of pink, blue or tan; 82 in.; splendid weight, warmth: great wool blankre white, with pink and borders; weight 5 lbs. mohair binding; size 70x-

00-Very special. High wool blankets, with borders of neat color nations-pink, blue, saniand gray; also lovely en plaids in pink, blue and also red wool blankets ack plaids; mohair bindsize 66x80 in.

5.00-All wool olive ets, with white and tan ers; for bed, auto or ing purposes, finished with air binding. A blanket of 7.00 Fine wool blankets, ly finished.

pure wool, white with itiful borders in pink and e: finished with silk bind-

S. High class wool kets; snowy white, with atctive borders in pink and g: size 70x80 in.

$10.00 Extra fine blank-100 per cent wool: in exe plaids of pink and ne or pink and white; bound silk; size 72x84 in.

ST WEEK OF OUR GREAT UE TAG SALE

e have been dropped to

IVE PONY CON-ST COUPONS HALL PUR-HASES

Mr. and Mrs. Henry and Mr. Geo. Shookers of Jersey o'clock from ers on East Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Thompson cemetery. of Coatesville are spending some time here with the latter's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Krall.

Edith and Elizabeth and Mrs. Dav-

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stoll of Pittsburg, are spending some time in town as guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Frank age and was well known throughout day night to resume his duties with from her late home and interment was the Commo yealth Quartette, of Bos. made in Mount Tunnel cemetery. ton He to Chicago where he joins the

The Daisy Pannebecker and Ruth Brown Three children survive her as follows: returned home Monday evening af. Mrs. Laura Balmer, widow of L. B. ter spending ten days at Mt. Balmer; Jacob A., of Elizabethtown Gretna.

Miss Cora Brackbill of Strasburg William H. Clepper, one of the and Mrs. Bowman of Norristown, most prominent and highly respectspent last Thursday in town with ed citizens of East Donegal township Miss Mary Kern. Miss Brackbill al- passed away at his home on Thurs-ter Gainor, Miss Esther Flowers and the home of Professor Jacobs in friend Charles Sload, Grace Gainor, Maytown. The subject of this sketch friend George Nauman enjoyed a trip was born near Maytown, on the

Stoll and daughter of Pittsburg, Mr. Christian Blottenberger of Landisville, Mrs. Amos Sheaffer and Mrs. Amos Winters of Florin, were the per attained his early education in guests of Mrs. Harriet Blessing last week

Mr. H. C. Brunner returned home on Thursday evening from a month's High school during the days of 1861vacation, which time he spent on a trip to Buffalo, Lake Chautauqua, Niagara Falls, Toronto, Thousand Isles, Montreal, Plattsburg, thru Lakes Champlain and George and returning via Albany, New York City and Philadelphia.

WHY MOUNT JOY MERCHANTS with the late John H. Schultz of SHOULD ADVERTISE IN THE BULLETIN

"Abe" Lincoln Said

know much about the tariff, but I do and four children, Misses Kathryn know this much; when we buy goods and Louisa and Paul and Nicholas. abroad we get the goods and the One brother, Albert Clepper, who reforeigner gets the money; when we sides under the same roof at the buy goods made at home, we get Homestead, also survives. Mr. Clepboth the goods and the money.

of Mount Joy business are advertisers was a staunch Democrat. He was a in the Bulletin.

Back to Harrisburg

Mr. George Crosby, who came here om Harrisburg last April and open. America. ed a green grocery in Squire Jno. the Professor A. T. Albert Memorial up stakes and moved few months ago. o Harrisburg this

Mt. Joy Bulletin.

her late home, with City are guests of the Misses Shook services at Zion Reformed church at 10:30 o'clock. Interment in Marietta

Mrs. Rachael Schaeffer

Mrs. Chas. Pfautz and daughters Jacob Schaeffer died on Saturday Mrs. Rachael Schaeffer, widow of id Bricker of Lititz, are visiting ter, Mrs. Laura Balmer, at Elizabethtown. Death was due to a complication of diseases, following a long illness. The deceased was 79 years of this section of the county. She Misses Ruth, Grace and was a member of the Church of God. and Ella of Pittsburg. The funeral was Mr. Charles Cassel left last Thurs. held on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock yealth Quartette, of Bos. made in Mount Tunnel cemetery.

William H. Clepper

so called on Mrs. W. D. Chandler. day from the effects of a stroke, Miss Myrtle Groff and friend Sylves which he sustained on Tuesday at to York County on Sunday where they Clepper homestead and was sixty-Mrs. Jno. Fenley of York, Mrs. Ed. the late Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Clepper and resided the greater part of his life on the homestead. Mr. Clepthe schools of this section and was one of the pupils of Professor A. T. Albert who taught the Maytown 1865. Mr. Clepper was a graduate of the school. He was the secretary good woman's influence." of the Old Home Week Celebration, held in Maytown several years ago. He was an earnest worker in St. John's Lutheran church and a member of the General 'Council Board many years. He learned the printing trade on the Lancaster Inquirer, Marietta and was an expert in this He worked in different parts of the country and his late position was in the south. This position he was compelled to abandon on ac-Abraham Lincoln said: "I do not count of his health. He has a wife per was secretary of the Union Those who get the "lion's share" Cemetery Association and politically member of Maytown Council, No. 79 Order United American Mechanics. Maytown and of Washington Camp No. 605, Patriotic Order Sons of He was also secretary of r's store room on West Main Association, which was organized a

Read the Bulletin

We print all the news fit to print, rive Saturday. Read the Bulletin

The visitor was an elderly, grayhaired woman, with a decided chin Mrs. Stefferson embraced her quite affectionately and asked her to take off her things.

