MORE STRENGTH FOR OLD PEOPLE

Mrs. Hutchison—Eighty-One Years Old—Uses No Other Tonic but Vinol and Recommends It to Friends.

Greenville, S. C.—"It is with pleasure I tell others of the great benefit I have derived from Vinol, for the past several years. I am 81 years old and I find Vinol gives me strength, a healthy appetite and overcomes nervous disorders. Vinol is the only tonic reconstructor I have used for several years. I have recommended it to a great many of my friends and it has always proved satisfactory."—Mrs. M. A. HUTCHISON, Greenville, S. C.

Such cases as the above are constantly coming to our attention. If people in this vicinity only realized how Vinol is able to supply the demand.

It is the tissue building, curative elements of the cod's livers, aided by the blood making strengthening properties of tonic iron contained in Vinol, that makes it so successful in building up strength for old people, delicate children and for all run-down conditions. Vinol is also a most successful remedy for chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis. If it fails to benefit any one who tries it we return your money.

Ernest G. Maulick

Ernest G. Maulick, of Marietta, died on Wednesday evening at the General Hospital from a complication of diseases. He had been in failing health for a long time, and only two weeks ago was taken to the hospital. He was born in Marietta, August 28, 1858, being a son of the late Frederick and Margaret Maulick. In early manhood he engaged in the brewery business with his father, and for some years conducted the business alone. In recent years he was proprietor of the Riverside Hotel, Marietta. He was twice married, his first wife having been Miss Anna Shilow. His second wife, also dead, was Miss Emma Bastian, by whom two children survive, Helen and Ernest C. A brother, Frederick also survives, as do two sisters, Mrs. Joseph Killian and Mrs. John Houseal all of Marietta. Mr. Maulick belonged to Opepsah Tribe of Red Men; Donegal Lodge, Knights of Pythias; Marietta Commandery, Knights of the Golden Eagle, all of Marietta, and the Columbia Aerie, Order of Eagles. His body was taken to Marietta for interment.

MILD MAN HAD HIS LIMIT

Election Feuds Exhausted It, Then Tormentors Went Spinning

J. B. Hipple, editor of the Press, a Kansas City, Kan. publication, is a mild man and loves peace, but there is a limit. Last Thursday W. W. Gordon, chief of police, took a poke at Hipple and was permitted to get away with it because the editor did not feel that the limit had been reached. But Saturday morning when Thomas Worthington, Wyandotte county auditor, followed him down the Court house steps nagging at him, and finally took a swing at his head, Hipple carefully removed his spectacles, put them in his pocket, calculated the trajectory to Worthington's jaw, and knocked him down the steps in a doorway, breaking the auditor's right arm.

An hour later, Hipple, still feeling that the limit had been reached, encountered J. L. Schabel, a candidate for county commissioner at the recent election. Hipple again swung his right and spun Schabel around until he was nearly overcome by dizziness. He was taken out into the air by a kind police man and conducted to police headquarters. The scraps were all due to ill-feeling over the election.—Lancaster Intelligencer.

The J. B. Hipple referred to in the above article was brought up in Mount Joy, and his father was one of the original tobacco farmers here. J. B. as a boy worked in the fields cultivating that plant, and doubtless that experience helped develop the muscle that stood him in such good stead several days ago, in the first scuffling of his life. Of course he has fighting blood in his veins. An uncle and four cousins of his were in the Civil War at one time, and on his mother's side he is descended from the Scotch-Irish Clementsons, so that while the scuffling qualities in J. B. have lain dormant all his life, the old adage, that blood will tell, is proven once again. Of course, Brother Hipple has been a fighter most of his life, but his efforts have been directed to the betterment of the city in which he lives. Driving out criminals, preventing graft, etc., which have made him enemies, and finally led to the above episodes.

WHY MOUNT JOY MERCHANTS SHOULD ADVERTISE IN THE BULLETIN

Preaching vs. Practice

If one of your competitors were to "spring" an innovation in the way of a sale, a new matter of displaying merchandise—anything at all—You would do the same thing just as soon as you could, if you considered it of value to your business. Why copy them in the small things and not in the big things? The greatest business men are the warmest advocates of advertising. The fact that they practice what they preach is the factor which made them the greatest business men.

Money spent in the Bulletin will be of far more benefit to you than a thousand times the same amount in the bank.

