Samuel S. Gibbs will kick off the dust of Milton Grove soil in April and move his family and household goods to a place at present unknown.

Dispatches disclose that Supervisor Aaron R. Gibbs will receive a large supply of fresh oysters from Baltimore to accommodate the public in his locality.

Evangelistic services which were in progress in the Mt. Pleasant church for the past few weeks was brought to a close Sunday evening with two conversions.

The news comes from Washington that the Administration is going to have a firmer Mexican policy. Possibly it contemplates to send orders to Senor Huerta to quit drinking.

There is a visible improvement in the tobacco trade. Several dealers visited this section the past week and skimmed along the line of tobacco culturists, paying 9 and 3 cents for fair.

Cyrus H. Heisey who had purchased the Jno. Witmer's farm near Mastersonville at private sale, renounced the contract will continue his residence at his present domiciliary, adjoining town.

The houses that utilize the four corners at the square were erected the following years; C. S. Shumaker's abode in 1847; E. F. Grosh's Store building in 1848; A. Holwager's hotel in 1856 and S. L. Gingrich's residence in 1862.

The questions that are now exercising the authorities of both the U. S. and Great Britain is where did Key write the Star Spangled Banner and where was the location of the ship on which he was inspired to write the national anthem?

Horse back riding is again coming in vogue. In equestrianism men have an easy, natural and safe position. If women were to adopt it instead of their present tiresome and perilous mode of riding, the gain in health, comfort and security would be very great.

The bustle is coming back, good and strong, and it is said will even excel in size the unsightly hump universally worn during the 70's. We fear this is a plot of the anti-suffragists to keep women from entering election booths.

Ice harvest is in full blast and those who know say that the harvest has not been so large in years. There were many skaters who registered their protests to the harvest, but this has not kept the proprietors of the mill dams and ice ponds from reaping their profits.

A bulletin has recently come to us from the Agricultural Dept. at Washington which goes back to the fine old days of soft soap. It advises the housewife to save the grease to make soap, and save the wood ashes to make lye, and boiling grease in the lye is the way to make soft soap. We suppose there are some people having who remember the soft soap period in our country's history and possibly may feel a sense of delight in that Jeffersonian simplicity which would carry us back to those halcyon times. "Good morning," will say Secretary Houston, "have you used soft soap?" Here is a hot one from Billy Sunday, the world's greatest evangelist. Speaking of gossipers in a recent sermon in Pittsburg, Billy said: "You hear something derogatory about your neighbor. You don't stop to find out whether or not it is the truth, but you peddle it up and down the neighborhood and by the time it has reached the end of the block it is a slander. "Thou shalt not bear false witness." You run into your neighbor's in the early morning. You have a fascinator on, your hair is in curl papers and your hands are covered with dough: "Good morning, Mrs. J. have you heard the latest about Mrs. S. I feel so sorry for the family." You are a miserable old liar, for if you felt sorry you would keep your old mouth shut. You miserable old gimlet-eyed, pigeon-toed thing! I tell you, the devil is afraid of some of you women—he wouldn't get within twenty feet of you. Yes, and some of you old he gossipers that can loaf in a lively stable or a booze joint, people's reputation to a shred and don't stop to find out whether it is or not. "Thou shalt not bear false witness." "You lying

SALUNGA

Program Rendered by the Salunga School Proves Big Success

Mr. W. B. Rodgers spent Sunday at Downingtown.

Howard Feifer and family spent Sunday with Mrs. Feifer's father at Mount Joy.

The Misses Lillian and Edith Cooper attended a supper given by the Lancaster Elks.

The Misses Annie and Tillie Erisman spent a few days with friends at Lancaster last week.

The Monitor Steam Heating plant is just now being operated slowly for want of orders.

The play given by the Salunga School was witnessed by a large crowd and the performance was pronounced a glowing success.

Several of our rugged young men have made application for instruction in the Stevens Industrial School but with what result we have as yet not learned.

The revival services at the Lancaster Broad St. Methodist church are still continued with unabated zeal and quite a number have been added to the church.

Revival services are still continued in the Church of God, Landisville, while the Menonite denomination of the same town commenced a series of meetings on Sunday evening.

Rev. Weaver has charge of the services in the latter church.

Burning tobacco with a match or candle, called cadding the goods, is one of the fakes of the smart fellows who deal in the weed. You may be sure the fellow who pulls a candle from his pocket is also going to draw one of the soggier, dirtiest leaves for a trial and as you might expect, no burn is invariably the verdict.

We think a young man does wisely who tries to learn a good trade and the condition that now prevails in Germany and other European countries, of every one learning a trade should be considered the proper thing for young Americans. There seems to prevail among our young folks an idea that each girl or boy was placed upon the earth to have a good time and the way to have it is to be up and doing, running to the Movies, going to a couple dances and the theatre several times weekly. The young folks may have fun but do your parents enjoy it even a little bit?

HERE AT HOME

Mt. Joy Citizens Gladly Testify and Confidently Recommend Doan's Kidney Pills

It is testimony like the following that has placed Doan's Kidney Pills so far above competitors. When people right here at home raise their voice in praise there is no room left for doubt. Read the public statement of a Mt. Joy citizen:

Mrs. H. E. Greenwalt, Donegal St. Mt. Joy, Pa., says: "For some time I was in poor health and I finally came to the conclusion that my kidneys were disordered. My back ached constantly and I was subject to chills and dizzy spells. The least work tired me and I had but little ambition. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills, I decided to give them a trial and procured a box at Garber's Drug Store. They acted just as represented. I got prompt relief and improved in every way. I gladly confirm the statement I gave some years ago, recommending Doan's Kidney Pills. My health has been good since."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

MARIETTA

Barr Spangler, Oldest Man in the Town, Still in Business

Earl Carver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Carver, residing in Marietta, had a narrow escape from being drowned Saturday night, while skating on the Susquehanna River, and was only saved by the persistent efforts of his companion, William Sultzbach, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Sultzbach.

Barr Spangler, the oldest man in Marietta and the oldest business man in Lancaster County, finished the 91st year of his life last week. As vice president of the First National Bank and head of the firm of B. & C. S. Spangler he is on duty every day. About 30 years ago he was the Prohibition candidate for state treasurer and his interest in the anti-rum cause is as intense as ever.

SELLING CATTLE EARLY

Importations from Argentine and Cheaper Corn is Cause

Thinking that cheaper corn and the importation of beef from South America under freedom from tariff duties will bring down prices, local farmers have begun to turn their fall-fed cattle to market at prices which are unusually high. This is the earliest that the local feeders have ever begun to unload.

The most of the sales have been down around Blue Ball. Part of the cattle sold have come to Lancaster butchers, but the most of them have been sold to shippers and are being forwarded to New York, where some of them are loaded for Europe.
