

BULLETIN

MOUNT JOY, PA.

Editor & Prop.

Subscription rates: Single copy 5 Cents, 10 Cents per month, $1.00 per year.

Post office at Mount Joy, Pa. Second-class matter. Advertisements must be paid for in advance.

MILTON GROVE

The News in General From That Thriving Village

Flittings in profusion are passing through town every week day.

The Risser's church Sunday School will be reorganized in the near future.

Reg Assessor C. K. Wittle and son Christian were mid-week visitors in Lancaster.

Mrs. Susan Swade has returned to her home in town from a week's visit in Lancaster.

Snow banks are still visible in fields where last year at this season they were ploughed.

Mrs. Samuel L. Heisey and Miss Stella Good spent Saturday in the county metropolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel T. Fry, of Anchor, spent Sunday with Harvey D. Wittle and family.

In town every person is the owner of his own home except three families who live in rent.

Harvey Good, of Bachmansville, spent Sunday with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Christian Good.

Allen R. Gibble butchered his last hog Thursday, which weighed nearly a quarter of a ton.

The public highways are assuming better traveling conditions and the public has reasons to rejoice.

Supervisor A. R. Gibble and Walter Brosey spent Saturday afternoon at a horse sale in Silver Spring.

Jacob F. Fry and Samuel L. Heisey made their Saturday hebdomadal visits to your borough.

Mr. and Mrs. John Y. Gruber were entertained Sunday in the family of Daniel Miller near Mount Hope.

Jacob Zeager, a prominent citizen of Anchor, whiled away several hours in town the fore part of the week.

Brother Isaac G. Kopp and his son Isaac M. of Rheems, were among the supernumeraries at Ebersole's sale the past week.

Mrs. Horace George and two little daughters, of Elizabethtown, were Sunday afternoon guests at S. S. Gibble's domicile.

John Green assisted J. K. Springer to finish stripping the latter's tobacco and evulgates that he is glad the d— job is over.

The backward spring has greatly retarded the work of the farmers in the vicinity. So far little ploughing has been done.

A large flock of wild geese were seen Sunday morning flying over the town. This is an infallible evidence of warmer weather.

Dandelion is gathered from the adjacent farms—an early spring plant, which is very wholesome and makes a very palatable dish.

Letters of administration were granted to Aaron H. Gish, on the estate of Jos. M. Gish, dec'd, late of Upper Rapho township.

Miss Agnes Wittle, after having been professionally employed as a nurse near Mount Joy, returned home in the fore part of the week.

A. F. Shelly will dispose of his remaining household paraphernalia at public sale tomorrow afternoon and seek a home in another community.

Merchant E. F. Grosh and his sister Mrs. S. L. Glogrich were present at the obsequies of their cousin Mrs. Sarah A. Grosh, at Lititz, Thursday.

Supervisor H. Enterline, Reuben Emenhiser, Jacob R. Shank and Christian Good were Milton Grove contingent at Rev. J. Ebersole's sale near Lawn last week.

Blaine O. Grosh and his brother Ralph made a flying trip the past week to the "City of Broad Brims," where they viewed the sights of the great metropolis.

Mrs. Harrison Eshleman, of Butler, Pa. and her sister Miss Edna Glogrich of Lawn, were socially entertained by Mrs. Sue Eshleman and her daughter, Mrs. Melo Martin the past week.

John K. Strickler will sell at public sale this afternoon on Chiques Hill, his entire outfit of household furniture and anticipates to leave for new quarters. His wife is going to the Zion Children's Home near Lititz.

Kicked on the head by a horse, Aaron Diffenderfer had his skull fractured. Serious results were feared, but the latest bulletin announces his condition hopeful and he will recover. Dr. A. J. Thome is the attending physician.

The fashions in variegated hair make Cubist art seem mild and matter of fact by comparison.

REEMS. On March 25th was the special day. Quite a number planted corn and sowed peas in this place.

David Wittle who has been confined to his bed the past few weeks is again able to sit up on a chair at short intervals.

