

RUN-DOWN PEOPLE

Made Strong by Vinol. Run-down conditions are caused by overwork, worry, too close confinement, a chronic cough or cold which it is difficult to cure.

An Excellent Sermon. On Sunday evening Rev. Rishel, pastor, preached a special sermon to a large turnout of members of Court Mount Joy No. 228, Foresters of America in the Bethel of the Church of God.

Measles at Elizabethtown. More than two hundred cases of measles are reported in Elizabethtown, and the schools of the lower grade are closed.

Thanks. We wish to thank all those who in any way assisted at the funeral of the late Jonas Riser.

Early Spring. Hats have arrived at Getz Bros. $1.00 to $3.00. They're beauties. Take a look at them.

SPORTING HILL NEWS

Messrs. A. K. and A. L. Bohm, of Manheim, were Sunday guests of A. D. Frankhouser and family.

Misses Emma and Fannie Dissinger spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives at Bismarck.

Mrs. Florence Keener, of near Mastersonville, was a guest of J. B. Fraleigh and family, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Dissinger visited in the homes of Harry Etnier and John Barto, at Manheim on Sunday.

Mrs. Kathryn Strauss and daughter Helen of Lancaster, spent Sunday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Cover.

The following visited H. S. Bradley and wife during the past week: Abram Bradley, John Maze and wife and Levi Nissley and wife, of Manheim, and Mrs. John Metzler and John S. Bradley.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sheaffer and son Emanuel, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Ellinger, at Colebrook, on Thursday.

Entire Party Perished

Now we have the news that Captain Scott and his entire party perished in an effort to find the South Pole.

Best Paper in Town

All the local news in the Bulletin. Best paper in town—Bulletin.

Sale Reflected

If you get your posters printed at this office we will insert notice like the following in the register FREE from now until day of sale.

Friday, Feb. 14.—At the Washington House, Mount Joy, two lots of ground with two frame houses and outbuildings on Fairview street by Mr. Elmer Heisey, Zeller, auct.

Saturday, Feb. 15.—At his warehouses in Mount Joy, a large lot of new and second-hand wagons, few good sleighs and fifty barrels of choice Baldwin apples by G. Moyer, Zeller, auct.

Tuesday, Feb. 18.—On the premises in West Donegal Township, near Rheoma, mules, horses, wagons, stone crusher and steam drilling outfit, farm implements, etc., by Jno. W. Eshleman and M. R. Hoffman, assignees for the benefit of creditors of Winfield L. Heisey and wife, Zeller, auct.

Saturday, Feb. 22.—On the premises at the southeastern limits of Mt. Joy borough, 5 horses, cow, heifers, large lot fat hogs, shoats, chickens and good farming implements by J. Lem Swarr, Aldinger, auct.

Thursday, Feb. 27.—On the premises, the Martin E. Garber farm, on the road leading from Mt. Joy to Columbia, 2 miles south of Mt. Joy, horses, mules, cows, bulls, hogs, chickens, a lot of good farming implements, baled hay by the ton, etc., by Perry C. Bates, Zeller, auct.

Wednesday, Feb. 26.—On the premises on the Colebrook road, near Erisman's church in Rapho township, pair of mules, 5 head horses, 25 head Durham and Holstein cows mostly fresh, 3 Holstein heifers, 8 bulls, 40 shoats, 40 to 150 lbs., 2 bred sows, 1 boar, 200 chickens & a large lot of farming implements by A. W. Eshleman, Zeller, auct.

Saturday, March 8.—On the premises on the John Shultz farm in East Donegal township, near Maytown, horses, colts, cows, bulls and a large lot of good farming implements by Samuel S. Rosenberger, Zeller, auct.

Monday, March 10.—On the premises at the southeastern limits of Mt. Joy borough, entire lot of household goods by J. Lem Swarr, Aldinger, auct.

Tuesday March 11.—On the Campton farm near Donegal Springs, 40 cows, 12 steers, 1 fat bull, 7 stock bulls, 3 Holstein heifers, 7 hogs, 25 tons baled hay and 90 tons baled straw by Samuel H. Treseiler, Pierce, auct.

