WHY MOUNT JOY MERCHANTS SHOULD ADVERTISE IN THE BULLETIN

"Abe" Lincoln said Abraham Lincoln said: "I do not know much about the tariff, but I do know this much; when we buy goods abroad we get the goods and the foreigner gets the money; when we buy goods made at home we get both the goods and the money. Those who get the 'lion's share' of Mount Joy business are advertisers in the Bulletin."

Listen, Daughter

Dad knows that Christmas is coming and so does your mother and your brothers and sisters. And we all know just what will please you most. So, from present appearances, you are not to be disappointed. But you seem to have the wrong point of view about Christmas, honey, and I want to set you right. Christmas is the season for giving. Get that? The real happiness lies in planning what you are going to do for others and then doing it. The real Christmas spirit fills only those whose thoughts are upon the happiness they hope to bestow upon their friends and upon the unfortunates who think they have no friends. It's not so much what you give as to whom you give. There's a poor woman living around the corner. No one is thinking of what she would like for Christmas. She'd be the second happiest woman in town if you were to walk in on her early Christmas morning with a gift of something warm for her to wear. The happiest woman would be my little girl who brings it. There is old Black Jim, who shovels the snow and carries out the ashes. Never thought of him? Well, think of him to the extent of a pair of warm mittens. Knit them yourself. Don't know how? Your mother will start you. It will be twice as much fun for you and old Jim's look of gratitude when you give them to him will repay you more than all the fine phrases of all the young squirts to whom you send neckties they won't wear and pin cushions they won't use. Try Dad's prescription, Daughter, and you'll be the happiest girl in town Christmas Day. You will find that it isn't getting what you want for Christmas that makes for real joy. You'll discover something. That's right. Start now.
