be called the Chickies Valley. The political parties in this year—Washington, Republican, Socialist, Bull Moose, Keystone, Roosevelt, Progressive and Prohibition—which means that nine regular parties will have columns on the big ballot, to say nothing of the candidates named by nomination papers. The Spring election will be held on Tuesday, May 19.

We have just seen the announcement of the death of Penrose Frank at Dayton, Ohio. Mr. Frank was a native of Elizabethtown and in bygone years was one of the writer's cronies. He resided for a time with his mother on Hummelstown street and more subsequently with his aunt in the building now occupied by the Chronicle. He was at one time the janitor of the Mount Joy Orphan School during Prof. Kennedy's incumbency as Principal.

One night a few weeks ago, during zero weather, John Hummel and his alleged spouse—professional nomads had their second thrilling experience on Furnace Hill near Mount Hope, an experience well calculated to try their souls. They harbored for the night in a miserable chicken house through which the frigid blast whistled in cruel mockery, their bed was the bare cold ground without blanket or even straw. When discovered the next morning they were so congealed that it required almost the whole day to liquify their bodies to normal conditions.

The egg question is a puzzling one. One person getting lots of hen fruit and his next neighbor with a good flock gets practically none.

Everybody's church day proved quite a success and many persons were seen in the different congregations who are seldom seen in any other Sabbath.

The Methodist Church of Mt. Joy had a number of the Presbyterian brethren in the congregation. The church choir gave an excellent selection and a duet by Misses Brown and Stoll was well rendered. A solo by Dr. Garber, sung in his most pleasing style were among some of the tributes offered the assembled worshippers. According to Bible rule a man is allowed to pull his bull from a pit on the Sabbath day but we would say that the pulling process should not be repeated too frequently, lest the conscience be strained.
