Editorial
Profanity is the foul odor of an impure heart.

Let us learn to tip our hats as politely to the young lady who sews for a living or earns it by any honest toil as to the one who teaches French or chews gum in seven different languages. Let us give as warm a clasp of the hand to the honest tiller of the soil, the fireman or brakeman as we do to the lawyer or doctor. Let us recognize honesty and industry wherever found, and the time will soon come when there will be an army of bright, intelligent, honest young men and women at the bottom of the ladder, ready to labor at any honorable calling. Let us remember that the most beautiful lives have blossomed in the darkest places, as pure, white lilies full of fragrance in the slimy, stagnant waters.

The birth and official station do secure to their extreme, superficial that they never did not command the reverence. The most beautiful found hidden in some spot; so the most beautiful often found hidden in a name at the foot of the

The original cost of the water works was $40,000 and the borough last 40 years, has paid off $100,000, $50,000 more or less in interest and still owes the bond interest $27,000.

The above quotation is from the speech of a resident of this town whose intentions may be all right, but who nevertheless didn't know what he was talking about.

It is true that the original bonded indebtedness for the water works was assumed by public spirited individuals, and as a result of it, as the water works did not pay in the beginning, a large part of the borough tax for some years succeeding the construction of the works was used to retire this $10,000. In addition to the $50,000 which the works originally cost, possibly $15,000 more has been expended for extension of mains, subsides, outlet from bottom of reservoir, new dam, new race, new machinery, etc. It is conservative to say that the works as they are at present have cost not less than $65,000. The $10,000 floating indebtedness was paid prior to 1890. No bonds were retired prior to that time. Most of the betterments have been made and paid for since 1890. That is: $15,000 betterments and $13,000 bonds, or $28,000 has been paid off in twenty-two years, and $10,000 previous to that time, or $38,000 all told.

If Mount Joy concludes to build the filter plant, even if it costs $15,000, there will be a bonded indebtedness on the works of $42,000, an amount $8,000 less than the works originally cost.

There was no income from our water works before 1875, and for a number of years following that time the income did not meet the outgo; but note the difference now. Last year's income from water was over $5,500. To pay the interest at 4 per cent on $42,000 only requires $11,680, leaving the difference to maintain the works and retire the bonds.

The water works was constructed in 1874. The assessed valuation of Mount Joy is nearly twice as high now as it was then. If our town then could shoulder a debt for water of $50,000, with no income assured, surely $42,000 should not make it stagger now.

the money is gone; but the water works could be sold to a private company now for almost twice the amount they cost.

Skating is now in swing on the Chiques and dozens of gay lads and lassies may be seen daily desporting themselves on the ice. A prominent business man of Chiques earlier in the season when the ice was still treacherous looking across the broad bosom looking across the ice he supposed a man floundering among the broken ice in water over head and ears. At once he sent in the alarm with, my goodness hurry up or he will drown. The boys tore into it and finally at the eminent risk of life rescued a measly dog.

How Will We Like It?
In redistricting the state for Congressmen, there is a possibility that Lebanon County will be yoked with Lancaster County, which has for years without number been a district by itself.

CHESTNUT LUMBER IS INCREASING IN PRICE
Present a Favorable Time For Owners of Blight Trees to Cut

In spite of the fact that immense quantities of chestnut are blighted in this State as a result of the chestnut bark disease and much is being cut because of this, the market price of chestnut lumber is gradually increasing. Attention is called to this state of affairs in a statement issued from the office of the Pennsylvania State Conservation Association in this city. Users of chestnut lumber looked for a drop in price because of the blight, but instead they are confronted with an increase of from $2 to $3 per thousand feet within the past three months. Owners of chestnut trees, therefore, need not be afraid to cut their timber into different grades of lumber, there is a ready sale for material of this kind.

Preliminary studies in the deterioration of blighted wood show very strictly that blighted chestnut should be cut as soon as possible in order to realize the full value of the wood. Examination of large numbers of telegraph poles delivered at railroad sidings show that chestnut for poles should be cut before the trees are dead, the bark should be removed and the poles raised clear of the ground for seasoning. To get the most value for blighted chestnut, therefore, it should not be allowed to die of the blight before cutting. In peeling the pole, it is important to remove all of the bark, in the summer time this is very easy.

It has been found that the blight cankers produce practically no bad effects on the wood. In no case does the disease extend more than a small fraction of an inch below the bark; however, if the diseased trees are not cut early and if the barking is not thoroughly done the old canker scars become sources of attack by different insects and it is by these insect attacks that the injury to blighted trees is chiefly done.

LAST FOUR FINGERS
Harry Sload, of Maytown, Caught in a Planer

Harry Sload, who is associated with his brother, Cleveland Sload, in the blacksmithing and machine business, at Maytown, was the victim of a painful accident shortly before 8 o'clock, Friday morning, caused him the loss of four fingers of his left hand.
Mr. Sload was operating a planer at the time and in some manner his left hand was caught in the machine and four fingers badly mangled.
Local medical attention was given him, and later he was brought to the Columbia hospital, where the fingers were amputated, and the injury properly dressed.
Mr. Sload suffered much pain from the accident and it will incapacitate him from work for some time.

