MAYTOWN
The Lyceum Festival Was an Agreeable Surprise to All
Mrs. Frank Nissley and daughter, Alta of Lancaster, spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Risser.
Mrs. John Buggy of Williamstown, and Miss Rhea Updegrave of Tower City, visited Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Arntz.
Miss Marguerite Newton of Philadelphia, spent a few days with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Jacobs.
Mrs. Mary Bostic, of Lancaster, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Cleve Shoad, who has been confined to the house the past week with a severe cold in her system.
Rev. Joseph D. Krout, pastor of St. John's Lutheran church has been confined to the house this week with nervous attack. He is improving rapidly and expects to be able to conduct his regular services on Sunday.
While the chataqua idea was a new one for Maytown yet it is almost certain that next year will be a continuance of it. In the audience, on the last night of the festival, 115 people placed their orders for season tickets for next year's festival. At the present writing 29 of the leading citizens of Maytown and community have signed the 1915 contract as guarantors.
The Lyceum Festival which was given in Maytown under the auspices of the Pennsylvania Chataqua Association was an agreeable surprise to all. Its program surpassed even the fondest hopes of the local committee. Dr. I. A. Downey who acted as platform superintendent won his audience from the very start and his lectures on "Child Development" were not only instructive and beneficial but at the same time very interesting. The Festival Trio gave the people of Maytown a musical treat the like of which it never had before. The singing of Miss Ethel Bentley was delightful. Yarrick the Magician kept his audience spellbound with his wonder work and drew from certain ones in the crowd snakes and other useless things which they had concealed on their persons. The Vinyl Rod Orchestra furnished two excellent concerts and demonstrated to the satisfaction of all their Italian skills as musicians; Signor Luigi Vinci the youthful director of the orchestra won for himself great applause. Plumstead the Impersonator, who was known to Maytown people through his previous visit, showed that he still was able to give a very delightful entertainment. A fitting climax to the musical treat of the festival were the concerts given by the Stroller's Quartet, their singing selections and instrumental music on the Swiss Bells and Trumbone bang of the highest order. Edward Parmer showed himself a clever entertainer as one of the best on the program. The address by Dr. A. E. Turner on the subject, "Rebuilding Your Town," was very suggestive and it is to be hoped helpful. While Dr. Turner was not acquainted with local conditions yet his suggestions applied in a general way to those of our own town.

SALUNGA
The European war seems to stimulate tobacco trade in the county.
Mr. Amos Doerfler spent Saturday morning with his sister, Mrs. F. S. Strickler.
Mrs. Jacob Weiss is slowly recovering in her home from a lingering disease.
Mrs. McKey formerly of Mt. Joy, and Salunga was a Sunday visitor in the home of Dr. J. S. Kendig.
Mrs. Albert Keller and children, Christian and Cathryn spent Saturday with her parents at Lancaster.
Notwithstanding the aching fever embargo in our district butcher Ira Her still keeps up the supply of wholesome beef.
Miss Martha Eby was one of forty to be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Badorf at their home at Ephrata, on Saturday evening. Every body had a royal good time.
The fourth quarterly conference of the Salunga and Broad street churches will be held in Broad street M. E. Church by Supt. Griffith Monday night commencing at 7:30 o'clock.
Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Ranck of Lancaster, celebrated their Golden Wedding a week ago Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. John Breneman were amongst the number to offer their congratulations.
According to Mount Joy correspondent Salunga has had a western extension by taking in Bacon. Oh well as this is our butchering season a hunk of bacon will be appreciated by our worthy residents.

A New Band Hall
The Citizens' Band of this place, recently rented the large one story frame building on the west side of the Greider Estate brick building on Marietta street, which the members are fitting up in first-class style. This is a spacious room with a splendid location and the band should surely prosper in its new home.
New additions to the British Navy will be the Canada, the Botha and the Tipperary. These names have a somewhat less boastful one than the Dreadnaught, Gollia, Superb, Colossus and Thunderer.

