WHY MOUNT JOY MERCHANTS SHOULD ADVERTISE IN THE BULLETIN

Preaching vs. Practice

If one of your competitors were to "spring" an innovation in the way of a sale, a new matter of displaying merchandise—anything at all—

You would do the same thing just as soon as you could, if you considered it of value to your business. Why copy them in the small things and not in the big things?

The greatest business men are the warmest advocates of advertising. The fact that they practice what they preach is the factor which made them the greatest business men.

Money spent in the Bulletin will be of far more benefit to you than a thousand times the same amount in the bank.

Percy Gets Good Job

We are pleased to announce that our townsman Mr. L. Percy Heilig has just been elected superintendent of the poultry department of the Masonic Home at Elizabethtown.

When a man is young he goes to the country to catch butterflies, but when he gets older he goes to the city for the same purpose.

Agriculture in Western Europe will be slightly impeded for a few years by the trenches of various kinds left by the combatants.

What have the iconoclasts got to say about the way the Russians follow their icons into battle?

Mrs. L. P. Heilig is quite ill at this writing.

We Simply Ask the Men to Stay Sober

OUR factory rules demand "sobriety," not "abstinence." What our employes do after knocking off work is up to them. We don't tell them they can't go into a well-run saloon under penalty of being discharged. If we did, they'd be justified in leaving us.

Our best men are those who drink their healthful, stimulating beer. They are the ones that punch the time clock promptly in the morning and do the most work during the day. They are good boys and know that drinking beer moderately means True Temperance. If we told them they couldn't drink after work we'd drive them to secret indulgence and deprive them of useful, harmless pleasure. Result—materially diminished mental and physical buoyancy and low efficiency during working hours.

Our men pursue their own lives and gratify their own tastes without molestation. Most of the officials of this factory drink beer moderately because it is beneficial and refreshing. They wouldn't ask the boys to give up what they themselves wouldn't think of quitting.

"Wondertown" Is a Circus for the Children with toys and joys a plenty to please the grown folks as well as the girls and boys

SANTA SAYS

THAT the toy stocks were never better and are quite surprised at the wonderful assortments. In fact we are very much pleased that, in spite of the war, we have been able to provide full stocks of toys at no advance in price.

It's just as Santa says, you have to be there to appreciate them all. And then you don't want to be in too much of a hurry for there are aisles and aisles, stacks and stacks, tables and tables, and shelves and shelves of "toys and joys" for the girls and boys.

There are dolls of every kind from the Klever Kewpies to the interesting and instructive character dolls. The stuffed animals look as though they were ready for the ark, and the mechanical toys are just waiting to "show off," while the boys are just waiting for companions and a jolly good time.

Enter the Meccano $1000 Prize Competition

To develop the children's inventive genius, the Meccano Company have arranged to give away $1000 in prizes, ranging from a $2. Meccano outfit to $250 in cash for the first prize, most ingenious and clever original Meccano models. Come to the toy department for ENTRY FORM for the $1000 competition.

SANTA IS BUSY IN HIS workshop down in Wondertown every morning from 9 to 11:30 and in the afternoon from 2 to 3:30. He's always glad to see his friends, big and little.

The Voting Contest

To determine the winner of the Santa Claus Drawing, drawings will continue until Saturday. Every visitor to the store (more is entitled to the drawings will appreciate the drawings are on the fourth floor (annex) arranged alphabetically, grouped separately, so it will be easy to find the drawing of any little friend yours.

Will It Be A Victrola or a Grafonola in Your Home this Christmas?

SOME prefer the Victor-Victrola—others the Columbia Grafonola. Which do you prefer? The only possible way for you to determine is to examine the two lines side by side where you can compare the tone, the improved adjustments, and the beauty of the cases.

There is one place in Lancaster where you can compare the two lines—and ONLY ONE—and that is at The Hager Piano Store. If you buy a Victrola, and within a reasonable time, decide that you prefer a Columbia Grafonola, you may have the privilege of exchange, and the same privilege holds good if you select a Grafonola and later prefer a Victrola.

Take Advantage of the Hager Easy Payment Plan

As little as one dollar will place an outfit in your home with payments as low as 50c a week, which is an exceedingly convenient arrangement for paying for a Christmas gift. Victrolas from $15 up and Grafonolas from $17.50 up.

Three Popular Outfits

FOR $3 DOWN & 50c A WEEK—"Meteor" Grafonola at $17.50; golden oak cabinet at $9; 6 double-face records at $3.90—total cost $30.40.

FOR $4 DOWN & 75c A WEEK—Victrola VI at $25; golden oak cabinet at $10; 6 double-face records at $4.50—total cost $39.50.

