EDITORIALS

Fortunate is the man who falls in love at first sight—if he never gets another look.

Huerta losing his eyesight! Let us hope he can still see the hand writing on the wall.

The Bull Moose party has nothing to do but stand off and throw rocks into the Machinery.

As a big game hunter Col. Roosevelt finds it impossible to keep his eyes off that Tammany tiger skin.

"Man wants but little here below" and he finds it in his bank account when he gets back to the city.

President Wilson's idea of resting seems to be to take a short trip with a suitcase full of official business.

Thaw's Canadian lawyers are just like the fellow who had almost landed a Jimdandy salmon when the rascal got away.

It will be noticed that Messrs. La Follette and Poindexter paired with Messrs. Thornton and Ramsdell on that Tariff Bill.

Sulzer, Murphy, Thaw and Jerome being the most prominent citizens of the blessing of obscurity.

expect to find the Amalgamated Order of Prodigal Sons.

It is lucky that currency is to be taken up by the Senate in cool weather. Currency talk in summer disrupts families and sends conservative people to the foolish house.

Railroad companies say it will cost $633,000,000 to replace wooden cars at once; which is no reason however, why they shouldn't begin at both ends and work towards the middle.

The death of Mayor Gaynor leaves a straight issue of Tammany and anti-Tammany. Voters will have to choose between Murphy's candidate and John P. Mitchell, the clean government candidate.

RHEEMS

Mrs. A. S. Bard spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Elias E. Risser and family near Lawn.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shank spent Sunday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Greider near Landisville.

Mr. and Mrs. Christian Sheaffer of Elizabethtown were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Weaver last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Heisey of Elizabethtown spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Jacob W. Heisey.

Prof. Andrew Martin, a prominent school teacher of Landisville, transacted business at the Rheems greenhouse last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Shank of Running Pump and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Shank of Manheim were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Shank.

The J. G. Enterline coach works presents a chilly appearance. They are working on a dozen handsome sleighs. Some of them are engaged.

Jacob N. Heisey met with a painful accident last week by having a nail penetrate the palm of his hand. It required assistance to extricate it.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Felker near Sporting Hill transacted business in this place last week. Mr. Felker is a prominent builder of up-to-date vehicles of all descriptions.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bless of Donegal, Mr. Abe Fauby and daughters of Mt. Joy and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Saviers of this place were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Bard.

Cyrus Evans, the Rheems thresher, with his family autoed to Philadelphia last Friday where they spent a few days with his brother Harry. The latter is engaged in a general merchandise store.

George Coble, an extensive leaf tobacco merchant, shipped a carload of cases to Philadelphia. There are rumors of a new tobacco company, where the name of the company is the 1913

Monday to the School of Design, in Philadelphia where she will resume her study of art.

Miss Ada Young, a student at Millersville Normal, was an over Sunday visitor with her sister Mary at the home of R. D. Raffensberger.

The Church of the Brethren had a children's rally last Sunday afternoon and night. The exercises were entertaining and instructive and drew a large number of friends and neighbors together.

Miss Martha Eby entertained a few friends at luncheon on Friday in honor of Miss Miriam Kendig, prior to her leaving for the School of Design at Philadelphia.

Our old and valued friend, Mr. John Swarr, was buried from his new home at Bamford on Saturday and many neighbors assembled at the grave to take a last look at the remains of a kindly honest friend.

Kind Providence has smiled kindly upon our poor disgruntled tobacco farmers in this, that although the crop was poor and trifling, the weather was magnificent in the long delay of frost and folks seemed to take their own good time for harvesting their crop.

ACT QUICKLY

Delay Has Been Dangerous in Mount Joy.

Do the right thing at the right time. Act quickly in time of danger.

In time of kidney danger Doan's Kidney Pills are most effective.

Plenty of evidence of their worth. Mrs. F. Conrad, David St., Mt. Joy, Pa., says: "I suffered intensely from kidney trouble and it would be hard to describe the misery I endured. There was a constant, dull pain across my back that made my housework a burden and I was annoyed by chills and dizzy spells. The least work tired me and I always felt languid. When I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I decided to give them a trial and procured a box at Garber's Drug Store. The first few doses helped me and I grew better rapidly as I continued their use. I am today in better health than I have been for a long time, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills." (Statement given Oct. 26, 1907.)

Mrs. Conrad was interviewed again and she said: "I am glad of an opportunity to re-endorse Doan's Kidney Pills. My health has been of the best since I took this remedy two years ago."
