and nervous heart. I had tried enough nux, bismuth, gentian, rhubarb, etc., to float a ship and naturally thought there was no cure for me, but after reading what eminent doctors said of the curative qualities of the ingredients of 'Golden Medical Discovery' I gave it a fair trial.

MARRIAGE RITES IN ARMENIA

Ancient and Odd Customs Are Still Commonly Observed in This Country.

Constantinople, Turkey.—Cupid has little chance in Armenia, where young women are closely secluded and kept away from all social intercourse with young men.

As soon as a girl is born to them Armenian parents begin to lay aside money and fine linens for her marriage portion.

In Bridal Attire.

her mother sends a message to the guardians or parents of some young man who she thinks would be a suitable husband for her daughter, describing the girl's beauty, admirable qualities and particularly the amount of her dowry.

The marriage follows shortly, taking place at the home of the bride's parents, and the ceremony is as imposing as the ritual of the Greek church can make it.

When the ceremony is concluded the female relatives of the bride rush to kiss the bridegroom, while they put into his pockets lumps of sugar and fasten ribbons upon his breast.

RURAL COP LIVES IN CLOVER

Getting the Market's Best, Awaiting Millionaire's Return to Collect Note.

Cleveland, Ohio.—Constable George Morris, monarch of all he surveys in the village of Nottingham, now lolling in the lap of luxury, is having the time of his life at the country mansion of Patrick Calhoun, multimillionaire traction magnate and real estate operator.

Morris is at the mansion awaiting Calhoun's return from California to collect a judgment for $7,910, rendered by a California court.

"Now, nothing like that; Miss Calhoun had the servants give me some, you know," is the way Morris met the accusation that he went home for some pajamas.

"Eat? I've been eating like a house afire up here. Anything I want, you know. This morning I had ham and herring, demitasse, and, well, all the rest of the program. Haven't broken a plate yet. Nope, there's nothing doin' on the 'wine and the red stuff.' 'Twouldn't be proper with Pat anyway. But I'm not embarrassed because he's gone."

ABILITY TO COOK SAVES HER

Woman Escapes Sentence in Penitentiary Because of Culinary Accomplishments.

St. Louis, Mo.—Mary Green was saved from a term in the penitentiary on the plea of a former employer that Mary is an exceptional cook and an excellent biscuit baker, unless tempted by the presence of liquor.

Maids "Not Gadabouts" Get Cash. London.—Money gifts left by Isaac Duckett for maid servants who can prove long service with the same family and are not gossips or gadabouts, were distributed in the parish of St. Andrew's, Holborn, London, the other day.
