Features of International Harvester Engines

WEIGHT is a good thing in an engine, provided the weight is put in the right places. In the I H C engine the extra weight goes into the fly-wheels to store up power; into the cylinder walls, making it possible to regrad the cylinder six or eight times; into the valves to prevent warping, etc.

Beneman's Situation

Then than have the payment of the loss delayed by litigation, the claims on the policies were adjusted at $4,700.

Three of the Companies have paid their losses as adjusted ($3,760) to me as Trustee for distribution among Mr. Beneman's creditors as set forth below. The fourth adjusted its loss at $940, payable on Dec. 7, 1914, but has just notified me that payment could not be made for sixty days additional.

Under the arrangement by which these policies were assigned to me, the fund, less the debtor's exemption of $300 allowed by law and the expenses of adjusting the insurance and making distribution as Trustee, was to be distributed pro rata among all the creditors of Mr. Beneman named below.

STATEMENT
Amount of insurance as adjusted $4,700.00
Paid to Trustee to date 3,760.00

DEDUCT
Debtors Exemption $300.00
Geo. R. Beneman, Esq., legal advices in adjusting ins. 100.00
Trustee's compensation for collecting and distributing ins. 150.00
Expenses paid in adjustment and dist. print'g, post., etc. 50.13

Balance for present distribution $3,159.87
The claims presented against the fund amount to $8,102.23, making the present dividend 39 per cent.

The claims and dividends are as follows:

Table listing creditors and their claims and dividends. Columns include Name, Claims, and Dividends.

If this arrangement is accepted by the creditors a second dividend of 11 6-10 per cent. will be distributed in the same way, just as soon as the remaining insurance policy is paid, making the total dividends 50 6-10 per cent.

This distribution will be made provided these payments are accepted by the creditors in full settlement of their claims against Mr. Beneman. If not accepted, Mr. Beneman will be compelled to file a petition in bankruptcy, in which event his assets will be the same and the expenses will be very much greater.

WHY MOUNT JOY MERCHANTS SHOULD ADVERTISE IN THE BULLETIN
Printed Many Calendars
This was a gala calendar year for the Bulletin office as we printed thousands of calendars for our many customers.

Let's See, What Was His Name?
In 1908 we experienced a very lively contest for the Presidency and Vice Presidency.

No great discovery or catastrophe received more space in the public print than did the utterances, the goings and the comings of the four candidates representing the two great parties.

It would seem impossible for any one to forget the names of these men. Can you name the candidate for the Vice Presidency on the ticket with Mr. Bryan?

Deaths Recorded
The following deaths were recorded Saturday:

WHY MOUNT JOY MERCHANTS SHOULD ADVERTISE IN THE BULLETIN
Preaching vs. Practice
If one of your competitors were to "spring" an innovation in the way of a sale, a new matter of displaying merchandise—anything at all—

You would do the same thing just as soon as you could, if you considered it of value to your business. Why copy them in the small things and not in the big things?

The greatest business men are the warmest advocates of advertising. The fact that they practice what they preach is the factor which made them the greatest business men.

Money spent in the Bulletin will be of far more benefit to you than a thousand times the same amount spent in any other publication.

CRACKSMEN FOILED

Burglars Break Shell of Safe, But Fail to Reach Interior
Cracksmen were busy some time Sunday night in the Pennsylvania railroad ticket office at Elizabethtown, but they were very ill rewarded for a good deal of trouble and risk.

The place was entered by removing the heavy wire screen from the window at the west end of the station. Dynamite was used in the attempt made to open the safe, but the operators were evidently burglars whether professionals or amateurs.

The shell of the safe was cracked, but the door remained closed. It would be interesting to know what the fellows said when they found they were just as far off from the contents of the safe as before the explosion. They ransacked the office, however, getting from a cash drawer sixty cents of the company's money. From another drawer they secured $5, belonging to Ticket Agent C. J. McLaughlin. The discovery of the presence of robbers was made by Track Foreman Foltz, who heard the explosion, but by the time he reached the place the robbers had disappeared. He promptly notified Agent McLaughlin, who hastened to the office, but he was unable to find any clue to the thieves. The robbery was reported to railroad headquarters and detectives are already on the case.