Wednesday, March 12.—On the premises on Columbia Avenue, a large lot of household goods, wagon, malar tools, lumber etc. by David Boyce, Zeller, auct.

Thursday, March 13.—On the Hiestand farm, along the Marietta pike, near Wolgumuth's Mill, mules, cows, butcher cattle, hogs, farming implements, household goods, etc., by Mr. John Inners, Zeller, auct.

Friday, March 14.—On the Lancaster and Harrisburg turnpike, 2 miles east of Mt. Joy, mules, horses, cows, bulls, hogs, and a large lot of good farming implements by B. Frank Emsweller, Zeller, auct.

Saturday, March 15.—At his warehouse in Mount Joy, large lot of farm wagons & a big variety of farming implements by G. Moyer, Zeller, auct.

Thursday, March 20.—On the Lancaster and Harrisburg pike, 2 miles east of Mt. Joy, a large lot of good household goods by B. Frank Emsweller, Zeller, auct.

Montgomery's Easy Going Prison. The central prison at Gettysburg is probably the most easy going in the world.

Not an Imposter. A proud young father telegraphed the news of his new responsibility to his brother in this fashion: "A handsome boy has come to my house and claims to be your nephew."

Bound to Disagree. The idea of his marrying Miss Roxley! Why, he's a dyspeptic! Wicks—What has that got to do with it? She has plenty of money, and Hicks—That's it. She'll never agree with him; she's too rich.—Exchange.

Mount Joy to Have New Fashion Magazine

ADVANCE STYLES TO BE PUBLISHED MONTHLY BY LOCAL MERCHANTS

Ladies' Home Journal Editors Will Edit Private Publication of Bernhart & Co.

Bits of Spring Style News From "Good Dressing"

"Never were materials and colors so lovely, and never such a wonderful variety."

"For summer wear, linen will be particularly strong."

"Crape and cotton voile will be worn for shirt-waists and morning frocks."

"Tendency toward making the sleeve an important feature."

"Struggle between America and Paris on long versus short skirt."

"Combinations of several materials in one gown is the rage."

"Flouncings and bordered materials popular."

Mount Joy is to have a new fashion magazine.

Beginning February 5th, Bernhart & Co. will issue monthly and present to all their customers an attractive 32-page illustrated publication to be known as "Good Dressing."

Each month it will bring to the women of Mount Joy advance news of the smart styles about to appear in the dress centers of the world.

Skilled designers, illustrators and style authorities in Paris, New York and other cities will keep Bernhart & Co. continually in touch with the triumphs of all the most famous modistes and most fashionable women.

Brilliant articles and discussions of dress from every point of view will accompany these style announcements.

The publication will be edited by the editors of The Ladies' Home Journal, the well-known women's periodical.

This sweeping provision for creating in Mount Joy a style authority of the first rank has been made possible by an arrangement which Bernhart & Co. have concluded with 3,000 other leading dry goods merchants in all parts of the U. S. and Canada.

"Good Dressing" will be published simultaneously by all of these 3,000 stores. Each store, however, will have a portion of the magazine specially printed to carry its own announcements, in this way making the publication its private organ.

So far as is known, no other monthly publication of this type is in existence.

The first issue of the new magazine, now ready at Bernhart & Co.'s pattern counter, presents a notable array of new fashions.

A brilliant display of the new styles, some direct from Paris, some adapted to American women from the French, some purely American, Easter dresses and Easter promenade suits, blouses and also skirts, hand made trimmings, graduation and confirmation dresses, gowns for little boys and girls, all are shown by attractive illustrations. For each design and for hundreds of others not shown Bernhart & Co. have in stock Ladies' Home Journal Patterns from which the garments may readily be made up at home by any woman.