Mrs. Jacob Shank of Rheems, has the record for a pen of Barred Rock chickens and endeavors to furnish settings very reasonably.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Murphy and son of Philadelphia, were guests of the former's brother, Loyd and family several days the past week.

John Masterson and force of masons of Florin enlarged the chimney on the B. H. Greider house which was damaged by the storm.

Miss Mary Rutt held the last day of her school last Saturday with a full attendance. There was shedding of tears and a promise to return for the next term.

The few pleasant summer days last week brought forth quite a display of garden tools at the P. N. Kraybill store, where you can get a good rake for 25c.

Mr. and Mrs. George Givens attended the wedding of their son Jacob, Thursday March 26th, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amaziah Good of Mount Joy.

The Rheems high school closed their term in charge of Miss Ruth McAlister last Wednesday. She has made such an impression upon her pupils, that her return is looked for.

The record for cheap tobacco has been reached when large crops are sold for 4 and 5 cents. The prevailing price recently has been from 5 to 7 cents for wrappers. Quite a number refused 9 cents.

Gish and Snyder, two West Donegal hustlers have embarked into the whole sale leaf tobacco packing business. They have purchased about sixty acres and will start packing April 6th at this place.

Mrs. Charles Shirk was spending several weeks at Lebanon, with her infant daughter aged about 18 months. The child became ill and died last Friday. Funeral services and interment took place at Lebanon.

Andrew Martin a prominent trucker from Little Washington, who contemplates planting several acres of cabbage and tomatoes visited the Rheems green house last Monday, where he placed an order for 500 potted tomato stalks.

D. G. Brinser has now in complete operation a chopping mill with a special high record. It is constructed with electric power without belting or shafting. Farmers can bring large loads and wait but a very short time for their chop thus saving one round trip to the mill which is one way of reducing high cost of farming expenses.

April 1, the moving day. The following persons changed locations: Geo. Givens flitted from the A. S. Bard double brick house to the M. Hoffman farm near Stackstown, Roy Shroll filled the vacancy; Joseph Foreman vacated the Jacob Snyder farm, M. Hertzler will be his successor; N. N. Greiner flitted from the H. Weaver double house into the James Nauman farm house near Mt. Gretna, Edward Reider from Elizabethtown will occupy the Weaver house.

Miss Susanna White is visiting at Elizabethtown.

Miss Sallie Shireman is visiting friends in Harrisburg.

Rev. Jos. D. Krout and family spent the past week at York.

Mr. Chas. Barnhart of Harrisburg spent Sunday with his family.

Misses Rozella Hays and Ethel Culp spent Wednesday at Lampeter.

Miss Annie Blessing of Hellam is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. A. Dehoff.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Miller of York Haven are visiting Mr. Miller's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Graybill of Harrisburg are visiting the Misses Shireman.

Mrs. Harlan Buller of Lancaster spent Wednesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eshleman.

Mrs. Albert Clepper has gone to Philadelphia to spend several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Barbara Hest-and.

Mrs. Elmira Earnest, nee Stackhouse, died at the Columbia Hospital on Monday. She was a resident of town for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gotschall of Harrisburg and Mr. B. F. Brandt of Lancaster, spent Sunday with J. Frank Johnston and family.

The schools closed this week. Miss Florence Evans returned to her home at Lancaster, and Miss Susanna Beck to her home at Millersville. High School will continue a month longer.

Mr. Peter Beinhauer of Rowenna moved into the Epler home which he purchased last fall. Mr. Kieffer of Reich's, moved into the Porter home, and Mr. Geo. Hinton of town moved his family to West Chester.

Stijl Has His Troubles. Mr. I. D. Springer, former proprietor of the Red Lion hotel here, is still figuring in financial difficulties.

Yesterday in the Court of Common Pleas Laura M. Springer has been made plaintiff and S. F. Sweigart defendant in an issue framed to determine the ownership of certain personal property on an execution issued against I. D. Springer.

Counties Are Liable. Counties of Pennsylvania are liable for the bounties on scalps of noxious animals and birds and must look to the general assembly for reimbursement according to an opinion given to the State game commission today by Deputy Attorney General J. E. B. Cunningham.

