MILTON GROVE

Milton Grove Sunday School Elects Its Officers for 1915

Isaac G. Kopp was a week-end visitor with relatives at Rheems. Miss Shoop of East Donegal, has been the guest of Mrs. Anna Peck. Albert Gingrich was a mid-week visitor with his mother at Hershey. Elmer Witmer of Mastersonville, circulated in our town on Saturday. Harry Geib of near Salunga, was a Sunday visitor at his parental home. Walter K. Brosey attended the horse sale of Ed. Ream's at Mount Joy. Miss Myra Grosh is spending the week among relatives in Harrisburg and Hershey. Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Holzwarer transacted business in Lancaster during the past week. Harvey Kulp and family and Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Holzwarer autoed to East Petersburg on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Metzler of Fisherman's Vale were guests in the home of A. H. Gingrich on Sunday. F. B. Grosh is assisting I. G. Kopp in calculating the annual State and County taxes. Due to fine weather, the local baseball team enjoyed a Sunday outing on that school ground. Miss Lizzie Gruber assisted in the family of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Gruber the past week. The evening services at Chiques Hill Church are well patronized and the sermons very interesting. Arthur, Jr., youngest son of Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Thome has recuperated from a two week's indisposition. Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Lehman of near Salunga, Sundayed with Allen and Edna Gibble and their families.

