Last week the stork delivered a baby boy to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Christian Brubaker. It is named J. Nissly Brubaker.

On Sunday morning A. R. Nissly when on the way to Erismans church upset in the sleigh broke the shafts and tore the harness.

Hiram Witmer attended the Witmer Mumma horse sale at Mastersonville, on Friday and purchased a steed. He will tell you about him.

The following persons visited the Lincoln School the past two weeks: Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Brubaker, Messrs. Clayton Yoke, Martin Metzler, Elam Longenecker, Rev. John Brubaker, Hiram Witmer, Jacob Snyder, Albert H. Erb, Ammon Bucher, J. Clayton Brubaker and John Eberle and Misses Blanche MacClay, Anna and Mary Longenecker, Nora Bucher and Mrs. Clayton Herr.

The services at Erismans Church were well attended on Sunday morning considering the drifted roads. Rev. John Snavely delivered the sermon. After the services there was a short business meeting. The members appointed Benjamin Stauffer a trustee for this place. Mr. Stauffer is one of our active young church and Sunday School workers and is deserving of the appointment of trust they gave him.

WHY MOUNT JOY MERCHANTS SHOULD ADVERTISE IN THE BULLETIN

What Have You to be Thankful For?

The business man who advertises in this Bulletin is to be thankful for, not least among which is what he has given the intelligence to take advantage of the marvelous business advertising.

He may be thankful that he is, through advertising, obtaining new customers, increasing his volume of business among old customers and making the "Good will" of his business more valuable than building stock and fixtures, combined.

He may also be thankful that the advertising columns of the Bulletin are open to him.

ELIZABETHTOWN

The Poultry Association Will Hold Another Show Next January

Elder J. Kurtz Miller, of Brooklyn, was the guest of friends for several days.

Miss Rebekah Sheaffer, of Bareville, visited friends at the College on Saturday.

Dr. H. K. Blough attended the annual banquet of the Lancaster City and County Medical Society at the Hamilton Club.

Mr. J. Fletcher Eshleman has gone to Wilkes-Barre, where he has secured a position with the Adder Machine Company.

Mr. George C. Neff, who was confined to his home in Harrisburg, for several weeks, has again resumed his scholastic duties at the College.

Messrs. George Sahn, John Martin and Mr. Buckwalter, School Directors of Manheim township, and Mr. Martin, visited the borough schools on Lincoln's Birthday.

The Sons of Veterans and the G. A. R. of this place attended divine services in the United Zion church on Sunday in commemoration of Lincoln's Birthday.

D. H. Martin, trustee in bankruptcy on Saturday sold the entire stock, fixtures and good will of the George A. Fisher hardware store in this borough to Mr. Philip Singer.

The High School Alumni Association at its regular meeting last week elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Vernon Gross; Vice President, Joseph Heisey, Secretary, Cathryn Kuhn; Treasurer, G. W. Dulebohn.

The concert given by the Glee and Mandolin clubs of Franklin and Marshall College on Tuesday evening was enjoyed by a large audience. The Market Hall was filled to its utmost. They were here under the auspices of the young ladies' Sunday-school class of the Reformed Church.

Another number of the college lecture course was held Friday evening in Market Hall, when Mrs. Mary Harris Armor, "the Georgia Whirlwind," as she is sometimes called, spoke on the "Strangest Thing in the World." She is one of the most powerful temperance workers in the United States, and one of the most fluent women orators in America. Mrs. Armor claims that the legalized liquor traffic is the strangest thing in the world because it is condemned at first, the bar of science; second, the bar of public opinion; third, the bar of common sense; fourth, the bar of God.

Outgrowing His Quarters

Among the local business places that have outgrown their quarters is the saddler shop of Mr. F. B. Groff on North Market street. A few years ago this business was established in a small building owned by Mr. Geo. H. DeLong and today the new and spacious building erected expressly for the purpose, is entirely too small. As soon as the Spring rush is over Mr. Groff will move his present repair department in the rear, to the second floor and make a show room of the entire first floor. This will just double his space for display. Large show windows will adorn the front and the second floor will be converted into a first-class repair department. Mr. Groff and his able assistant Mr. Harvey Sheaffer, are continually busy as beavers, which speaks well for their work.
