Have You Seen Those Wonderful Women's Coats and Suits

That we are selling at the lowest price Lancaster has ever known. Last Saturday, notwithstanding the rain we were hardly able to wait on the steady streams of customers who kept coming from early morning till late in the evening. If it hadn't rained we would have been "swamped," but then is it any wonder.

If you've seen the suits you can understand how it is everybody wants to have one. In all our experience of the Suit business extending back more years than we care to mention, we can say positively that even at the very end of a season we have never known such merchandise to sell at such ridiculously low prices.

There are still plenty of selections left for those who come quickly. All sizes and all materials and better still all prices.

Suits From $4.98 to $24.98

Coats From $3.98 to $14.98

Children's Coats From $1.98 to $10.00

The Grain Market

The holders of corn in the Chicago market are greatly encouraged over the delay in the shipment from Argentine and there was talk last Saturday of goodly sales of the cash article for eastern shipments. The situation in corn has changed wonderfully in the past few days. The most ardent bulls have given up their position on that side of the market and joined the bears. Friday and Saturday, however, there was a reversal of conditions because of the heavy rains over the corn belt of Argentina which will cut down the movement to very small proportions for the next three or four weeks. It is said that fully two-thirds of the Argentine crop was exposed to the rains and that it is more than likely that the corn in the open during the heavy downpour will be more or less damaged and that this will prove a help to the corn markets of the world in the matter of prices.

The improved demand for our corn was noticeable as early as Friday when the sales of the cash article for shipment to eastern manufacturers was made. Owing to the recent bull campaign in corn there are many in the trade here who take to that side of the market readily in the belief that higher prices are again to rule. It was the Argentine corn that recently caused trouble in the ranks of the corn bulls and in case it is held back for a few weeks in order to dry it out it will become a factor in favor of the bulls. Conditions surrounding the wheat market are normal.

The crop promise was never as good as it is at the present time, the demand for the cash article was never any slower and the visible supply is a big one. The only unfavorable crop reports received at Chicago on Saturday, and in fact during the past week were from points in Kansas, where dry weather is said to still exist but in that particular section of the Sunflower State there is no great amount of wheat raised. The trade in oats is fair. The Canadian grown grain is now being offered in direct competition with our own oats and there is a likelihood of lower prices being seen all around. The crop has bedded under favorable conditions and in many sections it is well along.

RHEEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Evans and family autored to Lancaster last week.

E. R. Dougherty attended the funeral of H. L. Stager at Lancaster last Monday.

The P. R. R. pay car made its semi-monthly appearance last Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stoll of Florin spent Sunday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Kraybill.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Heisey of Elizabethtown were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Enos Miller.

Gish & Snyder have a large force employed casing bulk sweated to bacco in the A. S. Bard warehouse.

E. F. Heiner, the Florin postmaster and traveling salesman, made his semi-monthly visit to the P. N. Kraybill store Monday.

The Hantzberger-Winters & Co. sale at Elizabethtown caused heavy travel on street cars and a lineup of automobiles last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Hostetter of near Columbia and Mr. and Mrs. Jac. Snyder of Mt. Joy were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. W. Kraybill on Saturday.

The big day for Rheems is fast approaching, as Tuesday, May 12, is the day named for the Lovefeast in this place to be held by the Church of the Brethren.

The continuous downfall of rain Saturday afternoon and night has soaked everything thoroughly, making the farmers hustle to get out their potatoes and oats.

Mrs. Miller Weaver underwent an operation at the Lancaster General Hospital last week. From all accounts the operation has been pronounced a successful one.

Thursday of last week was apparently a big day for plowing lots and planting. Henry Brandt and A. Kupp had their teams and implements in this place preparing lots for planting.

Many farmers threatened to pack their own tobacco rather than sell at the present prices. Thus far there are very few who have made the attempt. 5 and 6c for wrappers causes them to sell rather than pack it.

The Misses Anna Foreman, Miriam Bard and Mr. Simon Fry, three advanced pupils of the Rheems school, were examined by Prof. Aumiller Monday. This will make a total of six for the Etown High from the Rheems school. There is one from Rheems in the graduating class of this year.

