ANOTHER DECISION ON INCOME TAX

Interest Derived from Federal or State Bonds is Not Subject to Taxation as Income

Commissioner of Internal Revenue Osborn to-day notified internal revenue collectors throughout the country that regulations recently issued governing income tax collection had been interpreted by collectors who refused in some instances to pay coupons for interest on bonds of the United States or its possessions, bonds of any State or county, or any political sub-division thereof, unless accompanied by certificates of ownership, without deducting the normal tax of one per cent.

The income derived from the interest upon such obligation, the commissioner said in a letter to the collectors, is not subject to the income tax, and a certificate of ownership will not be required.

In another letter to collectors Mr. Osborn explained that banks receiving deposits are not required to withhold at the source the one per cent normal tax on the interest paid on open accounts or certificates of deposit. All such interest, whether paid or accrued and not paid, must be included in the return by persons entitled to receive it.

A MESSAGE TO WOMEN

Who Are “Just Ready to Drop.” When you are “just ready to drop,” when you feel so weak that you can hardly drag yourself about—and because you have not slept well, you get up as tired-out next morning as when you went to bed, you need help. Miss Lea Dumas writes from Malone, N. Y., saying: “I was in a badly run-down condition for several weeks but two bottles of Vinol put me on my feet again and made me strong and well. Vinol has done me more good than all the other medicines I ever took.”

If the careworn, run-down women, the pale, sickly children and feeble old folks around here would follow Miss Dumas' example, they, too, would soon be able to say that Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron remedy, had built them up and made them strong.

It is a wonderful, strength creator and body-builder, and we sell it under a guarantee of satisfaction. You get your money back if Vinol does not help you.

P. S. For any skin trouble try our Saxo Salve. We guarantee it.

Elizabethtown College Notes The anniversary of the founding of Elizabethtown College will be celebrated with appropriate exercises on Thursday evening, November 13. The anniversary committee have arranged the following programme: President's address; oration, Elmer Ruhl; recitation, Miss Rebekah Sheaffer; anniversary address, by Prof. J. N. K. Hickman, Superintendent of city schools, Lancaster.

The second number on the college lecture course was a piano lecture recital given by Edward Bazler Perry, November 6. The next number be a lecture by Dr. Byron C. Platt on “When We Dead Awake,” to be given in the College chapel on the evening of January 24, at the close of the Bible term.

The Bible term will open Wednesday, January 14, and continue for ten days.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Miller, who is at the head of the piano work in the college, will give a piano recital November 22. All lovers of music should hear this recital.

A number of our students and teachers will attend the Ministerial meeting to be held in the Church of the Brethren at Middle Creek Meeting House near Akron, on November 12 and 13.

Donations are always gratefully received at the college. Following is a list of donations received recently: A number of books from the estate of I. N. S. Will; a sum of money for improvements on the campus; from Misses Kathryn and Sara Moyer, graduates of the school; a large, finely built laboratory cabinet made by W. E. Glasmire, also a graduate of the college.

A temperance league, consisting of students and teachers, has recently been organized and will render its first public programme on the evening of December 25.

New Trolley Line to Pequea

Engineers of the Conestoga Traction Company are at present engaged in making a survey of a proposed new trolley route from Lancaster city to Pequea and McCall's Ferry. The survey has been in progress during the past two months. The new line would probably start at Willow street, the present tracks of the Strasburg line being used to that point. From that place they will take in New Danville, Marticville, Rawlinsville, Mount Nebo, Pequea and McCall's Ferry.

Much difficulty is being found in laying out the new route. The engineers are seeking to reach as many of the small towns as possible, and at the same time to avoid the hills which abound in that section and would cause heavy construction work.

Pitched Battle With Gypsies.

Some gypsies infesting the forests in the neighborhood of Fulda, Prussia, who have been hunted for weeks past, by the inhabitants and the military, have continued their nocturnal incursions into villages and lonely farms, where they lay their hands on anything they can take. A few days ago the population of Hunfeld, led by Baron Scher, a local landowner, went in hot pursuit of the thieves, and tracing them to the border of a forest, surprised them whilst feasting on the spoil of the farm yards. A pitched battle ensued between the two parties. The gypsy was wounded by a shot from Baron Schenck's revolver, but some of the band took him on their shoulders and ran into the forest, while the rest covered their flight with a steady fire. Then, turning round in their turn and were lost in the forest. The whole countryside is now searching for them.

German Musicians Poorly Paid.

The Germans like music, but they do not want to pay for it. What they gladly pay for is food and drink, with free music on the side. When a high-class musician plays at a variety show or in a night cafe he is looked down on; yet these are the only places where an orchestral player can earn a decent living. Some startling figures have been printed in Der Turrier which shows that it is practically impossible for a German orchestral musician to marry and bring up a family. For a family of four the minimum expenses, apart from food, are $250 a year. The income of an orchestral player is $330 a year; which leaves less than 25 cents a day for food. Americans pay musicians ten times as much as the Germans do; but we, to be sure, are mere barbarians in the eyes of the Germans. —Boston Transcript.

Fellow Feeling.

An advertising man of Cleveland was going home one night in a street car. It was late and the man who sat next to him began to talk.

“What business are you in?” he asked.

“The advertising business.”

“Is that so? I used to be in the advertising business myself. Quit it, though, and went into the rag and old bottle business, got a horse and clean up my sixty every month.”

There seemed to be nothing for the advertising man to say, so he said it.

“Yes,” continued the talkative man, “I was in the advertising business—was a sandwich man for a clothing store for six months! Say,” and he leaned over, confidentially, “ain't it hard work when the wind blows?” —Saturday Evening Post.

HOLTWOOD TO HAVE 2-DAY CELEBRATION

Athletic Club Has New Home and Has Invited Everybody to See It

Saturday and Sunday the Holtwood Athletic Association held a celebration in honor of the completion of new quarters of the association and it is expected that hundreds of people from Lancaster, York and Dauphin counties journeyed to the town which is growing up about the big hydro-electric plant at that point.

Saturday the morning was devoted to sight seeing and inspection of the electric plant. During the afternoon there were a variety of sports; a demonstration of electricity on the farm and in the home, of deep sea diving and the use of the pulmotor and in the evening a dance.

Saturday there were boat rides, the formal dedication and church services. The club house is a two and one-half story frame building, 81 feet long, 30 feet wide, with a gallery.