There will be services in the Evangelical church at this place next Sunday evening. All invited to attend. Simon L. Gingrich and wife were in attendance at the Mount Joy Presbyterian Church, Sunday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Grosh were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Young in Elizabethtown on Sunday. Mrs. E. F. Arndt and daughter Katie visited Mrs. Arndt's son, Elmer Strickler and wife of Elizabethtown on Friday. Miss Estella Good is approaching her normal health, and it is hoped she will be able to resume her usual vocation in a few days. Mr. and Mrs. John Koser and son Leroy spent Thursday and Friday at Tamaqua where they visited the former's aunt, Mrs. Emma Swartz. Chromancers assert that boys born in January are neat and intelligent, while girls born in the same month are egotistical and lamentably stupid. Mr. John Green who visited his wife in the Lancaster County Hospital on Sunday, reports her improving slowly but has no prospects of bringing her home soon. For a good low-priced automobile call on A. S. Kauffman who has just put up his new sign for the Saxon agency. He reports seven prospective buyers for the near future. Evangelistic services have come to a close at Rissler's Mennonite church and Rheems Church of the Brethren and meetings have begun at Chiques Church of the Brethren. S. A. Koser and family on Sunday entertained the following guests: Abram Koser and family and son of Old Line; Aaron Nissley and family of Donegal and Paul Koser of Union Square. Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Helsey, Mr. and Mrs. A. Curtin Good and Mrs. Lizzie Shelly attended services at Reich's church near Maytown, on Sunday. The trip was made in the former's touring car. Election of officers in the Milton Grove Sunday School was held on Sunday and the following officers were elected: Supt. Jacob Moyer; Asst. Supt., Jacob E. Frey; Sec. Allen Gibble; Asst. Sec. S. L. Gingrich; Organist, Fannie Diffenderfer; Asst. Organist, Mrs. Arthur Kauffman; Treas., J. S. Frey; Librarians, Sue Garman and Meta Zook. This ought to be an unusually good month. There are five Sundays in it. Mrs. John Rasp has improved as far as to enable her to do outdoor labor. A devotional meeting was held in the Evangelical Church Sunday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Grosh spent Sunday in Elizabethtown as guests of relatives. It takes humanity a good while to learn that the best way to swat pneumococcus is to open the window. Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Gingrich spent Saturday afternoon with the latter's sister Mrs. Tillie Hershey of Elizabethtown. It begins to look somewhat as if Mexico would have to go back to the days of Montezuma and begin all over again. There is a good deal of watchful waiting all over the county for employment and it is not a psychological condition either. Mrs. Susan Swade returned home Friday evening from a four weeks' visit to her daughter, Miss Lizzie Colten in Lancaster. Mr. and Mrs. Blaine O. Grosh and son Kenneth and Miss Myra Grosh visited the sick chamber of their aunt, Mrs. Isaac Hershey in Elizabethtown last Friday. With a sudden rise of the Chickies creek last week the ice broke up and gorged at Eby's bridge on the Mount Joy and Mastersonville road putting the highway out of service for thirty-six hours. The thousands of dead horses scattered along the trails of the foreign armies are a lamentable waste of provisions. A horse steak will be a great luxury in Europe before the snow stops falling in the spring. A very successful revival had been conducted in the Children Zion's Church at Fairview. It was opened two weeks ago and continued to last Sunday with unusually gratifying attendances. There were twelve converts. The Milton Grove Union Sunday School elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Supt. Jacob Moyer; Sec. and Treas. Jacob F. 1,000,000 whereas, in 1912 the Wilson Fry; Librarian, Miss Meta Zook; Asst. Librarian, Miss Sue Garman; Organist, Miss Diffenderfer; Asst. Organist, Mrs. A. Kauffman. Here are some of the terse sayings of Billy Sunday at his tabernacle in Philadelphia: No city in the universe can be saved if we make a bar-room of our homes and a booze joint out of our refrigerators. Some men have nothing. Others have nothing but money. And I would sooner be a friend of the man with nothing than of the man who has nothing but money. The normal way to get rid of drunkards is to stop making them. But I do not know how you will accomplish it in Pennsylvania as the Legislature is soaked and pickled in alcohol. The women of the smart set are frivolous, silly, extravagant and they gamble. They know more about poker chips than they do about the Word of God and could not quote a verse of the Scriptures to save their souls. The only thing there is to woman suffrage comes wriggling out beneath the doors of distilleries, breweries and saloons because their proprietors realize that to give woman the ballot means the end of the grog shop. The home loses its charm when the mother or father is forced to frame her or his face in the front window and act as the lookout for some dissolute, bleary-eyed son, whose only companions are the rum shop and gambling table. Some women wonder why their children lie forgetting that they received their first lesson in the art when they pretended to some guest they were welcome, when the youngest only a few minutes before heard their mother express her hatred of the expected visitors. Election dots now and then. Are rebuffed by the wisest men. Here is what the last November election did for the Republicans. The analysis of the last general election shows the Republican party is a majority party in councils of nation. It carried enough States to give party a clear majority in the Electoral College. Democratic majority in next House is only the result of Progressive vote and that party will be really a minority party in the House. In thirty-eight States there is a Republican gain of 2,489,588 over the Republican President of 1912. In the same thirty-eight States there is a Progressive loss of 2,507,811 from the 1912 vote. In twenty-three of these States which put themselves in the Republican column the Republican plurality was more than 100,000; whereas, in 1912 the Wilson Fry; Librarian, Miss Meta Zook; Asst. Librarian, Miss Sue Garman; Organist, Miss Diffenderfer; Asst. Organist, Mrs. A. Kauffman. Here are some of the terse sayings of Billy Sunday at his tabernacle in Philadelphia: No city in the universe can be saved if we make a bar-room of our homes and a booze joint out of our refrigerators. Some men have nothing. Others have nothing but money. And I would sooner be a friend of the man with nothing than of the man who has nothing but money. The normal way to get rid of drunkards is to stop making them. But I do not know how you will accomplish it in Pennsylvania as the Legislature is soaked and pickled in

RAMSEY'S CORNER

Samuel Ramsey visited Charles Frank on Sunday. Lloyd Landvator is slowly improving since last week's writing. Frank Landvator is confined to his bed by an attack of gripple. Irvin Gladfelter of Lancaster, spent some time with Mervin Brandt on Sunday.