In addition to the styles shown, there are numerous special fashion articles. Wm. Faverham, the matinee idol, selects three dresses he would like to see girls wear at Easter time. Julia Marlowe, the actress, picks out bridal dresses for Easter weddings. Nancy Norton, a student in a New York boarding school, writes home to her chums that the smart New York girls are wearing. Eleanor Bramhall tells how last spring's hat may be remodelled, and Margaret Withnell pictures and describes three pretty ways of wearing the hair.

Two helpful features are a dress-and hat color chart, and a what-to-wear-with-what chart.

The cover design in two colors is by Harrison Fisher.

Bernhart & Co. announce that while the magazine is issued by them for their customers, they will be glad to present a copy to any woman who cares to call for it at their store.

Hereafter "Good Dressing" will be ready on the 5th day of each month.

A New Store. Mr. William Sholling, the west end baker, has rented the Hershey store room recently vacated by Daniel Hauenstein on East Main street. He will open a confectionery, selling mostly home made candy. Also bread, cakes, buns, etc.

Were Cutting Ice. J. N. Stauffer & Bro. had twenty men engaged cutting ice the early part of this week. It was from four to five inches thick.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Stoler and the latter's son of Atlantic City, are visiting friends in this vicinity.

Best paper in town—Bulletin. All the local news in the Bulletin.

Voice of the Tiger.

The tiger may be "shod with silence," but he has a voice that is terrifying. It is said the voice of the tiger, a wonderful thing in its way, is not only the most mournful, but the most terrifying, of jungle sounds and that it is a powerful aid to him in his hunting.

A Bird That Shaves. The bonnet, a South American bird, takes a dry shave regularly. The bonnet has long blue tail feathers. Each quill is adorned from base to tip with soft blue down. This arrangement the bird dislikes. Therefore with its sharp beak it tips the quills bare from the base out to about an inch from the tip, where it maintains a neat oval of soft blue whisker. Such action seems silly on the bonnet's part to certain philologists, though it seems no sillier than man's action in regularly scraping bare his cheeks and chin while he maintains on his upper lip an oval of soft hair not unlike the bonnet's tail oval.—Exchange.

She Had Kissed the Blarney Stone. "Oh, yes, mum," said Kathleen, applying for a new situation, "I lived in me last place 'till weeks, mum, an' though I say it t'it shouldn't I say it, excellent satisfaction."

"And why did you leave?" ventured the lady who was looking for a servant.

"Sure, I couldn't get along wid th' missus at all, she wor that ould an' cranky too."

"Cranky ye may be, mum, for sweet faces likes yours is sometimes deef in, but ye're not ould. I c'n see that at a glance!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Picking for the Parson. A Dover bridegroom gave his best man an envelope.

"Hand it to the parson after the ceremony," he said, "but don't do it ostentatiously."

The best man followed instructions but it seems that he performed his task too covertly, for the father of the bridegroom, after the pair had departed, believed that an omission had occurred and quietly pressed a banknote into the minister's hand.

But he also was too secretive about it, and before the party broke up the bride's brother felt called upon to draw the minister aside and thrust a ten dollar bill upon him.—Newark News.

Queer Sense of Humor. "Don't you admit a man who laughs at danger?"

"Only to a certain degree. He may have courage, but he unquestionably possesses a poor sense of humor."—Washington Star.

Will Build New Church. At a meeting of the officials of the United Brethren Church of this place, a committee was appointed with the express purpose of building a new church in view.

Odd Proposal of Marriage. That celebrated master of flower and figure subjects, William Hunt, was on one occasion commissioned by a gentleman to paint his portrait in the attitude of kneeling and holding in his hand an open scroll, upon which were written a declaration of love and an offer of marriage. The lady to whom this unusual proposal of marriage was sent replied with a check drawing of herself with a sheet of paper in her hand, on which was inscribed a laconic "Yes."

Quits So. A Washington clubman finds a certain fellow member irritatingly optimistic at times. With this chap every disagreeable thing has its compensation, a principle he never fails to give expression to whenever opportunity offers itself.

"How are you this evening?" asked the optimistic person as he encountered his friend in the breakfast room.

