Masonic Home News
If it were necessary, which of course it is not, to produce evidence to prove that the spirit of patriotism is not lost with advancing age, it was only necessary that the searcher after facts should have been present at the Masonic Homes on the Fourth of July, to have obtained such evidence in a convincing form.

The proceedings were opened by a fine address by Superintendent N. Franklin Heckler, which was a fitting salutatory to the occasion, then all present united in singing "America." An appropriate scripture lesson was then read by the chaplain, Wm. H. Shaffer. A beautiful vocal duet "Sweetheart I loved you and I love you still," and as an encore, "You're a grand old bell," were then sung by Mrs. De Vore and Miss Katherine Welch.

For several years past the campaign against the fly has been waged with unceasing vigor until the majority of us have come to realize how dangerous this disgusting little insect may be.

Abraham Lincoln said: "I do not know much about the tariff, but I do know this much; when we buy goods abroad we get the goods and the foreigner gets the money; when we buy goods made at home, we get both the goods and the money."

FAKE CURES AND FOOLISH PEOPLE
We are continually reading of the gullible individuals who invest their money in all manner of get rich quick schemes. These poor dupes are the laughing stock of sensible men and women, who wonder how they could be misled by the exaggerated promises of fake promoters.

Physicians of professional standing do not advertise. Any man who claims in print or elsewhere that he has an unfeeling cure for the ills of humanity should be regarded with the utmost suspicion. The traveling quacks advertising under their own names or as "medical institutes" should be strictly avoided.

IF YOU WOULD FOLLOW UP
fake cures, fake treatments and all allied cures they will find that their relief, if any be received, is based entirely upon the promised results, never to be realized and "the specialist" so called is generally compelled to move from city to city to earn a livelihood.
