STATE CORN CONTEST

Three Valuable Prizes to be Awarded By State College

A state corn contest to which all boys and girls under 20 years of age are eligible will again be held by the Penna. State College. In this contest 4 prizes will be awarded aggregating a cash value of about $125. Last year Lancaster county boys won all of them.

Rules of Contest

The boy or girl entering this contest must agree to grow one-fourth acre of corn. A complete record must be kept of all operations, the cost of production, yield, profit, etc. Awards are made on the basis of yield, 60 per cent; exhibit, 30 per cent; report, 10 per cent.

Conditions: 1. This contest is open to any boy in Pennsylvania whose age does not exceed twenty years. Anyone desiring to compete should notify this Department and the Co. Supt. of his county.

2. The corn shall be grown on a plot containing not less than forty square rods or one-quarter of an acre.

3. Any variety of corn may be used. The contestants must select the seed, plant the crop, fertilize it and cultivate it as they may see fit. 4. Each contestant must make a report covering the variety grown; manner of selection of the seed; results of germination tests; character of the soil and its treatment previous to planting; method of planting; kind and amount of fertilizer used; dates and character of cultivation, and dates of planting and harvesting.

5. The plot of ground must be measured by two disinterested parties approved by the County Supt. of Schools.

The husking must be done, the corn weighed, and ten of the best ears selected by the contestant in the presence of the same individuals, or others designated by the County Supt. Very immature, mouldy or rotten corn should not be included. The corn shall not be husked until it is in good cribbing condition, and the witnesses must specify the condition of the corn.

6. The ten ears selected may, with the approval of the County Supt., be exhibited at any convenient place in the county, or may participate in county contests in the contestant's home county.

7. Blanks for reporting yields and score cards such as are used in judging corn will be furnished to each contestant. Everyone engaging in the contest should send for blanks. The certification of yield should be mailed to the Dept. of Agricultural Extension, State College, Pa., by those in whose presence the corn is weighed as soon as the weighing is completed.

A corn show will be held at State College during Farmers' Week, at which samples of corn grown under the above conditions may be entered for prizes.

The report and name of the contestant should be shipped with the ten ears. Each ear should be separately wrapped and tightly packed to avoid shelling. The package should be addressed to the Department of Agricultural Extension, State College, Pa., and should arrive at State College not later than December 20 of each year.

Awards: A first, second and third prize will be awarded in accordance with the following scale of points: Yield, 60; Sample (10 ears), 30; report, 10; Total 100.

Prizes: The prizes will be as follows: First: Expenses of a Winter Course in Agriculture at The Pennsylvania State College. Second: Expenses to Farmers' Week at State College. Third: Three books on agricultural subjects.

The corn, after final judging, shall remain the property of the contestant.

How to Enter

For details concerning the State contest, Contest Farm Bureau, 6 W. King street, Lancaster, Pa.

Last year a number of boys were not permitted to enter the contests. This year it is hoped that restraining influences will not be in evidence as much. Parents should realize that such contests are designed to create wholesome competition among the young folks and to stimulate rural interest among them.

Everyone wishing to enter the State contest must grow an acre of corn and notify the Lancaster Farm Bureau, Lancaster, Pa., by June 1 whereupon particulars for this State contest will be sent.

What Shilkeey Bumblecock Has To Say This Week

Ich bin ken Platz in dere Welt, Der nacher is, noch mehner Geld, As wie der alte Kerchhof dort, Dr zu mir is en theurer Ort.

Der alte Kerchhof un der nei Liege hoch uf dem Huvel frei; Die Aussicht dort is wunner scho, Welt kann mer in die Ferne seh.

Der Muhlbach Kopp, der sehnt mer plainh, Un der Hobe Berg grad so schon; Das reiche Dahl—on lange Streck—Aa unsere Fuss liegt hier ganz keck.

Die Aussicht un indie Graver dort Week'n Sehnsucht for en schonre Ort; Do schlofe unsere fromme Freund in ewiger Seligkeit vereint.

Die viele Grabsteh, gross un kleh, Kann mer von Weitem schene steh; Sie halte uwer die Graver Wacht, Un sehn wie Geister in der Nacht.