Anyway political tea is more desirable than political tangle foot.

A late winter has the advantage of discouraging the crop failure prophet.

Gen. Kelly's army must expect to face numerous offers of employment on a march so long as that from California to Washington.

If Gov. Colquitt ever decides to lecture on "How to Obtain Peace," a large number of people will buy tickets and listen with close attention.

The United Tobacco Co.'s Warehouse is closed for the season and for the present all the tobacco interests center in the Long & Taylor house Landisville where business is on the boom.

The sale of house furnishings at the home of John Kepperling on Saturday was well attended in spite of inclement weather, and people were ready to bid and buy, so very fair prices were realized.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Landisville and Salunga will hold a Spelling Bee in the Maple Grove School House at Salunga, on Saturday evening. Doors open at 7:15. There will be three classes: Spelling, general information and a guessing contest with prizes for all, also music and readings. Come and enjoy it and thereby help a worthy cause. Admission adults, 15; children, 10.

ERISMAN'S CHURCH. Miss Anna Erisman spent Sunday with Mrs. A. K. Brubaker.

On Monday morning Levi Eby found one of his horses dead.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Eby attended Mother Eby's sale at Bender's Mill on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Erb spent Sunday with I. B. Erb and family near Lititz.

Mr. and Mrs. John Metzler visited the latter's parents near Risser's Church on Saturday.

Miss Mary Hiestand of White Oak will stay with Jacob Snyder and family this summer.

Rev. I. Brubaker and Rev. Peter Nissly took supper with A. H. Erb and family on Saturday evening.

Our sick friends Robert Brubaker, Mrs. Jacob Snyder and Peter Witmer are improving and will be able to be about soon.

Miss Artilla Erisman who spent the past month with I. K. Witmer and family near Hanover, returned home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Stouer of Petersburg and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Witmer Jr. spent Sunday with the family of Hiram Witmer.

Mr. Charles Eshleman, who spent the winter teaching near Mastersonville, returned home Friday and now will devote his time to well drilling.

The Lincoln school was visited the past month by Messrs. Peter Witmer and A. H. Erb, Mrs. Levi Eby, Mrs. David Wickenheiser, Mrs. Noah Witmer, Misses Ella and Lizzie Witmer and Mr. Martin Brubaker.

MAYTOWN. Miss Susanna White is visiting at Elizabethtown.

Miss Sallie Shireman is visiting friends in Harrisburg.

Rev. Jos. D. Krout and family spent the past week at York.

Mr. Chas. Barnhart of Harrisburg spent Sunday with his family.

Misses Rozella Hays and Ethel Culp spent Wednesday at Lampeter.

Miss Annie Blessing of Hellam is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. A. Dehoff.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Miller of York Haven are visiting Mr. Miller's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Graybill of Harrisburg are visiting the Misses Shireman.

Mrs. Harlan Buller of Lancaster spent Wednesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eshleman.

Mrs. Albert Clepper has gone to Philadelphia to spend several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Barbara Hest-and.

Copyright Hart Schaffner & Marx

To greet your friends on Easter you will be well dressed. Easter is the time of when everybody wants to appear neat and well dressed. We invite you to come and see how well prepared for your wants, with Hart Schaffner & Marx Styleplus and Unique Clothing. Every Suit so our own guarantee.

We are showing the best line of Clothing at $7.50, $12.50 that ever was shown in Mount Joy. At will sell you an All Wool Blue Serge Suit. You all know the character of our $15.00 to $20.00 Clothes. You know they are right or we will be selling so many of them. Come and ask us to see these special clothes even if you don't want to buy.

Advertisement for Spring Hats Are Blue $1.50 Up, SHIRTS A New Shirt For Easter Eclipse 50c to $3, Foot Oxfords and Shoes $2.00 U.

Getz Bros., Mount Joy

Advertisement for H. E. SAGER Groceries, listing various food items and prices.

Advertisement for AT ZELLER'S, Mrs. C. H. Zeller, and other local businesses.

Advertisement for Peter P. Gruber Auctioneer, listing services and contact information.