He has held a borough office longer than any official in the town. In 1876 he was elected supervisor and when he completes his present term, he will have served in that capacity for thirty years, although not continuously, there being a break of a year or so occasionally. He is more familiar with the water system of our town than any other citizen.

Mrs. Welsh was born at Lebanon on March 28, 1848, just seven years to the day after the birth of Mr. Welsh. She was raised in that section and came to this community, later becoming the wife of our townsman.

Mr. and Mrs. Welsh were 74 and 67 years old respectively and we join their many friends in wishing them many more such happy events.

35th Wedding Anniversary

Just thirty-five years ago yesterday a nuptial knot was tied in the City of Philadelphia, the participants being Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Dierolf of this place. The bride is a native of the City of Brotherly Love and the groom was born in Germany but came across the "pond" at the age of eighteen years. Mr. Dierolf has been a resident of this town for the past forty-nine years. He learned the cobbler trade with his brother William, who conducted a shoe store and repair shop in the building at present occupied by Mrs. Shaffner on East Main street. There he worked for fourteen years. On March 30, 1880, he went to Philadelphia, took unto himself a wife and together they returned to this borough and went to housekeeping and at the same time embarked in the shoe business in his present location where they have resided ever since. Mr. Dierolf is one of this town's most influential and successful business men. While he has never taken an active part in politics, he always has the best interests of the borough at heart. Mr. Dierolf is an active member of several of our secret societies. He enjoys a large business patronage and is very well known through this section. Mr. and Mrs. Dierolf are active members in the Lutheran church here, the former being a member of the Church Council for many years. The Bulletin extends heartiest congratulations.

17th Wedding Anniversary

Today Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Longenecker, on East Main street, are quietly celebrating their seventeenth wedding anniversary at their home here. Mr. Longenecker is one of the leading blacksmiths in this community and for a number of years has conducted a stand on East Main street. He is an ex-councilman and is one of our most reputable citizens. Mr. and Mrs. Longenecker came here from Maytown a number of years ago. Their many friends extend congratulations.

Milton Grove Graduates Five

The address to the graduates was delivered by Prof. Ralph W. Schloesser of Elizabethtown College. He spoke along general lines in the realm of education, tracing the development this country has made within the last fifty years, along educational and industrial lines. He spoke for nearly an hour and had no difficulty in holding the attention of his audience. In speaking to the class directly he complimented them upon having completed their High School education. He impressed upon them the fact that last night's ceremonies marked their real commencement in the great battle of life. He urged the members of the class to continue, if possible, their education on thru college and the university.

Director William Gardner, in a thoughtful address, conveying much wholesome advice, presented the diplomas to the graduates.

The automobile in the middle, moving on in business; shadows like you and me skipping out of its way in front; all and used-up stuff dropping out behind. There you have society—body, break, and bones.

"Briscom is a nervous chap, isn't he?" "Yes, indeed. I never knew a fellow who was so easily scared. Why, he can't go to sleep until after he has looked under the bed for Japanese spies!"

"When I started in life I hadn't nearly your advantages," said the father. "Quite true," replied the gilded youth. "But you shouldn't reproach me for that. Speak to grandfather."

"He seems to be fond of his wife." "No wonder. He married her for her money and afterward discovered that she possessed twice as much as she claimed to have."

Chocolate Factory Now a Certainty

(Continued from page 1) making a great effort in the shape of inducements. Several cities in the West, letters of which are in possession of Mr. Bachman, are also "after" the company. A proposition that looks real interesting was made by a town not many miles from Mt. Joy, offering a $12,000 building free of rent for a number of years and if the company would finally want said building that town would retire nearly half the indebtedness against it.

On the other hand, this Company has not as yet been offered a thing by our town, neither have they asked for anything. Would it not be well to make a little "noise?"

Thus far $40,000 worth of stock has been subscribed and Mr. Bachman said this morning that they have practically decided to locate here.

The company will employ about one hundred males and females, the ratio being about 3 to one favoring the former, which will be quite a help to this community from an industrial standpoint.