Die Grabsteh do, for Arm un Reich—En schone Sach—sin viele gleich; Manche sin alt un viel verzeit Un Hitz, un Kalt, un Zeit verzehret.

Mer lese doch die Schrifte gern Un dene, die schun lang sie fern; Sie erinnere uns an unser Dod, Der kummt zu All, fruh oder spot.

Wie Hebllich is doch seller Platz, Der for mich halt en theurer Schatz, Wo immer sorgt un fleissig wacht Iwer mei Kindheit Dag un Nacht.

Ich geh net uf der Kerchhof nau, Dass ich net besser fuhl somehow, Wann ich an ihre Graver steh Un in die dunkle Zukunft seh.

Do fuhlt mei Herz oftmal ganz schwer Doch kumm ich wann ich kann do her; Ich seh mei Eltern im Gemuth, Wann schun das Grab ihr Gesicht ver-hut.

Oh! wie duht mei Herz doch gschwel, Die Thrane fange ah zu quelle, Wann ich an ihre Grabsteh blick Un wees sie kumme nimme z'ruck.

Mei Aag is nass, ich kann net meh, Dann bleib ich noch en wenig steh Un weine fort, ich armer Mann, Weil ich sie nimme sehne kann.

Hier Schloft mei liewe Mutter scho, Ihr gute Hand nemm ich net meh; En manche Stund, ja Dag un Nacht Hot sie in meiner Unschuld gwacht.

Ich wees, mei junges stolzes Herz Macht ihre oft en tiefer Schmerz; Doch der Schone Roth, den sie mir ga5, Behalte ich bis in mei Grab.

Fa manches Kind wees net, doch lern, Sobald der Dod hot es geernt; Wie treulich hot Die Mutter g'lobt Ihre Kinner, den sie Alles gieb.

Do kummt zuruck, wo aus dem Grab Die Ermanung mir mei Vatter gab; "Wie hoffnungslos is doch der Mann, Den Gottes Wort net troste kann."

Der Kerchhof is en heil'ger Grund, Wo stille bleib en jeder Mund, Der folge duht mit nassam Aag Den neue Sarg un Glocke-Schlag.

Die Graver sin en gute Lehr For mich un All, die kumme her; Do Reich un Arm sin Alle gleich, Ken Unnerscheid in sellem Reich.

Der junge Mann, der bluhe duht, Un sich verspricht en manches Gut, Ganz unverhofft werd weg geratt Von der unsichtbare Dodes-Macht.

Der alte Greis, der lange wart Dort ei zu geh an sellem Ort, Find endlich doch sei Wunsch voll-bracht Nau schloft en sanft in Dodes-Nacht.

Der Kerchhof is der Erde-Schoss, Wo ruhe duht der Korper bloss; Die Seele find sich anders wo, Was ewig is, bleib ewig so.

Sis nix, das uns so bitte duht, En starkrer Eidruck macht un gut, Als grad der alte Kerchhof dort, Der zu mir is en ehil'ger Ort.

Den Trost haw ich, dass mei Ungluck Is doch for sie des grosse Gluck; Der Kerchhof is der Eligang zu Der schon're un der bess're Ruh.

Die Hoffnung bleib zu letzte Zeit For mich grad wie for alle Leit; In dere Hoffnung mach ich fort Bis ich g'seh an sellem Ort.

FISHWAY IS A FIZZLE

Rivermen Claim Shad Can Not and Do Not Ascend Susquehanna

Fishermen all along the Susquehanna river north of the great Holtwood dam say that they have thus far this year waited and watched in vain for the appearance of the toothsome shad, which formerly abounded in the big stream far up its course. As the season is far advanced and thousands of the finny tribe have been caught below the outlet of the concrete fishway constructed by the Penna. Water & Power Co. at their huge dam while there have been few, if any, catches above the obstruction, the matter is beginning to assume a serious aspect despite the declaration of the power company engineer made some time ago, to the effect that the fish will be able to ascend.