"I had a miserable night," said the other. "I never suffered so in my life."

The optimist reflected, "Huh! That's bad! But," he said, brightening up, "you must remember that a bad night is better than no night at all!"—New York Press.

Odd Proposal of Marriage. That celebrated master of flower and figure subjects, William Hunt, was on one occasion commissioned by a gentleman to paint his portrait in the attitude of kneeling and holding in his hand an open scroll, upon which were written a declaration of love and an offer of marriage. The lady to whom this unusual proposal of marriage was sent replied with a check drawing of herself with a sheet of paper in her hand, on which was inscribed a laconic "Yes."

The Finest English Odes.

Among the many fine odes in the English language Macaulay characterized Dryden's "Alexander's Feast" as the noblest, and Dr. Richard Garnett agreed with him in thinking it the finest ode we have. The full title is "Alexander's Feast; or, The Power of Music—An Ode For St. Cecilia's Day," Spenser's "Epithalamium," Milton's "Ode on the Nativity," Keats' odes "To a Nightingale" and "On a Grecian Urn" and Shelley's "To a Skylark" are notable instances of this class of poem, and to these must be added, though their form is irregular, Wordsworth's magnificent "Intimations of Immortality" and Tennyson's "Ode on the Death of the Duke of Wellington."

How He Learned English. Carl Schurz once told a friend something of his early struggles with the English language. He knew it about as American college boys know their German—that is to say, barely at all.

One day, "deciding such nonsense must end," he entered a bookstore and asked for the classic of the English language. A wise clerk gave him "The Vicar of Wakefield." He carefully translated it into German and put his work away for six weeks. At the end of that time he translated his translation back into English and then made a searching comparison between his version and that of Goldsmith's original. "After that," he said, "I knew English."

Costly Silence. A representative of the local authority of a German city once informed the conductor of the municipal orchestra that the extra pay demanded for the tuba players in the Wagner performances would not be granted.

"You must give the opera without a tuba," he said. Finally, however, on the conductor's earnest solicitation, the additional remuneration was conceded, but the first act of "Die Walkure" the municipal representative referred to hurriedly sought the conductor.

"My dear sir," he exclaimed, with a groan of despair, "we pay those tuba players 6 marks each, and they haven't played a note!"

Quite So. A Washington clubman finds a certain fellow member irritatingly optimistic at times. With this chap every disagreeable thing has its compensation, a principle he never fails to give expression to whenever opportunity offers itself.

"How are you this evening?" asked the optimistic person as he encountered his friend in the breakfast room.

"I had a miserable night," said the other. "I never suffered so in my life."

The optimist reflected, "Huh! That's bad! But," he said, brightening up, "you must remember that a bad night is better than no night at all!"—New York Press.

Odd Proposal of Marriage. That celebrated master of flower and figure subjects, William Hunt, was on one occasion commissioned by a gentleman to paint his portrait in the attitude of kneeling and holding in his hand an open scroll, upon which were written a declaration of love and an offer of marriage. The lady to whom this unusual proposal of marriage was sent replied with a check drawing of herself with a sheet of paper in her hand, on which was inscribed a laconic "Yes."

Quits So. A Washington clubman finds a certain fellow member irritatingly optimistic at times. With this chap every disagreeable thing has its compensation, a principle he never fails to give expression to whenever opportunity offers itself.

"How are you this evening?" asked the optimistic person as he encountered his friend in the breakfast room.

"I had a miserable night," said the other. "I never suffered so in my life."

The optimist reflected, "Huh! That's bad! But," he said, brightening up, "you must remember that a bad night is better than no night at all!"—New York Press.

Odd Proposal of Marriage. That celebrated master of flower and figure subjects, William Hunt, was on one occasion commissioned by a gentleman to paint his portrait in the attitude of kneeling and holding in his hand an open scroll, upon which were written a declaration of love and an offer of marriage. The lady to whom this unusual proposal of marriage was sent replied with a check drawing of herself with a sheet of paper in her hand, on which was inscribed a laconic "Yes."

