(Continued from page 1) nesday afternoon. He was sixty-seven years of age. Mr. Flowers had been a resident of Florin until a few years ago. He was a member of the Brinsler denomination. He is survived by his wife and eight children. The funeral was held Saturday morning from Zion Church. Interment was made in the adjoining cemetery.

Mrs. Henry G. Shelly Mrs. Henry G. Shelly, of Rapho township, living near Hossler's meeting house, died on Saturday. Death was due to peritonitis.

George Alstead George Alstead, a former resident of Marietta, died at his home in Washington, D. C. He was forty-five years of age, and was born in Marietta. He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Ernest Gibbons and Miss Carrie Alstead, and a brother, Edward Alstead, all of Washington.

Mrs. Mary Jane Bush The remains of Mrs. Mary Jane Bush, a former resident of Maytown, were brought to Marietta yesterday morning and taken to Maytown, where funeral services were held yesterday from St. John's Lutheran Church, of which she was a member. Deceased died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Sol Landis, at Torresdale, from a complication of diseases. She was born in Maytown and was about 80 years of age. Her maiden name was Rumbach, and she resided in Maytown until a few years ago. Rev. Joseph Krout, pastor, officiated. Burial was made in the Union Cemetery, Maytown.

Barbara M. Stauffer Barbara M., wife of Henry S. Stauffer of Landisville, died at her home at six o'clock on Sunday evening in the eightieth year of her age, death resulting from dropsy. She leaves a husband and three children: Martha, wife of S. E. Ebersole of Centerville; David R., of Landisville; Benjamin R., of near Lancaster Junction; Emma R., wife of Isaac E. Tyson of near Manheim. The funeral was held from her late home this forenoon at 9:30. Services were held in the Mennonite Church at Landisville at 10 o'clock and interment was made in the burial grounds at Brisman's meeting house.

Frank W. Garber The many friends of Frank W. Garber, a former resident of this place, were shocked to learn that he had been found dead at his home at Emma, near Allentown, last Wednesday evening. He attended to his usual occupation that day, ate a hearty supper and later in the evening accompanied his little daughter to bed, where he was found shortly thereafter by his wife, having expired a short time previous. Death resulting from heart trouble. He was aged 40 years and 15 days, and was a cigar maker by occupation. He was born and raised here and was a resident of this town until about ten years ago, when he moved to Lancaster. Two years later he moved to Emma where he resided ever since. He leaves a wife, and one son and a daughter, who are twins. His father Mr. Jacob Garber of this place, also survives, as well as these brothers and sister: Harry W. Jacob, Abram, Samuel and Mrs. Monroe Frank, all of this place. The funeral was held Monday, interment being made at Emma.

SUNFLOWER PHILOSOPHY.

One woman with her nose turned up can ruin a reception. The public takes care of many people who are not in the poorhouse. Don't be too anxious to correct a man when you hear him make a mistake; he may not want to be corrected. What an awful row a little boy can kick up! In spite of its small size it seems to be pulling ligaments out of your body.

A man occasionally wants to quit smoking, but a "No Smoking" sign isn't one of the inducements of his good resolution. What has become of the old-fashioned boy who referred to his knife as a "frog stick"? And what, by the way, has become of the old-fashioned Barlow knife? When a boy is whipped at school, and his mother sends him out into the yard to get a stick of the size the teacher used, to show visitors, the case against the teacher is pretty bad.

Never Saw a Hog. Inquiry following a humorous incident shows that nearly 200 girls in various Kansas City high schools have never seen a live hog. It had been related that a high school girl recently went to the country and, seeing a pig run across a yard, asked what animal it was. On receiving the information that the scamping creature was a hog, she exclaimed, "Why, it has hair!" This led to an inquiry on the subject and a canvass of all the high school girls in Kansas City showed that some 200 marriageable girls of the second largest live-stock market city in the world had never seen a live member of the porcine family.

Masonic Home News

The Masonic Home idea for Masons, those widows and orphans, in the several States of our National confederation is steadily gaining a fixed purpose in the minds of the members of the Fraternity throughout our land, there being at present not less than thirty such institutions in operation or contemplation.

In 1898 the members of the Fraternity of New Jersey through their Grand Lodge, took title to a tract of land at Burlington, of forty acres on which was erected a large mansion. This they improved, and converted into the present "Masonic Home and Orphanage," which now gives shelter to fifty-eight inmates, men, women and orphans (wards).

