Most all the quarantines in our town have been lifted and the people can go about their duties with more liberty.
Uncle Frank expects to leave our vicinity on April 1st, when he will move to Elstonville and manage the creamery at that place.
The Hershey Creamery Co. is in a flourishing condition and good prices will be paid to the farmers for good pure fresh milk.
There are still some crops of tobacco which have not been sold, but most of our farmers in this vicinity have contracted for it and deliver some every week. All the tobacco will be sold, but at a lower figure than it previously was sold.
The school opened on Monday and when the roll call was sounded thirty-nine pupils responded to their names. In a few days the school will strike its natural stride and move onward very rapidly if the teacher's plans are not frustrated by something unexpected.
We now have a regular checker club in our town which consists of the following persons: W. A. Bishop, president; Edwin Haze, secretary; Harvey Risser, treasurer; John Weldman, clown; Cyrus Behney, manager and several others as seconds per chance the regular players fall short of their playing ability. This club challenges any and any other amateur club to a series of games.

MCCARTY AT LANCASTER
The New Heavy Weight Appears There February 6th
Manager Hensel of the Lancaster Athletic club has arranged to have Luther McCarty the new champion heavyweight appear in that city, on Thursday evening, February 6th. Manager Billy McCarty wired from St. Paul, Minn., this morning that everything was completed. McCarty will be the first city in the East to see the most talked about pugilist this country has ever known, since his victories over Flynn, Morris, Palzer and Kauffman. The night after McCarty appears at Lancaster he will be at the Olympia in Philadelphia. Manager Edwards was so tickled that he wired McCarty he would meet him with a brass band. He will hold a big smoker with three good bouts and McCarty's act. Billy McCarty and Mr. Hensel are personal friends and the former said he would give Lancaster the chance to get McCarty before any city in the East. McCarty will box four rounds, will give his larlat throwing act and pictures of his fight and training quarters will be shown. This is the night on which Mr. Hensel intended holding a regular show and in addition to McCarty the following bouts will be put on: Johnny Greiner vs. Joe Phillips, of Philadelphia, who were the best at the Houck-Dillon show, New Campbell vs. "Fighting Bob," of Allentown, and Jimmy Serbold, of Ephrata, vs. Young Russell.
