Martin, The Clothier, of Elizabethtown Will Open a New Store in Mount Joy

D. H. MARTIN

Has rented the first floor of the D. H. Engle building. The present occupant, Undertaker H. L. Spohn will occupy the second floor. After repeated appeals to come to Mount Joy with our class of merchandise, we have arranged to come. We do not come as strangers, as a great many have favored us with their patronage at Elizabethtown.

At our recent stock inventory we found we had over $5000 more merchandise than we usually carry which was largely due to the mild Fall weather up to almost Christmas. This extra stock on hand we decided to open up now instead of in the Spring and give Mount Joy and vicinity the benefit of a sale same as is now going on at Elizabethtown. For this reason we will only be temporarily arranged for several month, until we have disposed of this stocks of high grade merchandise. We come with a stock of SUITS and OVERCOATS from the best to the worst as they are assorted in every stock. These goods will be sold at cost and in most cases less than cost. You have heard that before, but say, COME AND SEE.

Nothing held Back; all must go. In this limited space we mention but a few of these bargains, but they give you an idea of the great values that await you. Don't wait until the best is picked out. Come early, come often.
