Mr. and Mrs. Smith were visitors on Sunday in the home of Mr. Jno. Drace and wife.

Mr. Andrew Garber will offer on March 13 all his live stock, household and kitchen furniture.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Leonard of Chestnut Hill, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Eli Honberger.

The sick of our village are Mr. Henry Hiestand, Mr. John Herr and Mrs. George Way. We wish for them all a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Doerster, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Strickler and son Paul were entertained at the home of David Strickler on Sunday.

The Menonite Sewing Circle of which Mrs. Martha Strickler is the president met at the home of Miss Annie Breneman on Tuesday afternoon. This month's work is for the orphanage at Millersville.

The half past twelve car on Monday afternoon stopped short of the Square, Lancaster, owing to a dray horse lying on the track. The fall did little damage and after some delay the car pulled into the square.

In the M. E. Church on Sunday morning at 11:15 the clock was stopped (in commemoration of the death of John Wesley, founder of the M. E. Church), for a period of ten minutes. Many other M. E. churches spent ten minutes in quiet meditation, but we had a short talk on Wesley by Mrs. Devine, the pastor's wife, and in singing two of his good old hymns.

Miss Martha Eby visited Miss Miriam Kendig at the School of Design, Philadelphia, and the Frank Deichler family at Highland Park, a suburb of the city. Saturday and Sunday she and Miss Miriam visited the Delaware State College, Newark, Delaware, where Mr. James Dig, a freshman, showed them the extending the liberty of the welcome visitors.

Frank Strickler had an exciting week in front of his warehouse Saturday. The brace on the shafts away and a lively horse man and horse reared. The affair passed off without serious damage. On the same day while Dr. Jerome Kendig was driving a very tired horse the animal caught on some rut or stone and promptly turned a complete somersault, the head being toward the buggy. The result was a lot of torn harness and a much surprised M. D.

We should have better trolley service between the hours of 3 and 7 o'clock on the Lancaster and Elizabethtown road. It seems to be testing the patience of the traveling public to the extreme limit when passengers are frequently compelled to stand during long hours between those points. The public is compelled by law to be orderly on all public conveyances and we think it should not be necessary that the stronger arm of the law be invoked to insure the public right and justice.

ERISMAN'S CHURCH
Mr. Elias Metzler moved into their new dwelling this Tuesday. A rash statement isn't much of a bible student or has failed to read Mat. 7-1.

Monroe Fissel spent Saturday at Manheim helping at Aaron Zahm's horse sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Eby attended the funeral of Mr. Henry Frank at Hess' Church on Saturday P. M.

Mr. Henry Erb and family from Landisville and Isaac Erb from Litzitz spent sometime at Pappy Erb's this week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Keener and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Keener spent Sunday with Henry Ebersole's near Lancaster Junction.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Metzler and family attended Kauffman's church and spent Sunday at Manheim with Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Reist.

We have a man in this neighborhood who says any man who wears a cap is no Christian. We draw this conclusion any one who makes such.

Mr. Noah Nissley from the state of Nebraska who lived in this immediate vicinity 30 years ago is spending a few weeks here with his sister, Mrs. Tobias Musser.

Mr. A. B. Erb purchased a saddle horse last week at Elias Metzler's sale. It is the horse of the neighborhood, that is if we are to judge by the price paid, which is $285.

A. W. Eshleman had one of the largest public sales in the county last Wednesday when he sold his farm stock and implements. His stock and implements were in first class order and the amount of the sale was $4100.

The following are and have been on the sick list the past week no serious sickness however; Mrs. Kerwin Flinchbaugh, Anna Flinchbaugh, Mrs. Christ Bucher, Lillie Bucher, Benj. Stauffer, Anna Rohrer, Monroe Fissel, Mrs. Clayton Brubaker and Jacob Spangler. Elmer Ginder while leading a colt at Mr. Metzler's sale last Thursday was thrown and cut his upper lip which had to be stitched. Elmer might have been quite seriously hurt. His friends are glad to know that his injuries are of no serious nature.

Brubaker, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Metzler, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Musser, Noah Nissley and Misses Cora Adams, Edna Balmer, Ada Nissley, Edna Rohrer, and Esther Balmer.

Boxing at Lancaster
Four bouts made for the Lancaster A. C. show on Thursday, March 13th, are: Johnny Greiner vs. Danny Mooney, of Greer's Ferry, a pupil of Yi Yi Erne; Bobby Hayes vs. Young Russell; Jack Reagan, of the United States battleship Connecticut, vs. Johnny Martin, of Kensington; Danny Foster vs. Scotty Clark, the two colored boys, who raised more excitement than a battle royal at the last show. Another local bout will be made.

He's Some Sport, Eh!
A young man from here went to Elizabethtown on Saturday where he met two male friends, who he invited into a restaurant to join him in a luncheon. He had an excuse to withdraw from the party immediately after he had partaken of his refreshments and after a long wait his guests found they were in for it and were obliged to foot the bill.

Yellow Perch for Susquehanna

For Sale
A good clean stock of up-to-date general merchandise, including shoes—no clothing. Two year old stock, no accumulations. Best location in town. Good reason for selling. H. E. Ebersole, Mt. Joy, Pa.

The man who talked about turning a few weak timid mice loose on the suffragette contingent of the Inaugural parade ought to be really ashamed of himself to scare the poor mice that way.

The poor little ground hog grows greater every day.

All the postmasters are in favor of a six-year Presidential term.
