The Tempest Dramatic Company

At the O'Hara Theatre last night they made a big hit with their fine production of The Yankee Hustler. This is one of the strongest plays the Tempest Co. has produced, and the people are surprised at the big production for the small price of admission. The performance last night was equal to many dollar attractions. Not one dull moment in the entire play. The specialties were a feature in themselves. This is the strongest and best company Mr. Tempest ever produced in Shenandoah. The special scenery, electric effects, and costumes add much to the performance.—Evening Herald, Shenandoah, Pa.

The Tempest people will appear here nightly next week. See ad.

Schock Gets Another Contract

The citizens of Mountville have decided to abate the dust nuisance, and at a largely attended meeting of the people residing along the Main street, which was held in the engine house, the question was brought up for discussion.

It was finally decided to have oil applied. Clarence Schock of this place, was given the contract and the money needed to pay for the work will be raised by subscription. The cost will be approximately $275.

RHEEMS
 Love Feast Held Here This Week Was Largely Attended
 Miss Caroline Sparrow of Harrisburg, spent a few days as guest of Mrs. S. J. King.
 D. S. Shields and family attended the funeral of Mrs. Fred Hass at Marietta last week.
 Reuben Baker of near Elizabethtown was Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. Hassinger.
 Potted Tomato plants are being taken away from the Rheems green house by the wagon load since may first.
 Mr. H. H. Bard and daughter Amanda spent last Sunday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Bard near Columbia.
 J. Kraybill Bard a graduate of the Elizabethtown 1914 class has enrolled as a student at the Elizabethtown College.
 Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grosh the veteran stone mason of Mt. Joy were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. W. Kraybill last Sunday.
 Mrs. William Hartman and son Bradberry of Hanna, Wyoming, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. King for several days last week.
 Mr. and Mrs. Jos. W. Kraybill spent several days visiting their daughter, Mrs. Reuben Kaufman and family near East Petersburg.
 P. N. Kraybill, the leading merchant of this place spent last Monday afternoon at Lancaster, where he combined business with pleasure.
 Henry Weaver was first to enhance his residence for the present year 1914 with a fresh coat of paint that harmonizes with the surroundings.
 Mr. and Mrs. Roy Schroll and children Elmer and Viola were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Berry near Breeman's Schoolhouse Mt. Joy township last Sunday.
 C. Musser and force of Electricians of Elizabethtown, made some extensive repairs to lights in the Church of the Brethren last week getting it into readiness for the Love Feast.
 Still more music in the air by addressing post office box 164, Rheems, Pa., you can get full particulars about a Weaver organ, six octaves and a rubber tire Jenny Lind all in good condition. A cheap offer.
 D. G. Brinser was compelled to add extra force to deliver coal from the A. Buch & Son siding throughout Elizabethtown, the past week. There appears to be quite a demand for this variety of coal.
 Benner, the general delivery man of Elizabethtown, who ran into Raymond Helsey with his large truck several weeks past completely wrecked the motor cycle that Helsey was riding near the B. H. Greider poultry farm. Mr. Benner was quite glad to see that the young man escaped injuries requesting him to call at his office in a few days which he did and received a check for $50.
 Church of the Brethren held their Spring Love Feast at the Rheems church last Tuesday the 12th with an exceedingly large attendance of members and visitors from many miles around. A number of strange ministers were present conducting services Tuesday and Wednesday. This was the first Spring Love Feast ever held at this place owing to the convenience in many respects this is their most convenient place.
 Albert Kane, the native druggist of Elizabethtown, took his aged mother out for an outing last Sunday, her desire being to visit Rheems where she attended school at the Cherry hill schoolhouse which stood close to where the small grave yard is opposite the residence of Leander Groff near the P. R. R. tracks. Mrs. Kane is four score and 2. They spent the afternoon as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leander Groff, making it quite interesting rehearsing ancient events.
 Frank Pierce, stone and lime king of this place had two of his teams hauling ties from a P. R. R. car for the Conestoga traction Co. The span of horses in charge of Wm. Hetrick got beyond control while leaving the car with a load running toward home William stuck to the strings and got them close to a telegraph pole the front wheel struck the pole bringing the enraged horses to a stop, breaking the tongue and harness and about 15 ties were scattered all along the street some striking the side walks, fortunately everybody cleared the way for the flying timber.
