FOUND AN ECONOMICAL PAIR

Most Joyous Occasion of Life Failed to Make Them "Loosen Up," to Young Clergyman's Diemay.

A clergyman in Cherryvale tells Mrs. Moffett that when he was a struggling young preacher and a marriage fee looked like several square meals to him, he was called upon to officiate at the wedding of a wealthy young farmer to the daughter of another farmer, also very wealthy and widely known in the county. The night of the wedding was a stormy one and the train to the little country station was two hours late, so the preacher hired a rig and drove the entire 12 miles, getting there just in time to miss supper. The wedding was a brilliant affair and after the ceremony the groom called the minister aside and told him how much he appreciated his coming through the storm and handed him a $2 bill—not enough to pay the team hire. As the preacher sat stunned, gazing at the money, the bride's father came in and the groom left. "How much did he give you?" asked the father. "Only two dollars," replied the preacher. "Why, that is a shame," exclaimed the father. "After all your trouble, too. He's terrible close with money. Don't say a word to any one, but take this." And as the old man slipped away the preacher, much touched, opened his hand and found a $1 bill. —Kansas City Star.

Honesty Increasing.

On her return from marketing, the young matron of the upper West side said to a caller: "I believe the sense of honesty is increasing in New York, at least in this locality. This morning I called the attention of a salesman to a small mistake he had made in giving me change, the mistake being in my favor. The proprietor, who was standing near, said to me: 'You're honest. You'll get along all right.' Not so many years ago the thought that seemed far too prevalent in this country was that only some clever form of dishonesty could 'get along all right.' The merchant who could trick a customer was supposed to be the smart fellow, and it was assumed an honest person was sure to get the little end of everything. I am delighted to find even one man who realizes that honesty is actually indispensable to success, and it is especially pleasing to find him in a place where I can deal with him regularly." —New York Press.

Appropriate.

Gazing at a group of blue children gathered about a small stoop, an old lady called one of the little girls. "Are all these children your sisters and brothers?" she asked. "Yes, mum," replied the youngster. "What is the largest one named?" "Maxie, mum." "And what do you call the smaller one?" "Minnie, mum."

The object passed to his stomach.

And Secret Service Man Arrested Applicant as Smuggler When She Answered "Ad."

Philadelphia, Pa.—The quest of "Acll Alexander," who is in reality Gomez Wilson, one of the government's shrewdest secret service agents, for a "brown-eyed wife" has ended. Wilson, who posed as a seedy individual, sought a woman suspected of counterfeiting and smuggling. Her eyes were known to be brown. The woman, whose name is Christina Chandler, was found in Shamokin and has been taken to Duluth, Minn., where she is wanted.

Some time ago the government received reports of smuggling being carried on between Canada and the United States, and a description of the woman was placed in the hands of Wilson, who devised the scheme of advertising for a wife whose eyes were brown. The suspect answered and was arrested.

Already Accomplished.

A reader asked the sage for advice, saying: "I am engaged to Kate Murphy, but my former fiancée, Kate Dooley, threatens to sue me for breach of promise. Can you advise me how to extricate myself from this difficulty?" The reply of the sage was short. It ran: "My dear reader, if I may say so, you seem to have extra-kated yourself already!"

The Hager Store Has Just Added a Carload of the Famous Knight-Brinkerhoff Pianos for Christmas Selling

Knight Brinkerhoff pianos need no introduction. They long since attained to a place among the distinguished American pianos, and their success rests upon that most substantial basis which is best described by the single word Merit.

They are manufactured under conditions almost unique. The Knight Brinkerhoff pianos are made from the first cutting of the great logs to the smallest detail, in the factories of the Company at Brazil, Indiana.

Every rib of the sounding board is mortised into the frame they are full size seven and one third octave; and have solid ivory keys.

The case is made along beautiful, graceful lines and is finely finished. It may safely be guaranteed that the appearance of the case will satisfy the eye, and the ear will be satisfied with the full, rich tone quality as clear as crystal in the upper registers and sonorous and resounding in the lower.

One of the Best Low-Priced Pianos on the Market $275. on time $247.50 Cash

The regular selling price at $275, allows you advantageous terms only ten dollars down, and six dollars a month until paid. If you prefer to pay cash, you receive a ten percent discount, which makes the price $247.50.

Buy a Knight-Brinkerhoff For Christmas

No home should be without a piano, particularly when you can buy good standard make at this extremely low price, and can purchase it on such easy terms as ten dollars down and six dollars a month.

We will deliver it for Christmas, if you wish.

Buy a Weiler Player-Piano at $375. on time $10. a Month

THERE is a little story connected with these pianos. They're made in Chicago by the H. P. Nelson Company and sell the country over for five hundred dollars.

Recently a shipment was made to a New York firm that failed while the pianos were in transit. Rather than have them shipped back to Chicago, the makers were glad to sell them for cash at a much below usual price, hence this offering.

The Weiler is a full size seven and one third octave piano, and is an 88 note player. It has mahogany case, nicely finished.

A Great Saving

Now you understand why you can buy a Weiler Player-Piano for $375. (as long as this purchase lasts) at $10. a month. Or if you prefer to pay cash, deduct 10 per cent, for cash, which makes the price as low as $337.50.
