The first time an aeroplane ever flew inside a building was when Lincoln Beachey, the famous aviator, flew in the huge Palace of Machinery on the grounds of the Panama-Pacific International exposition to open in San Francisco on February 20, 1915. The Palace of Machinery is almost 1,000 feet long and 135 feet high. Beachey passed across from one end to the other of the building, flying for more than 300 feet and at a height of 60 feet. The most remarkable feature of the flight was that he had to steer a straight course down the center aisle, which is 75 feet in width.

Masonic Home News

It is not given to many to be able to accomplish a tour from Elizabethtown to Japan and a second tour from Elizabethtown to China, both in the short space of time of one week, yet this was the wonderful accomplishment of the guests of the Masonic Homes. It was not done in an aeroplane, nor yet in a pneumatic tube, and if you ask what is the answer, we reply, on Thursday, May 7th, Col. Wm. J. Fordney of Lancaster, equipped with a powerful lantern and an excellent manipulator of the same, came to the Homes and delivered his splendid illustrated lecture, "From the Ice Palaces of Montreal to the Cherry Blossom Gardens of Japan."

On May 14, he returned to the Homes and repeated his generous kindness, with his illustrated lecture, "The Great Wall Tour," which comprised a realistic illustrated descriptive tour of China.

These lectures were delivered by the Colonel in a most interesting and entertaining manner, being the personal observations and impressions of the narrator, and beautifully illustrated upon a screen by lantern slides, gave one the impression of actually making the tours in person, and held the interest and rapt attention of his hearers throughout their delivery.

Col. Fordney, by this manifestation of his interest in the Homes and thoughtful kindness to its guests, has not only done a graceful act, but also won the grateful thanks of the management and guests of the Homes which was duly acknowledged by Supt. N. Franklin Heckler at the conclusion of the second lecture, and a resolution to the same effect unanimously adopted by the guests.

The regular Sunday afternoon religious services were held in the assembly room at two o'clock and attracted a large audience, there being not less than two hundred and twenty-five persons present.

The Rev. F. C. Seitz, pastor of the German Reformed Church of Allenstown, and a member of Greenleaf Lodge No. 561, who was in attendance during the sessions of the General Synod of his church at Lancaster, kindly came to the Homes and conducted the services. He was accompanied by Prof. Thaddeus Helm, D. D. G. M., Dr. William J. Steward, W. M., of Lodge No. 43, P. M. Andrew H. Hershey, a member of the Committee on Masonic Homes, and a number of others from Lancaster. The sermon was able and eloquent and was much appreciated by all who heard it.

THE EYES

Little Talks on Health and Hygiene
by Samuel G. Dixon, Commissioner of Health

Sight is generally considered the most precious of the five senses, yet few people make an effort to take any special care of their eyes.

In order to keep the eyes healthy and clear it is necessary to keep them free from possible infection and to avoid straining them by over-work. It is an almost universal habit to wipe the eyes with a pocket handkerchief. As a rule this is not absolutely clean. As a result of its numerous uses it contains germs which, if introduced into the eye, are likely to result in a more or less serious infection. When suffering from a cold one should be particularly careful.

Rubbing the eyes with the unwashed hands or the use of a towel which others have used may also result in disease of the eyes. When the eyes feel hot and dry the outside of the lids should be bathed with cold water. Avoid the use of eye washes unless prescribed and administered under the direction of a physician.

To avoid straining the eyes when reading people of normal vision should hold the book fifteen or eighteen inches from the face and on a direct line with the eyes. Never hold a book low. The strain on the eyes is much greater when the book is held in the lap. Those who make a practice of reading when lying down should be careful to hold their book at the proper angle.

Always head by a good light, avoid a glare or any reflection from the printed page. If the light is poor you will hold the book too close to the eyes. Books printed in fine type should be avoided as they cause an unnecessary strain on the vision.

Defects of sight are often responsible for headaches and extreme nervousness. The people who wear glasses should have an occasional examination by an oculist to insure themselves against changes in the vision.

AFTER PASSING YEARS

Muont Joy Testimony Remains Unshaken

Time is the best test of truth. Here is a Mount Joy story that has stood the test of time. It is a story with a point which will come straight home to many of us.

Mrs. Henry Krall, Mt. Joy St., Mt. Joy, Pa., says: "I had always been very nervous and when my kidneys got disordered, my health ran down. My back ached constantly and I had headaches every day. I was often dizzy and had chills. I was unable to do any housework. I finally got Doan's Kidney Pills at Garber's Drug Store and soon after using them, I felt better than I had in a long time."

A Permanent Cure

On March 17, 1914, Mrs. Krall said: "I value Doan's Kidney Pills as highly as ever. The cure this remedy made for me has been permanent."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Krall had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

For Your Kidneys

The kidneys are for removing waste matters from the system. These waste matters are poisonous. When they are not promptly and completely expelled from the body they clog other organs, interfering with their work. Therefore, kidney trouble leads to other troubles—eye diseases, nervous affections, chronic headaches, rheumatism, Neuralgia. Neglecting your kidneys when there is anything the matter with them is a serious thing.
