THANKSGIVING DAY

Great National Holiday Will be Appropriately Observed Tomorrow.

'Long At out Thanksgivin' Time

Ain't it splendid to be living,' 'long about this time o'year, Just around about Thanksgivin', with the mornings crisp and clear; With the children's cheeks a-glowing' with the future lookin' bright, And the shops and mills a-goin' like red blazes, day and night!

Ain't it bracing', ain't it cheerin,' when the colts kick up their heels To approach the corn crib, hearin' turkeys gobblin' for their meals? Don't it make a fellow kinda satisfied with life and glad, When it's got so hard to find a thing that's goin' to the bad?

Ain't it fine to feel the nippir' of the brisk breeze at your nose. When the old dead leaves go zippin' down the lanes in scraggly rows, When you've hay to feed the cattle, when you love your fellow men, And you've money you can rattle in your trousers, now and then!

Ain't it fine to wake from dreamin' of the home your boyhood knew And to find the glad sun beamin' Just the way it used to do, Long ago, about Thanksgivin' when you'd energy to spare, When your pa and ma were livin' and the days were always fair. That Thanksgivin Turkey Bring on the turkey, mother, an the fixin's one an' all. Pile 'em high upon the table for the big an' fur the small.

It is time to set the dinner, it is time to set us down. An' my appertite, I reckon, is the biggest thing in town. Bring on the sass an' dressin.' Don't leave anything behind. Cuz today we want to sample, mother, each an' every kind. So don't furgit the puddin', an' please don't furgit the pie. Today's Thanksgivin', mother, an'

Ain't thet turkey jest a daisy? Ain't he juicy, plump an' brown? Don't he make you hungry, mother? Ain't he fit fur any crown? See! His glossy skin is bustin', an'

the stuffin's runnin' out. Oh, Itell you, mother, children, this is heaven, jest about! Draw your chairs around the table; loosen buttons where you kin; You don't want your highest collars interferin' with your chin. Now I'm goin' to carve the turkey.

Pass your plates, you youngsters Today's Thanksgivin', mother. Ain't