MARIETTA
Frank Hipple Congratulated by His Many Friends on Thursday
Charles Sultzbach is seriously ill with an attack of pleuro-pneumonia. Miss Bessie Hunter of Philadelphia, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Henry Johnson.
Rev. H. Appleton, rector of St. Paul's Church at Harrisburg, is the guest of Rev. and Mrs. H. B. Pulsifer.

The property of Elwood A. Child, on Second street, recently vacated by the death of William H. Tredwell, has been renovated.
The First National Bank paid out in the Christmas savings fund over eight thousand dollars to the people of this community on Thursday. The fund for 1915 is open, and many have joined.
The decorating committee are arranging for a grand demonstration on New Year's eve and a tree, to be known as a community Christmas tree, will be erected on the square. It is expected that a band of music will enliven the occasion. Contributions will be gladly received and they can be handed to any member of the decorating committee.
Frank Hipple, residing on Chestnut street, was 89 years old Thursday and was busy receiving congratulations. Mr. Hipple is a most remarkable man for his age. He works about his premises as a man thirty years younger. He recently returned from a visit to his son, Cyrus Hipple at Phoenixville, where he visits every year, and helped him to harvest his crops. Mr. Hipple is a retired carpenter and for many years was employed at the planing mills of A. N. Cassel & Son, of this place. With Michael Libhart he helped to build many large homes and the Episcopal and Catholic Churches in Marietta. The oldest man in town is Barr Spangler, aged 91 years, and he, too, daily attends to his business, being the senior member of the firm of B. and C. S. Spangler.

MASTERTONVILLE
"Here we are and early enough too," says the Northwind as he hurries the snow around the corners. "I tried to arrive on Thanksgiving but was delayed and am several weeks late."
Rev. Allen Brubaker's cattle have been condemned for apthous fever. A rigid quarantine exists. They will be killed. Rev. Nathan Esleman's cattle also contracted this dread disease and will be exterminated.
Docs Mastertonville want a public library? If the people want it show your colors by asking for particulars of C. G. Becker. This library is free except transportation from Harrisburg; the best collection of books. What do you say?
The Christmas program at the Mastertonville school will be in session on Thursday before Christmas. A nice program will be in readiness with a special feature on hand, which this community has not seen; a rare chance for all. Can you guess what it is?
"Christmas is drawing near. Have you bought your presents? Don't delay until the best is picked out."
Messrs. Jerome Sowers, Reuben Ziegler and Charles Becker took a flying trip to Penn township on Tuesday of last week and inspected the schools. First was Mt. Vernon, then West Park, East Park, Doe Run, Pleasant View, Airy Hill and last but not least, White Oak.

BAINBRIDGE
They were also at the home of Mr. Joe Brenner.
Herbert Bean of Enola, was in the village, Monday.
The party that took B. W. Burkholder's shingles will please return them.
The quarry store was entered some time during that night and groceries were taken.
The same evening they visited the home of Mr. Warren and walked off with his overcoat and pocket knife.
Miss Mary Breneman left on Friday morning on an extended visit to Dr. Worth and family in Chester county.
Any person in need of a good stove or heater for cellar or other purposes, will do well to call on Mr. Ross Ashton, Bainbridge, Pa.
Honorable W. S. Smith, Scott Smith, B. F. Hoffman, Scott Longenecker and I. Oliver Fry attended a banquet at Hotel Columbia in Columbia Tuesday evening.
Mrs. Annie Hikes returned to her home in Chicago after spending seven months in the east with relatives and friends. While in Bainbridge she was the guest of Mrs. Florence Weseman.
Thieves entered the home of Mr. Harry Kaufman last Thursday evening. They pried upon several windows and the kitchen door. Nothing was taken. They were evidently after the cash register, but the door leading to that room was heavily barred, and they left without disturbing anything.

Big Bill Passed
Washington, Dec. 14.—An emergency appropriation of $1,000,000 for fighting the foot and mouth disease, was passed to-day by the Senate.
We print all the news fit to print. Advertise in the Mt. Joy Bulletin.
