PURE OLIVE OIL

Contains nearly 100% of nourishment, while the next most nutritious grains contains less than 90%, and vegetables very much less. Two tablespoonsfuls of Pure Olive Oil contain more nourishment than one pound of meat, and does not overtax the digestive organs. The food value of Pure Olive Oil—providing the quality is right—has no equal, and its nutritive qualities are quickly assimilated by the system and transformed into healthy flesh.

To get the best Olive Oil one must be very particular as to what brand he buys, for all Olive Oils are neither pure nor of first quality. You will never buy any other brand of Olive Oil once you have purchased Olivessa.

WHY MOUNT JOY MERCHANTS SHOULD ADVERTISE IN THE BULLETIN
The "New Year" is the time for introspection; the time to look back over the years that have flown; and searching out and acknowledging weaknesses and shortcomings that will fortify ourselves for the year ahead.

Look back, and see if you are getting all your talents, your ambition, and your opportunities entitle you to. If not, take steps to improve your condition without delay. Advertising in the Bulletin can greatly assist you, whether your desire be for a better position or for a better business.

MASONIC HOME NOTES

Thru The Generosity of Lodge No. 265 of Bloomsburg, the Home is the Recipient of a Fine $200 Grand Victrola—Other Home News

Easter with all gladness significance was appropriately celebrated at the Masonic Homes. Washington Lodge No. 265 of Bloomsburg, Pa., through the kindly efforts of Senior Grand Warden James B. Krause of Williamsport, and H. A. McKillip 33 of Bloomsburg, generously presented to the Homes a $200. Grand Victrola, with a number of records; and it was forwarded with a view to have it in the Homes in time for the Easter festivities, a pre Easter entertainment was held in the assembly room on Saturday evening, April 11th, when all were given an opportunity of listening to an excellent selection of records from the magnificent new Victrola. The playing of the records was interspersed with vocal solos by Mary Schock and Mr. P. F. Schock and a piano solo by Mr. George R. Drabentstadt, all of whom came from their homes in Mt. Joy, to generously lend their well known talent to the success of the entertainment.

At the conclusion of the program, Brother William H. Shaffer moved the following, as the expression of the guests of the Homes, which was unanimously adopted.

Whereas: Washington Lodge, No. 265 of Bloomsburg, Pa., has so kindly and generously presented to the Homes a grand Victrola with records, now therefore, be it resolved that the guests of the Masonic Homes here assembled, acknowledge with grateful thanks this magnificent gift and desire this expression of their appreciation to be conveyed to Washington Lodge, No. 265 F. & A. M.

Easter Sunday was celebrated in the afternoon. A large bank of Easter flowers and flowering plants provided the decorations, and a goodly number of visitors assisted in forming a large and appreciative audience. The Rev. George R. Hoover, pastor of the Church of God of Elizabethtown and a much esteemed friend of the Homes, over ready to give his valuable services as occasion requires, was present with the excellent choir of his church, to conduct the devotional services. The resurrection sermon appropriate to the day was a masterly effort delivered with great force and earnestness. The order of exercises was as follows: Easter Anthem, "Christ the Lord is risen today," choir of Grand Lodge Hall; Hymn, Congregation; Prayer; Hymn, "Father we thank Thee," Children of the Homes; Recitation, "Song of Easter," Master Edw. Stewart Heckler; Anthem, "Risen a glorious King," choir of Church of God; Reading of the Scriptures, Anthem, "Hallelujah! Christ is Risen," choir of Grand Lodge Hall; Sermon, Rev. Geo. R. Hoover, pastor of Church of God; Anthem, "Praise Ye the Father," choir of Grand Lodge Hall; Hymn, Congregation; Anthem, "From the Power of the grave," choir of Church of God; Benediction.

The Homes are now provided with a competent and experienced farmer, to supply the vacancy caused by the death of Amos Ziegler, the present farmer is Mr. Henry G. Fasset of Meshoppen, Wyoming County, Pa. He was born and raised on a fruit and general farm. After a four years course he graduated at the Pennsylvania State College. He managed a large nursery and afterwards a large fruit farm in Maryland before coming to the Homes.

New guests to arrive are Mrs. Margaret H. Amway of Harrisburg, and brother Charles W. Seiders of Reading. An item of more than usual interest to the Homes is the notification that on May 24th, General Miles Camp, No. 26, Sons of Veterans and Post No. 592 G. A. R. will visit the Homes and conduct the Sunday religious services. As the visiting season for the Homes is now upon us, it may be of interest to know that during the month of March there were 602 names added to the visitors register, making a grand total to April 1st, of 7622. There were seven guests admitted during the month, making a total of 134.

