Borough Council

Our Dads Will Do Considerable Improving the Coming Summer

Mount Joy Borough Council met in a regular session on Monday evening and a busy session it was. Every item on the agenda was discussed and the last regular meeting was held and approved.

The report of Burgess Brown showed a collected $200.62 pole tax and a dependent telephone bill of $1.00. The Edison Electric Company reported a bill of $1.00 for the month.

The committee on reported crossings reported that the board crossings on the Columbia Avenue at the Columbia Avenue and Macadamize North from the old borough limits.

A new crossing on the north side of the town. Chairman Ricksecker made these recommendations: A water main be laid on Columbia Avenue to the Columbia road; one on Donegal street as far as is necessary and also one on North Barbara street as far as the borough limits. All these marked improvement at this point as the gutter there is a bad one. After the pipes are laid the street will be filled in. Two new crossings were also recommended and ordered laid at this point. One across Marietta at the west side of New Haven and one across New Haven on the south side of Marietta street. A new crossing was ordered laid across Marietta street at the west side of Poplar street. Mr. Barto also recommended that the Street committee get bids for stone and award the contract to the lowest bidder.

Water ommittee
Mr. Ricksecker reported everything all right around the pumping station; bridge at head race repaired; car load of water pipes received and distributed at various points thruout the town. Chairman Ricksecker made these recommendations: A water main be laid on Columbia Avenue to the Columbia road; one on Donegal street as far as is necessary and also one on North Barbara street as far as the borough limits. All these

Some Well Known People From Our Neighborhood Have Passed to the Great Beyond Since Our Last Issue Gone to Their Reward

John H. Culp
John H. Culp, young son of Mrs. Ida Culp, died at his home in Florin last Friday from pneumonia, aged six years, four months and nine days. He is survived by his mother and one brother Arthur. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon with services in the River Brethren Church in Florin and interment in Green Tree.

Rev. Jacob Weaver

Rev. Jacob B. Weaver, one of the oldest Mennonite preachers in Lancaster county, and one of the best known men in the Upper End of the county, died on Saturday morning at his home in Martindale, after an illness of several months. Death was caused by a complication of diseases. Rev. Weaver was in his 71st year.

Arthur Kauffman

Arthur, the one-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Web. Kauffman, died on Sunday at the home of his parents, at Mastersville, from infantile troubles. The funeral was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gibney, 612 North Mary street, Lancaster. Interment was made in the Woodward Hill Cemetery.

Mrs. Barbara H. Souders

Mrs. Barbara H. Souders, who resided with her niece, Mrs. J. T. Peters, near Kinderhook, died at 11 o'clock on Thursday morning from infirmities incident to her advanced age, she being in her 78th year. The funeral was held on Monday at 9 A. M. from the house, and at 11 A. M. at Hakeber's meeting house at Central Manor. Interment was made in the adjacent cemetery.

John Hunter

John Hunter, a lifelong resident of Maytown, died at his home in that place Sunday afternoon. He was taken with a stroke on Saturday, which hastened his death. He was 75 years old and was born in Maytown. He served in the Civil War and was a member of St. John's Lutheran Church. He is survived by a widow, who was a Miss Breneman, and two sisters, Mrs. Emily Bowers of Maytown and Mrs. George Willets of Cleveland, Ohio. The funeral took place this morning at 10 o'clock, with interment in the Lutheran Cemetery, Maytown.

His Conversion Seems Genuine

Lewis Ibaugh, a Columbia man, was converted during the union revival services now under way in that town. In his cellar he had 20 gallons of home-made wine. He invited Rev. J. C. Bieri and several friends to bring hatchets to his cellar; this being done, he had kegs and jugs carried to the nearest gutter and smashed with the hatchets and the wine went into the Susquehanna.

Won On Last Bird

Dommel Defeated Moore in Match Over Florin Traps

In a match shoot at 25 birds between William Dommel, of Florin and Ward Moore, of Ironville, on Thursday, the former won, grassing 19 to 18 for Moore. Both shot from the 30-yard mark. Interest ran high in the shoot, as the men kept close together down to the last bird. With Dommel the score tied at 24, Dommel killed Zellers his twenty-fifth bird with the first Sultzbach Humer..... 0-2-1-0-2-1-0-5
Snow..... 2-2-0-0-2-2-0-5
Dommel was the victor. The two arranged another match, to be shot at Ironville on February 12. In addition there was an eight-bird event with 14 entries. This was won by Shisler, who killed eight straight.

Now Sales Manager

Owing to the extensive increase in business at Mr. H. S. Newcomer's, he has added to his force Mr. Fred A. Farmer, who will be sales manager at this well known business establishment. Mr. Farmer is by no means a stranger here, having been a former resident of this place. He came here direct from the Syracuse, N. Y. sales office of the John Deere Plow Works and having had ample experience in the implement business will undoubtedly prove a very valuable addition to the sale force of Mr. Newcomer. His many friends will be glad to learn that he has again decided to be "one of us."

No Evangelist Here

A big mass meeting was held in the United Brethren Church last week relative to securing the wishes of the townspeople as to whether or not an evangelistic meeting should be held in Mt. Joy. It did not meet with the approval of the people.

Ream's Next Sale

Mr. Ed Ream will hold his next big sale of thirty head of acclimated horses, colts and mules at his stables here on Saturday, Feb. 13, when he will offer another lot of fine ones. Every horse sold under a full guarantee so you can't go wrong by buying at this sale. 2t

Now Florin Water Co.

Mr. Wm. Easton will open his new confectionery at the corner of Marietta and Columbia streets tomorrow. Thru Honk! Honk! Honk!

Our contemporary saw fit to criticize a slight error in the Bulletin last week when he should have been busy shoveling the mud from his own door.

In his "Driving Accident" item he says: "Kreider's horse was badly lacerated and ran away." Of course that's a lie. The horse did not run away and was not even scratched. Neither was it Warren Farmer that figured in the mishap.

They'll Have a Crowd

The Sons of Veterans met on Tuesday evening. They plan for a big time on the evening of Feb. 16, at which time the S. of V. will hold their Campfire Social and bean soup supper. Invitations are being sent out this week to all Soldiers, Sons of Veterans, prospectives, and their families, to be present and enjoy the occasion. The invitation is given by Lieut. D. H. Nissley Camp, No. 74, Sons of Veterans of Mount Joy and carries with it no expense to the invited guests.

They Were Appreciated

Mr. I. D. Stehman, of the firm of Brandt & Stehman, who is now on an extensive trip thru the South, sent a large box of oranges to be distributed among his employees here. The oranges were certainly fine and the treat was greatly appreciated by the men. Mr. and Mrs. Stehman are now in Tampa.

Owl Shut Off Ventilation

People complained of lack of ventilation in Manheim's moving picture theatre. An examination was made and in the ventilating shaft was found a live owl. It was removed and there is now no complaint of ventilation.

The Pattersonian

With the year 1915 comes the Pattersonian in a new form. More news fine illustrated heads, etc., are marked improvements and make it look better than ever. The local High School deserves credit.

Frank Carries Them Now

Mr. Frank Tindall is the new local representative of the Harrisburg Telegraph here, succeeding John Miller. As an advertising novelty he will give a copy of Puck with every Telegraph sold on Saturday.