As it is the general experience of these institutions, their great necessity is demonstrated by the increasing applications for admission, with its consequent demand for extension, and so our New Jersey fraters are realizing the inevitable.

The Masonic Homes of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, at Elizabethtown, have been conceived and are developing on such broad lines, in magnitude and purpose, that they are a magnet of attraction and an object lesson to the projectors of similar institutions throughout our land.

It was, therefore, a natural result that our New Jersey brethren should direct their attention to Elizabethtown for inspiration, when considering the subject of improvement in their Home.

On Sunday, May 2, 1915, the Masonic Home Committee of the Grand Lodge of New Jersey made a visit of inspection, and presented their fraternal greetings. The Committee consisted of Brothers Theodore B. Townley, P. M. of Lodge, No. 33 and Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge; Cooper H. Prickett, P. M. Lodge, No. 32 and P. D. D.; E. Wilmer Collins, P. M. Lodge, No. 117 and P. D. D.; A. Crozier Records, P. M. Lodge, No. 50 and D. D.; Charles H. Riggs, P. M. Lodge, No. 32 and D. D.; Edwin M. Thome, P. M. Lodge, No. 120; Geo. A. Katzenbach, P. M. Lodge, No. 120; David W. Doan, P. M. Lodge, No. 15; George A. Allison, P. M. Lodge, No. 32; and Amzi Lake, Lodge No. 20, Superintendent of Masonic Home.

The visitors were courteously received by Superintendent N. Franklin Heckler, and given every facility to thoroughly inspect the buildings, grounds, equipment and operations of this truly great institution. The warm expressions of their appreciation gave evidence of the enjoyment of their visit, which was much enjoyed by the management and guests of the Homes, who trust it may result in benefit to the New Jersey Home.

Along the many activities and improvements that are in operation here, our "God's Acre" has not been forgotten, and is now being arranged in accordance with the plans of Brother J. Murray Africa, our Engineer. A hedge of California privet has been planted around a plot of 62 feet square, accommodating 40 graves. Nine bodies of former guests now rest in this enclosure, and suitable markers are being placed at their heads. These markers have been made by J. H. Keener, Marble and Granite Manufacturer of Maytown. They are made of Western Granite, the hardest granite known. They have beveled polished tops, on which is the inscription in headed letters. The inscription consists of the name of the deceased and years of birth and death, and for deceased brothers, the No. of their Lodge is given. They are as follows: Jackson McGlathery, 1839-1911, Lodge No. 75; Francis Stewart, 1834-1912, Lodge No. 432; Mrs. Mary E. Stewart, 1836-1912; John D. Cox, 1834-1913, Lodge No. 203; Mrs. Anna Mary Wehner, 1839-1913; T. Frank King, 1836-1914, Lodge No. 260; William S. Bunde, 1851-1914, Lodge No. 59; Adie P. Bunde, 1848-1915; William R. Ewing, 1837-1915, Lodge, No. 219.

The religious services on Sunday, May 2, 1915, were conducted by Rev. Frank Croman, pastor of Christ's Lutheran Church of Elizabethtown.

During the month of April 1915, 664 visitors registered at Grand Lodge Hall. Fourteen new guests arrived; one died and one withdrew, making the present total number of guests, 210. There are 68 unaccompanied men, 50 unaccompanied women, 27 married couples (54), 16 boys and 13 boys.

During the month of April 1915, our Post Office handled 8,332 pieces of mail.

On Thursday, May 6, 1915, at 2 o'clock P. M. Brother Jenkin Hill, D. G. M. of Berks County, accompanied by members of the Fraternity of Berks County, will break ground for the "Berks Home," and all Brother Masons and their families are cordially invited to be present at the ceremonies.

FRUIT GROWERS MET

Talks on the Thinning of Trees and Their General Care

Sheldon W. Funk of Boyertown, an agent of the State, addressed the members of the Lancaster Co. Fruit Growers' Association Monday evening. His subject was "Thinning of Fruit." He said in part:

"It is a matter of economy to trim your fruit trees properly. It not only saves the tree, but produces a better quality of fruit. If the tree is not thinned a great deal of its energy is wasted, and it is more liable to succumb to the attacks of insects and disease. The time for thinning is about the last week in June. Mr. Funk then demonstrated how to thin, using branches of various kinds of trees."

