USEFUL INFORMATION FOR THE FARMER

Cold Storage of Apple Would Settle the Question of a Congested Market—The Securing of Eggs in Winter A Possibility—Other Notes.

Fall is the most logical time to transplant trees and shrubs of all kinds, because trees are then completely at rest.

Pears and apples keep better if picked a little green. Some pears rot from the core outward if allowed to ripen on the tree.

Trees set out in the fall do better when the winter is moderate, as the ground is drier and the trees make a greater growth the next season.

The farmer has become wise to the fact that it is possible to have winter eggs, which no longer is an idle dream, as was the belief in the days of our forefathers.

The framer has become wise to the fact that it is possible to have winter eggs, which no longer is an idle dream, as was the belief in the days of our forefathers.

SALUNGA

Miss Sadie Malehorn is slowly improving.

Simon E. Miller and family of Old Orchard spent Sunday with his brother Jonas and wife.

Mr. Milt Miller is home from his gunning trip, having bagged turkeys, pheasants, squirrels and rabbits.

Mr. Levi Shuman is nursing a few loose ribs the result of a fall on the streets of Lancaster a week ago. Of course he is up and doing.

Hog killing at Herr's slaughter house is on the boom and the sweet smell of the grand Lancaster county sausage permeates the crisp Christmas air.

The Ladies' Chorus of Salunga with Alma Hershey as accompanist rendered their selections at the Mt. Joy Hall Friday night very creditably. They were royally entertained by Dr. Garber and wife after the lecture.

The Brethren and Methodists both had services in their respective churches on Sunday morning. Rev. Forney preaching in the former and Rev. Devine in the latter.

The hens that were not wise—a farmer in our section possessed of a few hens heard a great cackling under his corn crib, a building so situated that in winter time he passed often daily. He thought there was something doing and although he had looked recently he concluded to take another peep, when, low in a remote corner in a well-hidden nest, were twenty nice eggs.

Had Bidy sounded the alarm only a few days earlier her master would have been about six cents a dozen richer.

Mr. Frank Bair of our town met with quite a serious accident on Sunday night while driving on the Harrisburg pike on his way to church. Mr. Bair was driving toward Landisville and the snow squalls rendered the night quite dark.

Rev. Kreider of East Petersburg was driving toward Salunga and just east of the toll gate the two teams crashed into each other. Mr. Bair was thrown out, receiving an ugly cut in the head which Dr. J. S. Kendig was called on to treat.

The boy, Willie Young, who was with Mr. Bair was also thrown out but not hurt and was able to take the horse home after they recovered him. The Kreider family was also thrown out but escaped without serious injury. Both wagons were damaged and left shaftless by the roadside. Careful driving, we surmise, averted a more serious outcome.

SUFFERED EVERYTHING

For Fourteen Years. Restored To Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Elgin, Ill.—"After fourteen years of suffering everything from female complaints, I am at last restored to health. I employed the best doctors and even went to the hospital for treatment and was told there was no help for me. But while taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I began to improve and I continued its use until I was made well."

—Mrs. HENRY LEISBERG, 743 Adams St., Kearneysville, W. Va.—"I feel it my duty to write and say what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I suffered from female weakness and at times felt so miserable I could hardly endure being on my feet."

"After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and following your special directions, my trouble is gone. Words fail to express my thankfulness. I recommend your medicine to all my friends."

—Mrs. G. B. WHITTINGTON.

The above are only two of the thousands of grateful letters which are constantly being received by the Pinkham Medicine Company of Lynn, Mass., which show clearly what great things Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound does for those who suffer from woman's ills.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