FOR $5 DOWN & $1.25 A WEEK—Victrola IX at $50; in mahogany; handsome mahogany Princess cabinet at $15; 12 double-face records at $9—total cost $74. With the cabinet, the Victrola and records may be had at $5 down and $1.25 a week.

Large Stocks of Records

Only the other day a customer exclaimed, "Why, I never knew you had such an enormous stock of records." There are a great many who do know it—and of course there still are a good many who have yet to find it out, just like you. It is good news.

However, the sooner you do find it out, the greater genuine satisfaction you will enjoy from your Victrola or Grafonola for it is very annoying to be able to get your favorite record, but not to be able to get your favorite record, at the latest hits, at a moment's notice.

We strive to keep our record stocks right up to date, with everything that can be desired from the old and new songs to the latest production, which always here the very best. In the U. S.

MARIETTA

The Marietta Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Columbia Hospital will meet on Friday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. M. E. McCloskey. Business of importance will be transacted.

A foreigner, employed at the J. E. Baker Company quarries at Chickies, had a narrow escape from being killed on Saturday afternoon. While operating a drill, a huge stone fell and struck him on the right hand, narrowly missing his head. The hand was badly lacerated and contused. He was taken to his boarding house, where a physician dressed the injury.

A special service was held in the Zion Reformed Church on Sunday morning, when the elders and deacons were installed by the pastor, Rev. E. Elmer Senseing. The deacons were Samuel McKain and Chas. McKain, and the elders Winfield Simmons and Edward H. Kaufman. The choir rendered special music.

At the regular meeting of Chiques Council, No. 1825, Royal Arcanum, the following officers were nominated for the new term: Past regent, Barr Spangler; regent, Chester W. Rudisill; vice regent, David E. Brandt; orator, Ethelbert Muller and Frank McMullen; chaplain, J. H. Miller; warden, Leroy E. Brandt; guide, Edgar R. Vile; sentinels, Jno. Stoner; secretary, J. Nissley Brandt and W. Wilder Wikel; collector, B. G. Hipple; trustees, Thomas McCombs, Frank McMullen and Ethelbert Muller; treasurer, Jno. P. Mueller; house committee, J. Chester Garber, Barr Spangler and Chester W. Rudisill. Immediately following the business, a luncheon and social hour was indulged in.

LEINBACH & CO. HAVE TYPICAL HOLIDAY STORE

The Big Daylight Establishment in Gaiter Attire

Few stores, perhaps, in the history of local merchandising have ever attempted anything in the way of a Christmas show to be compared with that of Leinbach & Company this season. The big "Daylight Store" is a veritable Christmas Fairyland, and one finds a visit to the store exceedingly interesting and enjoyable. From the time you enter until you leave one is surrounded by a Christmas atmosphere that is most delightful.

To tell of the mammoth stocks, in every section from the fourth floor to basement, would be a very long story, indeed; suffice to say that this "live wire" firm is splendidly equipped to again serve a tremendous patronage with merchandise of excellent character and particularly of the better grades for gift giving. The one feature which is particularly impressive to all visitors is the decoration of the store. As you enter, your attention is attracted by the extreme beauty, the brightness and cheerfulness of the picture. Throughout the entire store the Christmas decorations are shown in wonderful extensiveness. There are thousands of poinsettias great clusters of laurel, branches of holly, exquisite set pieces, hundreds and hundreds of colored electric lights, bells, pine trees, pergolas and Kris Kringle trees. The rotunda is positively magnificent, unquestionably the finest decorative scheme ever seen in a local store. It contains twenty-four large fine cedar trees, bowers of southern willow smilax with small, red electric lights intermingling—poinsettias and laurel garlands. In the extreme upper section is a red Christmas bell with a glistening interior and with an immense white light for a hammer. It is impossible to tell in detail of the rare beauty of this store's Christmas display—it is worthy of a special trip to see it, and everybody who possibly can should visit the Leinbach store.

"The City of Dolls and The Land of Christmas Dreams" for little folks on the fourth floor, are attracting large crowds. "The City of Dolls" occupies a large section, which is devoted entirely to a mammoth doll display. Here every child can find represented, the people of nearly every nation in dolly form, in many sizes; some in comic dress others in handsome gowns; it is a wonderful show. The "Lord of Christmas Dreams" is a fairyland scene, originated and designed by the store's own force of decorators. It is a Christmas Eve setting, showing the far-away snow covered mountains and the sun going down in the distance. The foreground pictures, the little village, the running brook, the waterfall, bridges, Santa Claus gave, the Fairy Camp and other interesting features to delight the little folks.

Congratulations, H. N.

Mr. H. N. Nissly, cashier of the Union National Bank here is forty-two years old today. He celebrated the event by entertaining a large number of his friends at dinner at his home on North Barbara street.