Self Propagation He explained why an apple or pear has good seed around the seeds. "It is the purpose of an apple tree not only to bear fruit, but to propagate itself as well. In fact that is about all that an apple tree lives for. But the tree found that by putting a shell of good meat around its seeds, men and beasts would come and carry the fruit away, and in this manner the seeds were distributed. You have often heard, too, that nuts are very nourishing. They are so because the tree puts a great deal of nourishment into its seed so that it may grow where it falls.

The Codling Moth Elias H. Vogel of Lititz, read a paper on "The Codling Moth and the Curculio Spray." He explained the different mixtures adapted for spraying, and the best methods of spraying. After the speeches a discussion was held. Questions were asked by farmers in the audience and answered by Mr. Funk and Mr. Vogel.

LIVING OVER A TOMB. House in Paris Has a Private Entrance to the Catacombs.

Paris in many of its districts is built over the catacombs. These vast subterranean chambers and galleries produce that peculiar cavernous sound which is heard in the Luxembourg, Montparnasse, Vaugrard, Montreuil and Montmarais quarters when heavy carts pass rapidly along the coarsely metalled roads. The streets are then like monstrous drums beating funeral marches to the graves over that vast common grave of ten centuries of Parisians with its millions of skeleton dead.

The quaint little Gothic house at the corner of the recently prolonged Boulevard Raspail, which many an American artist must remember from his student days, actually has a private staircase leading to the catacombs from beneath a hermetically closed stone slab just in front of the door. From time to time certain officials visit this grim entrance, the existence of which is known to only a very few people.

A former occupant of the house, surprised by one of these visits, the reason of which was mysterious to him, was accustomed to relate that once in the dead of night while he watched, quaking from the room above, convinced that he was witnessing the final scene in some Gorkian political tragedy, a party of men the chief of whom wore half concealed under his coat the tricolor scarf of a police commissary, had conveyed a body through this entrance into the catacombs below.

Wellesley's Ancient Oak. A wide-spreading oak which experts have declared must have been growing at the time of the discovery of America by Columbus is a landmark on the estate of the late Arthur Hunnewell in Wellesley.

The magnificent tree measures 26 feet in circumference at the base. It is a noticeable landmark on account of its unusual size. It intersects the fence which separates the fertile fields of the Hunnewell estate from the highway, and thus arrests the attention of the passerby.

The late Mr. Hunnewell took great pride in the ancient tree. It has withstood the ravages of pests for a great many years and is apparently in condition to live for a great many more decades. Mr. Hunnewell once had the tree examined by an expert from the Smithsonian Institution, who declared that it was between 400 and 500 years old.

Ellet, the apostle to the Indians, frequently passed the towering oak while going to and from South Natick, where he preached to the Indians, the tree being beside what was an old trail.

Substitute For a Glass Cutter. Occasionally the man of the house or his wife may have need to cut a sheet of window glass and be without a glass cutter of any kind that will work.

An excellent substitute for the work is a pair of heavy scissors or shears that are of no particular value. Submerge the glass in water to a depth of three or four inches and cut the edge as you would a piece of pasteboard. A plate of glass may not be divided in half with this apparatus. It is supposed the narrow clippings will break away, but unless biting too deep in the main sheet that is to be preserved the weight of the water acts to prevent shattering as otherwise would be effected.

TAX COLLECTOR 74 YEARS OLD

Expected to Resign on Account of Feebleness — Gained Strength and Twenty-four Pounds by Taking Vinol.

Corinth, Miss.—"I am a city tax collector and seventy-four years of age. I was in a weak, run-down condition so that I became exhausted by every little exertion. My druggist told me about Vinol, and I decided to take it. In a week I noticed considerable improvement, I continued its use and now I have gained twenty pounds in weight, and feel much stronger. I consider Vinol a fine tonic to create strength for old people."—J. A. PRICE, Corinth, Miss.

As one grows old their organs act more slowly and less effectively than in youth, circulation is poor, the blood gets thin, the appetite poor and digestion weak. Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, is the ideal strengthener and body builder for old folks because it creates a good healthy appetite, strengthens digestion, enriches the blood, improves circulation and in this natural manner builds up, strengthens and invigorates feeble, run-down, nervous and aged people, and if it does not do all we say, we will pay back your money.
