Getz Bros. Thanksgiv Proclamation

Hear ye! Hear ye! Good dressers of Mount OME folks have always looked forward to Th giving Day with silent dread. To them it has r sort of an Imperial Edict to eat more than is good them--a Command of Custom that could not be evad If they kept a diary on Thanksgiving season, it w read like this:-

> Thursday:---Engaged in finished bout with the Terrible Turk---had to carve him up pretty badly to subdue him--finally, after a tough tussle, downed him---literally and completely.

> Friday:---Bellyache. Saturday:---More of the same. Following Week:--- A sorrowful and reproachful digestion.

BUT this year, no man who lives in America need ask what a thanksgiving means No man need say, "What have I to be thankful for?

Why, man dear, we're Americans, aren't we? And to be an American in 1914 is to enjoy one of the grandest privileges this world affords.

To be an American means to live in the one land where Peace isKi ng and Civilization still burns bright.

Thanks indeed! Why, every heart and soul in the nation this year should sing with gratitude just because it is an American heart and soul.

If November 26th isn't the greatest Thanksgiving Day in the history of this country--then we're a dull and cold-blooded nation!

BUT how are you going to show your thanks for your American birthright on this Thanksgiving Day? Sit around in a Morris chair---with slippers and dressing gown---and shun your fellow-patriots? Not if you want to express your Americanism

It's up to you on Thanksgiving Day to look the part of the free, peace-blessed citizen you are---and do a little circulating so others can catch your Thanksgiving enthusiasm.

It's up to you to show your American self-respect by dressing up in a nifty Fall Suit---and get out and advertise your American cheer and optimism.

Now, don't say, "Oh Getz is only trying to sell me a Suit or Overcoat." Of course we'd like to make that Thanksgiving suit for you. But that's not the only point we're trying to make. I say it's up to every live Mount Joy an to respond to President Wilson's prosperity proclamation by looking and dressing prosperity or Thanksgiving Day.

Show your thanks by looking your best. Get a new suit, if not from us, then from somebody else. But get one--that's the point. Get one!