Among recent visitors were Wm. M. Donaldson of Harrisburg, and Andrew H. Hershey of Lancaster, members of the Committee on Masonic Homes; Harvey L. Durdick, P. M. & Sec'y. of Lodge No. 291, Scranton; O. K. Snyder, S. W. of Lodge No. 561 Mount Joy; Joseph W. Hasbrouck, Treas. Lodge, No. 227, Reading; N. K. Hoffer, Harrisburg; John Rinald, Corona, N. Y.; Charles Gilsdorf, West New York, N. J.; H. G. Pinkerton, Dr. Claude D. Ross, Mrs. M. A. Becker, Miss Emma Herr, Miss Martha Davis, and Mrs. John Henry Miller all of Lancaster; Richard G. Warren and H. W. Richardson of Boston; Edward W. Pepper, H. Howard Shelly, Joseph W. Sheppard, Philadelphia; J. D. Lawrence, Cincinnati, O.; M. D. Summer, Mystic Lodge, Pittsfield, Mass.; John L. Kuhn, New York; Rev. G. A. Woodside, Bradford; P. M. of Ontario Lodge, Ont., Canada; Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Seyfert, Lancaster; Dr. S. R. Nissley, Quincy, O.; and H. S. Hiestand, Marietta, O.

WHY MOUNT JOY MERCHANTS SHOULD ADVERTISE IN THE BULLETIN

Let's See, What Was His Name?
In 1908 we experienced a very lively contest for the Presidency and Vice Presidency.

No great discovery or catastrophe received more space in the public print than did the utterances, the goings and the comings of the four candidates representing the two great parties.

It would seem impossible for one to forget the names of the candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency.

Can you name the candidate for the Vice Presidency, on the ticket with Mr. Bryan?

Oblivion is the price of silence. Mr. Bryan's name has been kept before the public. His running mate is forgotten.

Don't let the public forget you. Use the Bulletin.

PLEASANT VIEW

Mrs. B. K. Eshleman and Miss Cora Gruber visited relatives in Elizabethtown on Sunday.
C. P. Eshleman received two registered Holstein calves from Simon Gingrich on Monday.
B. K. Eshleman visited John G. Stauffer on Tuesday. Mr. Stauffer is suffering from a paralytic stroke and he is reported as not being improved enough to be across the danger line.
On Tuesday evening an aged lady and her grown son, said to be from New York City called at the Pleasant View farm for lodging, but were not granted same as they requested a bed in the house.
Risser's Church services on Sunday evening were well attended, although some present did not enjoy life in a civilized state, having imbibed too freely of distilled liquors. Some people are too wise to act unwise while others are too ignorant to know what is wise or unwise.
I. P. Eshleman's stable of steers numbering 12 were sold on Monday morning and immediately left for the scales at Jacob E. Ginder's. They tipped the beam to an average weight of 1,479 pounds. Five months ago they weighed 1,150 pounds. This was the best lot in this vicinity.

WHY MOUNT JOY MERCHANTS SHOULD ADVERTISE IN THE BULLETIN

A $2,000,000.00 Example
Without a dollar's worth of business in sight, the Ward Baking Co. erected and equipped two magnificent bakeries in New York City, at a cost of $2,000,000.

They knew the possibilities of advertising and depended upon advertising to make their New York business a success.

The result was that in eight months they obtained distribution for 350,000 loaves of bread per day. Without advertising those two million dollar bakeries would be accumulating dust and cobwebs, and the two hundred autos used for delivery purposes would be idle.

Use the Bulletin and watch your business grow.

Methodist Episcopal
C. B. Johnston, Pastor
Sunday School 9:30 A. M.
Public Worship, 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.
Epworth League Services, 6:30 P. M.
Prayer meeting, Wednesday, 7:30 P. M.

Easter Exercises
The Easter exercises in the United Brethren Sunday school and Church were of a very inspiring character. There were 266 present at the Sunday school hour, of which number 57 were in the Men's class, taught by the pastor. The offering was $156.

At 10 o'clock the auditorium was filled to its capacity to witness the reception of 24 members. A number of these were scholars converted in the Sunday school. The others were adults received on transfers and profession of faith. The music rendered by the choir and male quartet, was superb. The anthem, "Immanuel" was repeated at the evening service by request.

Public Sale
ON MONDAY, APRIL 20, 1914 I will sell at the Franklin House Stables, Lancaster, 1 express load Indiana horses, consisting of trotters, pacers and general purpose horses; also some family broken horses and farm chunks.

These horses were bought by my son, John, right from the farmers and we think they are the best load of the season. Also one load of Nebraska horses, consisting of feeders, farm chunks and drivers bought by myself.

Now, gentlemen you all know what kind we handle—nothing but the best we can buy. Come and see them sold. Anybody in need of horses will do well to attend this sale.

Sale to commence at one o'clock p. m. on MONDAY, APRIL 20, 1914, when terms will be made known by C. H. HALLMAN
