Experience Of One Our County Friends At The Great Sum- mer Clear-Away Sale

AFTER purchasing some rugs and wall paper the other day, a woman asked to have a memorandum showing exactly what she had saved by coming in during this sale. She said the folks at home wanted her to wait later on account of harvesting, but she knew the bargains must be genuine or The Hager Store would not advertise them. So she came to the sale and hence wanted to know just what she had saved. Deducting her carfare, she had saved exactly $9.70 on the rug and wall paper purchase. Needless to say this woman was pleased with her shopping visit.

MARIETTA

Harvey Penwell, of this place, was given a hearing before Justice of the Peace, C. C. Hicks, at his office in Maytown, on Saturday afternoon on the charge of statutory rape, preferred by Geo. Kibler, of this place, whose fifteen-year-old daughter died several weeks ago in the Columbia Hospital. The attending physician, Dr. H. A. Mowery, and a number of other witnesses were heard, and the young man was taken to the county jail for trial at court. Constable Steigerwalt, of Lancaster, made the arrest last week.

A driving accident occurred Saturday evening shortly before dark in front of the residence of the late Joseph Sultzbach, in which three people were injured. Mrs. Chas. Johnson, of West Marietta, in company with Mrs. Howard Schock and son, Jack of the borough, stopped on the opposite side of Market street to talk to some friends. Without any warning their carriage was struck a terrific blow by three young men who drove very rapidly down the street, and their wheels locked. With the fast moving team dragging the Johnson carriage down the street, the Johnson horse with "good horse sense" turned completely around to the south onto the pavement, thus freeing the two teams. In turning he upset the carriage, throwing out the occupants. The wheels passed over the chest of Mrs. Schock and she was only slightly injured, and over the face of her son who was bruised. Mrs. Johnson was the most injured. She was picked up, and Dr. T. E. Ingram hastily summoned. She has a lump on her forehead, is injured about the hips and arms, and the attending physician could not tell to-day whether she is injured internally or not. The shafts of the Johnson carriage were broken, and the young men's team was not broken at all, as they never stopped to render any assistance.

The nail driving contest for men also brought forth a big field of contestants and ex-Councilman B. W. Brown was the victor.

There was also a big field in a similar contest for ladies which was won by Mrs. C. S. Longenecker.

The base ball throwing contest for boys under 6 years was won by Howard Myers.

The contests closed with a grand peanut scramble.

Immediately after the athletic events a game of ball was played between the Fats and Leans. The Skinny Guys were victorious by a score of 11 to 6. While the game lacked the spectacular stunts usually seen on the ball field, there was ample comedy and bone playing instead.

At twilight a feature of the day was the service which was conducted as a union service with all the denominations taking part. The people gathered in the tabernacle and there were songs sung and prayer by some of the clergymen present. Rev. Kitchin of the Episcopal Church made a short address.

The Citizens' Band of this place, accompanied the picnic and made things lively all day.

The picnics left Mt. Gretna at 7 P. M. and arrived home at 8:30.

The only accidents to slightly mar the day's outing was when Mr. Roy Sheaffer split the fore part of his thumb in the nail driving contest.

Mr. George Dice had a close call from being injured at Conewago. When the train stopped he got off and as the train pulled out again he grabbed hold of the guard rail and was dragged three car lengths. The renkamp, Herman Kauffman, William Walters, Harry Laskewitz and Christ Sherk.

Suits at Elizabethtown

Frank Kline, of Elizabethtown, given a hearing at Middletown before Squire T. C. Smith Tuesday evening on the charge of larceny, from the shanty of the Conewago stone quarries, preferred by Fred D. Bain, formerly of Middletown. The evidence in the case was not sufficient to hold the defendant and he was discharged. Kline was arrested Tuesday by Officer T. K. Stipe.

Immediately after the above hearing Bain was arrested at Squire Smith's office, on the charge of cruelty to animals. Bain was placed in the lockup Tuesday evening and was taken to Elizabethtown Wednesday by High Constable Plummer. Constable Plummer said there were several other charges pending against Bain and that as soon as the cruelty case was disposed of he would be arrested for larceny and after that for false pretense.