MASTERTONVILLE
A. M. Shelly has quite a quantity of tobacco which averages two pounds to the lb.

Mr. Elias Hollinger has rented an apartment from Samuel Kulp and will move there in the spring.
If you wish to see a fine apparatus for watering cattle call at John Pyle's farm and you see a modern equipment.

Most all the pupils of the Mastertonville school have re-entered school and the roll contains forty-seven names.
One of our citizens says, "wait until I live at Elistonville I shall outwit the Mastertonville reporter and turn the tables on him."

Mr. Behney, as manager of the checker club, is awaiting a challenge from any rival who wishes to have his "chip" knocked off his shoulder.
Why should Mastertonville not have a bank? Think how far we are situated from a financial institution, and consider all the resources we have.

All measles have blown away and are now moving in a south-eastern direction. The health authorities are unable to stop them, since the harder they try the more numerous they become.
The rugger society has organized for the winter: Mrs. Charles Becker president; Mrs. Monroe Ruhl, secretary; Mrs. Eli Helsey, treasurer; Miss Maggie Shelly, traveling saleslady; Mrs. Bishop, chief admiral and judge of rugs.

The tobacco market has slumped somewhat, but all the farmers will sell their tobacco. Too many farmers became scared, ran after the dealer and now lower prices prevail because the dealer knows he can buy it cheaper. Farmers you dig your own ditch in which you fall.

The Keystone literary society held a meeting at the Chestnut Grove schoolhouse on Friday evening. The place of meeting was changed on account of the measles prevailing at Union Square. A good program was rendered. The question for debate, Resolved, "That the Lower Animals Have the Power of Reason." was an interesting one.

Pale, Weak People
Whether convalescing from disease, or anemic, run-down, and out-of-condition from some other cause, should use Rexall Wine of Cod Liver Extract. It possesses the well-known remedial qualities of fresh Norwegian cod livers, combined with other agents endorsed by successful physicians as valuable tonics and strength-builders, in a preparation that is both palatable and easily retained by the most sensitive stomach. It helps build strength, weight and appetite and does not have the unpleasant taste and nauseating effects of old-fashioned cod-liver-oil preparations.

Don't torture your stomach. Take Rexall Wine of Cod Liver Extract, which you will not only find easy and pleasant to take, but which we guarantee will, in every case, give satisfaction or your money back.
For weak, pale, puny children—for those weakened by old age—for anemic conditions of all ages and both sexes—for enabling the system to successfully combat the numerous diseases brought on by cold weather and exposure, Rexall Wine of Cod Liver Extract is specially designed, and is recommended with a positive guarantee of satisfaction or your money back. Price, $1. Sold in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store E. W. Garber, Mt. Joy Pa. 2t.

Teacher's Institute
The teachers of Mt. Joy township held their monthly institute on Saturday. The devotional exercises were conducted by Director H. Gardner, after which the institute sang "Battle Hymn of the Republic." Mr. Walter Herr discussed "Home Study," always having the child's interest before the institute. Miss Nora Reber gave a reading, entitled, "The Second Trial," which held the entire institute. Mr. John Eshleman discussed, "Supplementary Arithmetic," which led to further discussions by the institute. C. L. Martin, of Elizabethtown College gave a very instructive address on Madam Montessori's method of teaching. The institute sang "Old Dog Tray," followed by roll call, when the institute adjourned to meet March 1.

Recital at East Petersburg
A victrola recital for the benefit of the Petersburg Fire Company was given in their hall by Kirk Johnson & Co. on Thursday evening. They were assisted by Mrs. W. F. Meisley, soprano; Miss Ada Forrey, reader, and the Amphion Male Quartette. It was attended by a large and appreciative audience.

Comparative Digestibility of Food
Made with different Baking Powders

From a Series of Elaborate Chemical Tests:
An equal quantity of bread (biscuit) was made with each of three different kinds of baking powder—cream of tartar, phosphate, and alum—and submitted separately to the action of the digestive fluid, each for the same length of time.

The relative percentage of the food digested is shown as follows:

Bread made with Royal Cream of Tartar Powder:
100 Per Cent. Digested

Bread made with phosphate powder:
68 1/4 Per Cent. Digested

Bread made with alum powder:
67 3/4 Per Cent. Digested

These tests, which are absolutely reliable and unprejudiced, make plain a fact of great importance to everyone: Food raised with Royal, a cream of tartar Baking Powder, is shown to be entirely digestible, while the alum and phosphate powders are found to largely retard the digestion of the food made from them.

Undigested food is not only wasted food, but it is the source of very many bodily ailments.
