SLIPPED THE BRIDLE

Horse Has Three Shoes Torn Off in a Runaway

A team owned by E. S. Earhart, of near town, figured in an exciting runaway Thursday morning about 9:45 o'clock. The horse, hitched to a light runabout containing produce, etc., was tied to a pole in Market street, Columbia, by Mrs. Earhart, who, with her daughter, went to do some shopping. In some manner the bit snapped and broke in two, and as the horse was not tied by the customary hitching strap, the bridle was easily slipped and the animal free.

It is thought that flies were the cause of the runaway as nothing was near to scare the horse. Mrs. Earhart stated that he is always uneasy when troubled by flies and she threw a blanket on as a precaution. The horse turned and ran up to Alley 1 to Fifth street, over Fifth to Locust and up Locust to Sixth, where it was caught by Horace Stehman, of Washington Boro.

Dr. H. V. Pearce returned the horse to Mrs. Earhart and daughter, who were much surprised to see nothing but the bridle hanging to the pole where they had tied their horse about a half hour before. After having the harness repaired and the horse shod they returned to their home.

On Sunday while the family of Mr. Christian Hershey west of town were visiting friends at Carlisle their hired man who gave his name as Harry Night of Reading, ransacked the house and left for parts unknown to with him a neat sum of money.

Excitement Galore

Constable Kramer and Three Young Men Have a Great Time

Late Sunday afternoon Mr. Fred Gestewitz reported to Constable Kramer that several young men were using profane language quite fluently, near his home on the Manheim road. Mr. Kramer made an investigation and found Messrs. John Zeager, Paul Hinkle and "Chick" Koch. He placed the first two under arrest, put the "brackets" on them and lodged them in Hotel de Cages. He then proceeded to catch young Koch, who gave Joe the chase of his career, over the streets, alleys, back yards, etc. and finally gave him the slip in a corn field near town.

It was found that one of the boys was under the influence of liquor which the young men said they found. A little later in the evening the parents of the boys appeared and requested the Constable to open the lockup. As he had no warrants for their arrest and as they were arrested outside the borough limits, Mr. Kramer obeyed orders and the young men were taken to their respective homes.

The County Fair

This Kind of Weather Should Bring out a Record Breaking Attendance

The Lancaster County Fair is on this week at Lancaster and this fair weather should bring out the crowds. Yesterday was children's day and the attendance was good but not as many attended as on the same day last year. The fair in general is only fair. There is an unusually good string of horses and some rattling races can be looked for as was the case yesterday. This department is better than ever.

There is a wonderful display of an exceptionally fine lot of cattle, hogs and sheep. The machinery exhibit exceeds that of many fairs. The agricultural exhibit is enormous. The fancy work is very, very good but here's where the fair stops. The mid-way amounts to very little. There are only a few of the attractions that are really worth seeing and worth the price of admission. The balance are genuine "lemons" and many should not be allowed to exhibit.

The poultry exhibit is not near what it should be, but just why we are unable to say. The first year the fair opened there were 350 entries in the poultry department. The second year there were 1,500 entries. The third year there were 2,500 birds entered and fully that many were turned away for lack of room. Last year the entries dropped to 700 birds and this year there are only 991 entries. Why should such conditions exist in one of the greatest poultry sections in the United States? Why should this department, which interests every man, woman and child in the county be on the decline?

Exhibitors In a large tent on the south side of the avenue, H. S. Newcomer has a large display of farming implements, wagons, auto trucks, drills, engines, feed grinders, washers, manure spreaders and wash machines. The Landisville coach works, I. N. Koser of Goodville, and the Martin Co. of York each have large and very fine displays of carriages, buggies, covered wagons and other vehicles of many kinds. Edwin G. Myers of Salunga, is exhibiting his well drilled in operation, showing how deep wells are dug by the machine. Landis Bros. of Rheems, have in operation automatic milking machines and will show gasoline engines, machinery and farming implements.

Entertained the Champs Last evening Mr. and Mrs. John Pennell entertained the members of the Church of God base ball team, champions of the Mt. Joy Church League. A very pleasant time was spent and all greatly enjoyed the evening. The event was concluded with a banquet which included chicken corn soup, ice cream, cake, fruit, etc. Those present were: Mr. William Conrad, Mr. and Mrs. John Pennell, Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Pennell, Messrs. Roy Good, John Easton, Arthur Myers, Allan Bultz, Walter Jay and Roy Pennell, Mrs. W. W. Casel, Miss Minnie Mummert and Miss Laura Pennell.

Appointed Medical Inspector Dr. Jno. J. Newpher of this place, has just been appointed medical inspector of the public schools of Mt. Joy and East Donegal townships by State Health Commissioner Samuel C. Dixon. Dr. Newpher had this appointment for Mt. Joy township three years ago, which was the last time that the schools were inspected but this is his first inspection in East Donegal. He is to complete the work within the next six weeks. The work does not only include inspection of the school children but the surroundings as well such as, outbuildings, general conditions in reference to light and floor space, etc. He must report to the department daily.

Real Estate Sales J. Harry Miller offered at public sale on Thursday a dwelling house and lot in this borough which was withdrawn at $2,250. J. E. Baker & Co., of Marietta, purchased 99 acres of land back of their quarries, about a mile from Marietta, for $99.50 an acre. The property was sold by Fred and Emma Fletcher.

Dance a Success The first dance of the season, a shirtwaist affair, was held in Mt. Joy Hall last evening and proved a grand success. It was given by Miss Viola J. Baker who contemplates holding weekly dances, beginning in the very future.

Kieffer & Co's Sale On Saturday, Oct. 10, Messrs. D. B. Kieffer & Co. will sell a large lot of good big Western horses and colts at public sale at the Farmers' Inn stock yards in this place. For full particulars see ad in another column.

Will Resume Piano Instruction Miss Welsh has returned from her vacation in Maine and Boston, Mass., and will resume her piano instruction. She will be in Mt. Joy Tuesdays and Saturdays during the coming winter.

Give Them the Barlow This morning our paper says the attendance at the county fair yesterday was 10,000 and another says 20,000. Quite a difference, eh?

Next Sale, Oct. 9 Messrs. J. B. Keller & Bro. will hold their next big stock sale at their stock yards here on Friday, Oct. 9 when they will offer another lot of specially fine stock. Watch for their posters.

Execution Issued Solomon Rosenthal has issued an execution for $853.41 against J. S. Barnhart living near Maytown.