As the fishway was built shad could easily ascend; but since the great spring freshet a month or two ago it is quite a different matter. The concrete work of the fishway does not extend into the river at the lower end and when the flood of mighty waters came coursing thru the narrow channel its great volume and force wore away the earth at the termination of the concrete, making a drop of 20 feet all the way across.

This has remained unchanged, and greatly to the consternation of the fishermen, but with no apparent effect upon the power company, whose engineer blandly admits that the washout was foreseen when the fishway was built and that no precautions were taken to prevent it, because of the fact that fish love rapid water and the steep jump would consequently prove an added attraction for them to pass upstream.

It would seem to be about time for the shad to exhibit the proclivities attributed to them by the said engineer, for experienced fishermen who have visited the place say that myriads of shad and other fish in great schools play in the deep, expansive pool into which the water falls and can be caught by the hundred with little skill or effort. None of these are seen to leap the falls, and none make their appearance in the river above as formerly. Therefore, these fishermen and others who have visited the fishway, contend that the fish never will make the leap of their own volition.

What is more, men versed in fish-lore and who from barefoot boyhood to hoary headed age have observed the habits and peculiarities of the scaly beauties declare positively that the only way to make it possible for the fish to ascend is to do away with the high waterfall. This can be done by repairing the original bed at this point, they say, but they add with much vehemence that the matter can be permanently remedied only by extending the concrete work by a gradual slope into the deep water of the river below.

THE FEAST OF ROSES

Miss Minnie Rittgers, Elocutionist, Formerly of This Place, Will Recite

Preparations are now about complete for the annual celebration of this interesting and far-famed service of Zion Lutheran Church. The service this year marks the twenty-fifth annual payment of the debt, one red rose in the month of June. A special souvenir program will be issued this year by the committee. Speakers of prominence who stand high as pulpit orators and preachers of the Word in the Lutheran Church have been secured for this year's celebration. Miss Minnie Rittgers, formerly of this place, an elocutionist of rare ability of Newark, N. J., will appear upon the program, as will also a soloist of exceptional ability from York. As usual, the decorations will be of a high standard and the special music by the choir will do full justice to the occasion. The day is Sunday, June 14, with the four services, beginning with Sunday School at 9 A. M., with addresses by the visiting pastors; the memorial sermon at 10 o'clock; the historical and memorial addresses and the legal payment of the rose to the Stiegel heirs at 1:30 P. M.; and the children's day service in the evening at 6 o'clock, with an address by one of the speakers of the day.

New Farm and Business Directory of Lancaster County

Our Representatives

Wear This Badge

The publishers of the old reliable FARM JOURNAL, of Philadelphia, are preparing to publish the illustrated FARM AND BUSINESS DIRECTORY OF LANCASTER COUNTY, giving the name, post-office, rural route, and telephone connection of every farmer in the county, all arranged under post-offices, and a classified BUSINESS DIRECTORY, including all business houses in the county, arranged under the proper headings.

With the Directory is given a complete ROAD MAP of the county, with each road NUMBERED to show the exact location of each farm, as given in the Directory.

This Directory will contain many interesting PICTURES of fine farms, thoroughbred stock, churches and public institutions, schools and pupils, portraits of prominent people, etc.

The names and necessary information about farmers are being secured by PERSONAL CANVASS of the 10,835 farms in the county. This Directory and Road Map are so useful to farmers that from our experience in other counties we can guarantee that the Directory will go into at least SIX THOUSAND HOMES of Lancaster County, where it will be constantly used by farmers and business men for the next five years.

The Farm Journal Directories give information which makes them indispensable to every farmer and business man in the county. They are an immense improvement over other directories, containing what most publications do not give.

First, they give the names, addresses, telephone connection, and other important information about farmers, secured by PERSONAL CANVASS from the farmer himself. This canvass of country districts is so costly that most directory publishers cannot afford to make it, and therefore lists of farmers published are in nearly all cases copied from the assessor's lists.

The classified BUSINESS DIRECTORY includes every business house in the county, whether in city or country. In other directories the names of houses in the cities and large towns only are usually given.

These features, with the Road Map, make the Farm Journal Directory an indispensable hand-book for every live farmer and business man in the county.

If you are not sure that correct information has been given to one of our canvassers, please send it direct to our main office.