ERISMAN'S CHURCH

John Geiband Minnie Ross were married on Saturday.

Martin Metzler spent Sunday with friends at Petersburg.

It is not what we eat, but what we save that makes us rich.

It is not what we eat, but what we digest that nourishes us.

It is not what we read, but what we remember that makes us learned.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Metzler spent Thursday afternoon with Mr. Metzler's mother near Litz.

Do you know that a person who talks about his own always wants the big end of the conversation?

The Rapho School Directors held a business meeting at the home of A. K. Brubaker on Friday afternoon.

Daniel Metzler and wife spent part of Thursday and Friday in Elizabethtown visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Witmer and Mr. and Mrs. Christ Longenecker visited the Lincoln school on Thursday P. M.

It is well to remember that the man who is always laying down the law for others is apt to lay it aside for himself.

A. W. Eshleman spent the latter part of last week in Va., buying cows, this week he will return to Va., to load and ship them. The cows will be sold at his public sale.

Our prosperous neighbor Monroe Metzler purchased from S. Snavely a manure spreader. Mr. Metzler is not considered prosperous because he buys up to date machinery, but because he makes farming profitable.

Long and Taylor the tobaccoists paid our neighbor accomplishment that is worth repeating, they announced that John S. Rohrer delivered the best quality and the best put up tobacco received at their Landisville packing house this season.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert B. Erb Jr., entertained at dinner on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Erb and daughter Anna; Mr. and Mrs. Elias Metzler; Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Snyder and daughters Esther and Cathryn all from Landisville.

Coffee and Tea. Are you satisfied with your coffee? If not stop in at Garber's Drug Store and I will show you one of the finest Coffees on the market that sells for 35 cents a pound. It also has fine varieties of the finest Teas on the market. Stop in and examine same. E. W. Garber's Drug Store, Mount Joy Pa., 2t.

Our Home Markets. Butter, per lb.30 Eggs, per doz.23 Lard, per lb.11 Potatoes, per bu.50 Wheat, per bu.$1.00 Corn, per bu.56 Oats, per bu.40

YOU WILL NEED MONEY FOR CHRISTMAS. YOU WILL BE SURE TO HAVE IT. If You Join the First National Bank's Christmas Saving Club. Which Started DECEMBER 26, 1912 and Will be Open Until February 1st, 1913. It Cost Nothing to Join. You Can't Lose a Penny. You Have Everything to Gain.

Prevent White Diarrhea from getting into your flock and killing most of your chicks. Pratts' White Diarrhea Remedy. 25c. Pratts' Disinfectant. 50c.

WE SELL CHEAPER BECAUSE WE GIVE S. & H. GREEN TRADING STAMPS. Leinbach & Co. 47-49 North Queen St. LANCASTER, PENNA. SHOP BY MAIL. Leinbach & Co. 47-49 N. Queen Street., Lancaster, Pa. Will deliver absolutely free of charge by Parcel Post all articles of merchandise bought at this store whether ordered by telephone or by mail; provided the weight is less than eleven pounds and the character of the goods conform to the Parcel Post regulations. Send For Samples. New Spring silks, dress goods and white goods are here in profusion. The patterns for spring and summer wear have never been prettier, especially the silks with their new Bulgarian color combinations and it is so easy for you to see these beautiful spring fabrics—just sit down and write us a letter—tell us what you want—what colors you prefer and we will send you samples. Expert Shoppers For Mail Order Customers. We can help you many a time if you will just sit down and write to us for the articles that you want for we have expert women shoppers who give mail orders their special attention. A twocent stamp will bring your order to us and you can always feel confident that it will get prompt satisfying attention.

YOU WILL NEED MONEY FOR CHRISTMAS. YOU WILL BE SURE TO HAVE IT. If You Join the First National Bank's Christmas Saving Club. Which Started DECEMBER 26, 1912 and Will be Open Until February 1st, 1913. It Cost Nothing to Join. You Can't Lose a Penny. You Have Everything to Gain.