Marietta Men Home From Canada Dr. George R. Reich and Frank Shields of Marietta, who have been engaged in farming at Alberta, Canada, for the past six months, have returned for the winter. The men report that the year 1913 was a failure, practically, as they lost heavily by a forest fire, and that the 1914 season was so dry that the crops were very poor.

WHY MOUNT JOY MERCHANTS SHOULD ADVERTISE IN THE BULLETIN

If you were looking for an investment—

John D. Rockefeller gave you his personal assurance that a certain security was absolutely safe, would pay big dividends, was in short, the best investment he knew of—

Would you follow his advice?

We will take for granted that you would.

Is it not for the reason that he has made a very large fortune through paying investments and is in position to know?

John Wanamaker has advised you to advertise.

Marshall Field has advised you to advertise.

These two gentlemen built up the largest retail establishments in the world. Each of them made a fortune. Each, attributes his success, very largely, to advertising?

Why not take their advice and use the Bulletin evening.

Let's See, What Was His Name?

In 1908 we experienced a very lively contest for the Presidency and Vice Presidency.

No great discovery or catastrophe received more space in the public print than did the utterances, the goings and the comings of the four candidates representing the two great parties.

It would seem impossible for any one to forget the names of these men.

Can you name the candidate for the Vice Presidency on the ticket with Mr. Bryan?

Oblivion is the price of silence.

Mr. Bryan's name has been kept before the public. His running mate is forgotten.

Don't let the public forget you. Use the Bulletin.

Mr. Patrick Duffy, proprietor of the Florin Hotel, is now ready to serve the public with extra fine oysters in any style and quantity. A trial order is all he asks.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bensen and son of Lancaster were Sunday visitors of Mrs. Katie Gingrich.

Mr. George Shorday, a wholesale liquor dealer of Philadelphia, was a pleasant caller at the Florin Hotel on Monday.

Mr. Harry H. Cheney, proprietor of Chaney Garage, and Mr. John Stultz, a well known butcher of Marietta, made a business trip to town yesterday. Mr. Cheney just recently purchased the old school house building in Marietta and has converted same into an up-to-date garage and is now ready to repair any make of car. Also auto tires and supplies for sale.

RHEEMS

Mr. and Mrs. David Espenshade announce the birth of a bouncing baby boy.

Rumors are that a prominent potato farmer contemplates planting 15 or more acres of potatoes for 1915.

The ground of the Rheems school bell was appreciated by the majority of the pupils, who had a week vacation.

John Foreman, whole sale dealer in produce, received a car load of apples which he contemplates offering the public.

Landis Groff has housed 2,500 bu. of ear corn from his 95 acre farm adjoining this place. He had 25 acres in corn averaging 100 bu. per acre.

B. H. Greider has opened up shipping pultury from his large assortment of thoroughbred stock with prospects of a demand to exceed 5000 years.

A. S. Bard and family entertained their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Buro and daughter Amanda and son Robert, and Mr. and Mrs. Jos. W. Krabbill last Sunday.

A. B. Helsey has a force of laborers and mechanics employed at the W. L. Helsey quarries getting the machinery and surroundings in readiness to ship furnace stone and burn lime.

The steady fall of rain during Sunday has again replenished the streams, filled the cisterns and put Mother Earth into condition for frigid weather, which is close at hand.

Friends and relatives of Mrs. H. Newgard who had an operation performed at the Lancaster hospital, recently has returned to her home, improved to such an extent that she is able to work.

Church of the Brethren held their regular services last Sunday evening at this place with Rev. S. S. Shearer officiating owing to the inclement weather the attendance was not as large as usual.

C. Moyer of Mount Joy had his force of mechanics erect a steam heating plant in the double house of B. H. Greider last week which is occupied by P. C. Sload, who offers a first class double heater for sale.

John Kesselring has accepted a position in the Peter Brubaker garage, Mount Joy. He contemplates fitting in the near future. Mr. Kesselring is a skilled mechanic and the right man to have on hand during automobile trouble.

The recent stormy weather was rather rough to the corn fodder shocks. Throughout some fields not a single shock remained standing. Some farmers are setting them up, while others are awaiting damp weather to haul the fodder and avoid the extra work.

The recent advance of a few cents per bushel on good wheat caused a rush at the Rheems ware house quite a number exchanged wheat for coal. Judging from the goose home coal will be appreciated more than wheat when the cold wind goes whistling by their doors.