GIRLS HAVE A SCARE

Start in Boat Across the Susquehanna at Bainbridge and Had to be Rescued

Adelaide Rhoads, Minnie, Jennie and Alice Myers, four young women residing at Bainbridge, had a harrowing experience on the Susquehanna river last Wednesday afternoon.

They secured a boat and crossed to the York county side of the river. After starting to cross to the other side a high wind arose, and when about midstream they lost control of the oars. The current was very strong and they were being carried rapidly down the stream, when their cries for assistance were heard by William Strohmman. He notified the fathers of the girls, and they put out into the river in boats. The girls were taken safely ashore, greatly frightened.

Another Italian Convicted

"Guilty of murder in the first degree and recommending the mercy of the court" was the verdict returned Thursday evening by the jury in the case of Tony Vitale, charged with complicity in the murder of Tony Collata. This is the second similar verdict on this case in our county courts.

Won Second Prize

Edgar G. Diehm, a former student at Elizabethtown College, won the second prize of twenty-five dollars at the annual inter-collegiate oratorical contest of the Penna. Arbitration and Peace Society, held at Bucknell University, at Lewisburg. Mr. Diehm is a freshman at Juniata College, Huntingdon.

Counterfeit Half Dollars

A merchant in Columbia is in possession of a counterfeit half-dollar which he received over his counter a day or two ago. The piece was easily detected after the merchant began to count his money, as it was found to be light in weight, although otherwise the piece of money is a good imitation of the genuine.

THE FACTOR OF SAFETY

Little Talks on Health & Hygiene by Samuel G. Dixon, M. D., L. L. D., Commissioner of Health

The Engineer who plans a bridge or a skyscraper makes his calculations, based upon the strength of the steel then he adds the factor of safety. After considering the breaking strain, which tests have shown material will stand he generally multiplies this by three for additional security.

In the physical structure of our bodies there is included a factor of safety. Under all of the ordinary conditions of life this margin protects us. It takes care of the strains incidental to the rational existence of the Creator evidently intended us.

When the body is exhausted by over-work and under feeding or by dissipation and excesses this factor of safety is so reduced that it fails to protect and we become easy victims to communicable or organic disease.

While modern conditions of living make exceptional demands upon us these are more than offset by the improvement in living conditions, as statistics prove that the average span of human life is being gradually lengthened. The thing which we should guard against is excessive and irrational indulgences. Ordinarily our intelligence is a sufficient guide if we permit it to govern us. It is seldom that we presume upon our strength without being aware of the fact.

Be temperate and the factor of safety will carry you through the requirements of your everyday work.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel N. Becker were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elias Geib on Sunday. Farmers will plant potatoes in larger quantities this year than they have for a long time on account of the low prices of tobacco. Mr. Monroe Ruhl is recovering from an attack of rheumatism, which had afflicted him for about a week. He suffered intense pain for several days.

For aluminumware, pure and guaranteed for a life time, cutlery, silverware, jewelry, fountain pens, safety razors, etc., call on Charles G. Becker, who guarantees satisfaction or your money back. Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Stauffer entertained the following at dinner on Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Becker and daughter Rhoda, Mr. and Mrs. John Shenk, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ginder and family.

The Sunday school at the Mt. Hope church is well attended. But we particularly invite some of the grown boys and young men to our school. Try it boys, we will show you some interesting work. Join the girls' Bible class. It will pay you in the end.

Mastersonville and the vicinity east of our town needs a doctor since Dr. Thome has so much work and such a wide territory that he is hardly able to get around. This is an opportunity for a young married doctor. A residence can be secured as several are for sale; good locations. For particulars address box 14, Mastersonville, Pa.

Miss Maggie Shelly deserted the single ranks and was married to Jacob Brubaker, a machinist in Lancaster, formerly a machinist in the U. S. navy, on Saturday night at their newly purchased residence situated in the western end of Lancaster, in the presence of a few relatives. The wedding was celebrated quietly and on Sunday the bride's parents entertained the newly wedded son and daughter at a dinner.
