

MEN - HERE IS A RARE CLOTHING OPPORTUNITY

One of New York's Greatest & Best Known Manufacturers
Morris Levy & Company, Broadway & Grand St., New York

ARE GOING OUT OF BUSINESS

We Bought a Big Portion of the Finest of Their Stock
At A Fraction of It's Real Value

THAT fine old New York firm, Morris Levy & Company whose great factory at Broadway and Grand Street was one of the land marks of the wholesale Clothing trade for many years and whose thousands of overcoats and suits have been made every week under the most approved and sanitary conditions for the foremost Men's Stores throughout the United States, is going out of business. The head of the firm, Mr. Morris Levy, one of the really big men in New York's Clothing Circles and a practical tailor himself, for personal reasons has decided to retire from business to enjoy a well earned rest from a busy life spent in the manufacture of reliable Men's Clothing in which he earned a well deserved reputation.

WE have been large customers of Levy & Company for many years and today some of the smartest dressed men in Lancaster are wearing some of Levy's Clothing--purchased through this store at its regular price. We got the opportunity of buying this splendid stock at an enormous sacrifice as the firm were anxious to dispose of it as quickly as possible in order to turn it in to cash. Men do you realize that this is an extraordinary rare opportunity of buying a new winter suit or overcoat at a lower price than you were ever able to get it for before. The winter has scarcely started and here you are offered the cream of America's ready-to-wear winter clothing at less than other years you could buy it for March.