Elizabeth Frank spent the past week very pleasantly at the home of Della Shank near Conewago. A very unusual occurrence on the tenth of January--finding dandelion flowers blooming by the roadside. Mr. and Mrs. John Eyer and two children and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Watson all of Donegal, visited Frank Felty and family on Sunday. Clayton Farmer, Jr., has returned to Gettysburg College, to take up his studies again, after spending the holidays at his home. The rain and the beautiful sunshine the past week caused all the snow and ice to disappear which gives pedestrians a more solid footing and helped them to retain their equilibrium. MAYTOWN Our Popular Musical Organization Elected Its Officers Miss Anna Culp visited her mother Mrs. Isaac Carpenter. Mrs. Frank Blessing and daughter Alice spent Saturday at Lancaster. Mrs. Leah Druck of Hellam, visited her brother Mr. John A. Dehoff, on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Glattacker of Steelton, visited Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Glattacker. Mr. Carl Shank of Drumore, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blessing Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Litzinger of York, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Miller. Miss Lillie McCurdy of town has resigned as teacher of Donegal school owing to ill health. David Hollenbach visited his daughter, Mrs. Howard Stauffer at Landisville, and is now spending a few days with his mother at Bloomfield. Miss Carrie Senen of Lancaster, is visiting her sister, Mrs. William I. Lowe, who has been confined to the house for the last week suffering from a sprain caused by slipping on the ice. The Church of God of this place, will hold a revival at the Bethel, beginning on Sunday the 17th. The services will be in charge of Rev. Mervin Manning pastor of the Church of God congregation. The senior class of the Maytown high school will hold a spelling bee on Saturday evening, January 30, in the Band Hall in this place. There will be three classes and four prizes to each class. Also readings, recitations and music. Mr. Luther Landis of Reich's church and Mr. Jacob H. Miller and grand-daughter, Lizzie, of town attended a lecture at York on Sunday given by J. F. Rutherford. The subject was "The Destiny of Man and Nations." They report the lecture as being very interesting and instructive. John Bell of Marietta, was arrested on the complaint of Charles O'Conner for larceny of coal which he stole from the yards, the warrant was served by Constable Shields and the case tried before Squire C. C. Hicks of Maytown. The case was settled by defendant paying for the coal and the costs. On the evening of the 27th ult., the Brethren in Christ began a series of meetings at the Bethel, continuing until Sunday evening. Nine conversions were announced and a season of refreshing attested by others. In fact, all who attended experienced of spiritual refreshing. The meetings were conducted by B. F. Hoover of Mansfield, Ohio assisted from time to time by others of the brethren in local service. Rev. Mervin Manning, pastor of the Church of God and bride came to town last week and occupied the parsonage which was furnished in advance for them. We tender our heartiest congratulations and best wishes for success in spiritual and temporal life. Rev. Manning formerly served the congregation at Bainbridge and Mrs. Manning, who was Miss Olive Parthemore before marriage was a resident of Highspire. Peter Rodosovic of Marietta was arrested on the charge of false pretence, the complaint being made by C. E. Holenbach of Maytown. The case was tried before Squire C. C. Hicks and settled by defendant paying the bill and costs. Rodosovic was returned to the county jail as a detainer was lodged against him by the Steelton authorities where he is wanted by Chief of Police Longenecker, being accused of receiving stolen chickens. At a special meeting of the Citizens Band held in the Maytown Band hall, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, North Laucks; vice president, John L. Mathias; treasurer, Dr. G. A. Harter; secretary, Ralph C. Shreman; financial secretary, Arble Housel; advisory board, Frederick Peck, John L. Mathias and George Glattacker; trustees, Chas. Zell, Arble Housel, sr., and Lewis Hartman; leader, John L. Mathias; janitor, Samuel Henderson. BAINBRIDGE Mr. Amos Charles and Miss Maria Brandt were married last Thursday. Mrs. Mary Brinser visited her sister, Mrs. Walter G. Hawthorne, on Saturday. Teachers of Conoy township attended the Local Institute at Marietta on Saturday. Mrs. Harry Pauls, Mrs. McKain and child of Marietta, visited relatives in town Friday. Mr. Paris G. Engle purchased the home of Aaron Landis and will move to town in the Spring. Mrs. Mary Bostic of Lancaster, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Silas Yerkes for several days. The Citizen's Cornet Band of Bainbridge will hold a Fair in the Band Hall beginning January 23rd, to February 6th. Directors B. F. Hoffman, Ephraim Brinser and I. Scott Smith visited the Stevens Hill, Falmouth and Littleton schools, Wednesday.