Following is the document as circulated which was signed by the purchasers of stock and explains itself:

In consideration of the Bachman Chocolate Manufacturing Company, (a proposed corporation to be incorporated under the laws of the State of Pennsylvania, with an authorized capital of $100,000.00, 6 per cent preferred stock and $100,000.00 common stock) agreeing to build a factory at or near Mount Joy, Penna., we the following subscribers agree to subscribe to the purchase of and do purchase from the Treasurer of the Company 6 per cent preferred stock of the Bachman Chocolate Manufacturing Company, par value $100.00 to the amount set opposite our names below.

The said preferred stock to be full paid, non-assessable and non-votable and to be paid dividends from the earnings of the Company to the amount of 6 per cent on the outstanding preferred stock any dividends shall be paid to the common stock whatsoever and to be preferred as to the assets of the Company.

It is further agreed that the purchaser of the Preferred Stock is to receive one share of Common Stock to every two shares of Preferred Stock.

The said subscriptions to be paid to a local bank, as follows:—25 per cent of the subscription to be paid April 15, 1915; 25 per cent of the subscription to be paid June 1, 1915, and 50 per cent of the subscription to be paid August 1, 1915. These funds to be held by a local Bank subject to the order of the President and Treasurer of the Bachman Chocolate Manufacturing Company.

Following is a list of those who have pledged themselves to take stock in this new industry: J. E. Longenecker B. F. Emweller Elmer W. Strickler E. S. Sheetz E. N. M... Harry H. Miller Ezra Engle El. F. Hefner Daniel Miller

NUPTIAL AFFAIRS

Well Known Local Couple Married at Reading Saturday

A pretty wedding was solemnized on Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swarmer, East Donegal township, when their daughter, Miss Mary E. Swarmer was married to Charles W. Hefflinger. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. J. Huntsinger, pastor of the Zion Evangelical Lutheran church of Marietta, in the presence of the immediate families of the contrasting parties. Raymond Swarmer, a brother of the bride, was best man and Miss Pearl Swarmer, a sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Miss Elsie Crowley, a cousin of the bride, played the wedding march. The bride was gowned in white silk crepe de chine, and carried a huge bouquet of pink carnations. Immediately following there was a reception attended by relatives and friends from Lancaster, Columbia and Marietta. The bride received a number of beautiful presents. The couple will reside in Marietta.

Will Wed at Columbus Invitations were received here last week by the many friends of Mr. Charles M. Cassel, son of our townsman Mr. W. W. Cassel, as follows: "Dr. Charles I. Brown requests the honor of your presence at the marriage of his daughter Ruth Hoffman to Mr. Charles Moore Cassel at half past four o'clock on the evening of Wednesday, the seventh of April, 1915, at Columbus, Ohio." The bride and groom are former residents of this borough.

(Continued from page 1) avenue, York, offered to take the two men to York in his automobile and the Hicks machine was left deserted by the roadside. When the pursuers reached the toll gate at Hellam, they called up police headquarters. Sergeant Buttorff received the message, which was to the effect that a sorrel horse, hitched to a buggy, with yellow running gear and rubber tires, had been stolen at Maytown and was on the way to York. This was at 9:30 P. M. Leaving headquarters in charge of Roundsman Bilet, Sergeant Buttorff hurried down the street and boarded a car at the corner of Market and Duke streets. He had gone little more than a block, when he saw the team approaching and jumping from the car, seized the horse by the bridle, at the same time informing the driver he was under arrest. The sergeant rode to the buggy with Graham and drove to police headquarters. There a boy, who had been taken into the buggy at Albemarle street to direct Graham to a livery stable, was permitted to go home, while Graham was locked in a cell. The horse and buggy were placed in the livery stable of D. G. Deardorff, East Main alley. It was then 9:45 P. M.

Shortly afterward, the automobile containing Walters and Hicks arrived at police headquarters. Graham had been in Maytown only three days.

Any woman can keep an expense account but not more than one in a thousand can make it tally with her cash.

But silence would improve some people's conversation.
