HOW

And So come by man's St Follows: Camden, N. J., J. J. Cough, a run-down man, was awfully weak. He was an electrician by occupation. He kept me awake nights. I would have everything everybody had taken so much medicine. "One evening I read decided to give it a trial. It was an improvement. I kept and today I am a well man. It is all gone from my system. I have any cough and have gained 15 pounds in weight and I have friends that Vinol did it for me. It is the curative, tissue-building, strength creating, tonic iron, contained in Vinol, that is so successful in Mr. Hillman's case. We ask every person in this suffering from weak lungs, coughs or a run-down condition to try a bottle of Vinol. It guarantees to return your money if it fails to help you. W. D. CHANDLER & CO.

Business Changes

(Continued from page 1) Engle Building Sold A real estate deal that had been hanging fire for some time past, was finally consummated when Mr. David H. Engle sold his entire business stand, a spacious two story brick property with frame additions, fronting on West Main street and extending to Elbow Alley, to Mr. D. H. Martin. The extensive clothing of Elizabethtown, who just recently rented it. Mr. Martin began remodeling immediately. Several windows were inserted, an open stairway, new shelving, etc., comprise some of the improvements, the carpenter work being done by Mr. A. S. Shires.

A Business Change The furniture and undertaking business heretofore conducted by H. L. Spohn, also underwent a change. Mr. D. H. Engle, the former owner, has again assumed charge of the furniture business. He occupies the second floor and will carry a full line of all kinds of furniture and will make a specialty of doing repair work.

The Undertaking End His many friends will be pleased to learn that Mr. H. L. Spohn will continue to have his quarters in this building and will hereafter devote all his time to the undertaking business.

Laskewitz Will Move As the building now occupied by Mr. Harry Laskewitz as a shoe store, on East Main street will be razed, he has rented the Baker property to be vacated by Mr. H. E. Klugh and will move his shoe store and repair shop there on Apr. 1st. This will make a very desirable location for his business.

Will Enlarge Office There will be an important change at the Grey Iron Works this Spring also. The residence at present occupied by Mr. Hiram Walters, will be converted into additional office room by the proprietors and the tenant, being obliged to vacate, has rented and will occupy the C. L. Eby property advertised in our window yesterday.