No, thank you, my dear," said the elderly woman. "I've only a very few minutes to stay. No: no tea thank My, but it's pleasant in here! it looks a little different from-

'Bessie, that's what I called to see you about. I heard something today that shocked me more than I can tell you. I didn't believe it, and I won't believe it, until vou tell me it's true Bessie, dear, you're not going to get married again, are you?"

Mrs. Stefferson smiled, blushed and

The visitor gasped. "But not-not Mr. Crawley? Oh, Bessie, I hope you are not going to do anything so foolish

Mrs. Stefferson colored again, but this time with indignation. am the best judge of whether it is foolish or not," she said. "I don't consider that it will be foolish at all. I expect to be perfectly happy and if I'm happy I don't think it is anybody else's

"But you can't possibly know what you are doing," persisted the elderly woman. "Bessie, you know that I am a friend of yours and I wouldn't have you anything but happy. not think it's my business, but I feel is my duty to tell you that Mr "Oh, not at heart."

"At heart and all through. My dear his character? Neither could be worse. It's my plain duty to tell you that, and if you have the least doubt of it I can prove it to you.'

"I'm not going to listen to you," said Mrs. Stefferson. "You don't know him Mrs. Stefferson. "You don't know him as I do. Nobody does. I've heard all those tales about him, and I don't say that he has been perfect, but what he needs, and always has needed, is a

'Pah!" exclaimed the visitor. "Bessie, you must be a fool. Is it possible that after all the misery you experienced in your first marriage you can still delude yourself with that idea? Did your influence help Stefferson?"

Mrs. Stefferson sighed. "You forget, my dear, that he died," she said gen-"Do you know, I often think that if he had lived I might have made him see his faults and repent of them. Who knows but he might have become a thoroughly good man?

Real Pain.

The most ghastly superstition has often its base in a ludicrous fact. It is like the case of Jones. "Jones," said a man, "tells me that his wooden leg pained him horribly last night." "Nonserse!" was the reply. "How could his wooden leg pain him?" "His wife," explained the man, "hit him over the head with it!"

Held Another Outing

Scout Master Harry J. Williams had his Boy Scouts out for another hike Monday evening. On the farm of Mr. Monroe Sheaffer they indulged in a game of base ball, the Eagle Patrol opposing the Raven Patrol. The score was a tie 8 to 8. The new suits for the Scouts will ar-

at all the no

Calendars

TOW is the time to give the calendar question some consideration. Nearer the time to hand them to your patrons and friends you will be too busy so act now. When you pass our office drop in and look over our sam-We have a ples. very nifty line that will surprise you when you learn our prices.

Mount Joy. Pa.

nearly 100 farms on our out of which we can nic to suit you after we know want. Send for this list

The following is one of on our large list:

137 acres located on re Jonestown to Lickdale, Leba Very good frame house, 11 and bath. Bank barn 45x90 f crib, wagon shed, pig sty, 2 cl houses, large butcher house, and engine houses. Peach, and apple orchards and berry p Running water in nearly ev field. Pump and spring at hou Soil is sand lean and gravel. Abo 4 acres timber. Some very good pasture and. Price $43.00 per acre.

J. L. RUTTER

Real Estate and Insurance Farmers Trust Bldg., 829 Cumberland S Lebanon, Pa.

Valuable Real Esta

AT PUBLIC SALE

ON THURSDAY, SEPT. 10 The undersigned will offer at public sale, on the premises, along the State Road, leading from Manheim to Lititz, and one mile east of the former place, in Penn township, the following described to wit: -A TRACT OF LAND Containing 105 Acres & 100 Perches adjoining lands of Amos Shenk, Amos H. Hershey, Jacob Fahnesstock, Emanuel P. Hostetter. Improvements thereon erected are a Two-Story Lime Stone DWELLING HOUSE, 10 rooms, in good condi-tion, with attachment, a large Bank Barn, Corn House and Grinding House, Tobacco Shed, 60x-36 feet, all in a good state of repairs, together with other necessary outbuildings, a never failing water supply, etc.

The soil is lime stone and is in an excellent state of cultivation. This farm is located in one of the most fertile valleys of Lancaster County, and could easily be divided so as to make two smaller farms.

Persons wishing to view the property before the day of sale will be shown same by calling on the prem-

Sale to commence at 2 o'clock p. m. of said day, when the conditions will be made known by NATHAN HOSTETTER

H. H. Snavely, Auct. A. G. Hamaker, Clerk.

WHY MOUNT JOY MERCHANTS SHOULD ADVERTISE IN THE BULLETIN

"Anti-Lean" For Business We borrow the following from the Cosmopolitan.

"Where are you taking the pigs?" "Out to pasture 'em."

"What for?"

"To fatten 'em.'

But it is pretty slow work to fatten hogs on grass; where I came from we pen them up and fatten them on corn. It saves a lot of time.

Yas, Is'pose so; but, hell, what's time to a hawg?

A great many business men are endeavoring to fatten their business in antiquated as is the on grass.

ng extremely fan