WHY MOUNT JOY MERCHANTS SHOULD ADVERTISE IN THE BULLETIN
 If you were looking for an investment and—
 John D. Rockefeller gave you his personal assurance that a certain security was absolutely safe, would pay big dividends, was in short, the best investment he knew of—
 Would you follow his advice?
 We will take for granted that you would.
 Is it not for the reason that he has made a very large fortune through paying investments and is in position to know?
 John Wanamaker has advised you to advertise.
 Marshall Field has advised you to advertise.
 These two gentlemen built up the largest retail establishments in the world. Each of them made a fortune. Each, attributes his success, very largely, to advertising?
 Why not take their advice and use the Bulletin evening.

WHY MOUNT JOY MERCHANTS SHOULD ADVERTISE IN THE BULLETIN

Let's See, What Was His Name?
 In 1908 we experienced a very lively contest for the Presidency and Vice Presidency.
 No great discovery or catastrophe received more space in the public print than did the utterances, the goings and the comings of the four candidates representing the two great parties.
 It would seem impossible for any one to forget the names of these men.
 Can you name the candidate for the Vice Presidency on the ticket with Mr. Bryan?
 Oblivion is the price of silence. Mr. Bryan's name has been kept before the public. His running mate is forgotten.
 Don't let the public forget you. Use the Bulletin.
