

certainly... That music of which it has been said "vibrates through a man's being and rouses him to a higher life," finds a welcome field of usefulness in an institution of the character of the Homes and its uplifting power, arouses in the hearts of its beneficiaries, feelings of gratitude and thankfulness. As there is no reward of happiness which can equal that which comes from the knowledge of good done to others, surely it belongs to those who thus bring sunshine into the hearts of their less fortunate fellow-beings.

To Brother John W. Cooke, we were indebted for an excellent musical and literary entertainment on Wednesday, May 19, 1915, who arranged and managed the following program: Overture, Victor March, Orchestra; Song, Love's Old Sweet Song, Mr. John A. Snell; Recitation, Naming the Baby, Miss Mary Mae Neal; Trio, When you wore a Tulip and I wore a big red Rose, Mandolin Club; Recitation, The Class in Elocution, Miss Mary Mae Neal; Trio, For Banjo, Guitar & Mandolin, Mandolin Club; Selection, Apple Blossoms, Orchestra; Reading, Mr. Can-

The orchestra was composed of members of the Citizen's Band of Elizabethtown, and comprised Messrs. A. H. Rider, Violin; A. Hess, 1st Cornet; M. B. Wittle, 2nd cornet; J. W. Cooke, clarinet; S. P. Kiefer, trombone; and A. C. Kuhn, piano.

The mandolin club of Elizabethtown is composed of Messrs. Millard Galbach, Morris Selders and Lawrence Galbach.

With an array of musical talent, such as the above, the music could not be other than first class, and the entire program was of a high order of merit.

One year ago this Spring, the 587 Club of Manheim, composed of members of Manheim Lodge, No. 587 F. & A. M., came to the Homes and gave the guests a most enjoyable treat in the form of an old fashioned burnt cork Minstrel Show. The fun and laughter of their jokes and antics, and the thrilling harmony of their singing had not faded from our memories, when on Thursday, May 20, 1915, the same happy bunch, with an escort of a large number of their Manheim friends, again invaded the Homes their dusky countenances radiating with the budget of fun they had able company... The following was the excellent program: Introduction, We've Only One Idea; Woodman Spare That Tree, H. H. Martin; Angeline, (quartette) Blecher, P. Danner, H. Danner, Kendig; When You're Wearing the Ball and Chain, Martin, Blecher, Gingrich; When the Grown Up Ladies Act Like Babies, J. D. Hershey; I want to Linger, P. B. Danner, assisted by Witmyer, Kendig and Blecher; I'm glad my wife's in Germany, A. K. Kauffman; That Little Lamb Was Me, Kauffman, Martin, Blecher, Gingrich; The Yankee Doodle Ship, J. C. Gingrich; Piano Solo, U. H. Hershey, Ridin' on de Gravel Train, Chorus; Finale, Back to the Caroline You Love.

These amateur performers are young business men of Manheim and members of Lodge, No. 587, who have sacrificed their time, trouble and talent to furnish enjoyment for their families; and on this occasion especially, to bring good cheer to the guests of the Home. Their efforts were superlatively successful and rivaled the best efforts of professionals. While the sentiments which inspired the kind act as well as the great pleasure given to the guests of the Homes and every one in the audience, merits the profound thanks of the management and every one who was fortunate enough to be present.

On Sunday afternoon, May 23, 1915, the Citizen's Band of Elizabethtown kindly gave a delightful Sacred Concert in the large and beautiful rustic pavilion in Mount Moriah Grove.

Musical echoes will continue their charms the present week, for on Wednesday evening, May 26, 1915, Miss M. Elizabeth Miller, teacher of music in Elizabethtown College, will repeat for the benefit of the guests of the Homes, the exceptionally fine Spring Concert recently presented in Market Hall. All the music lovers of the Homes, and friends of the Homes, will be welcome to the enjoyment of this rare vocal and instrumental treat.

An entertainment of different character but no less interesting and enjoyable will take place on Friday evening, May 28, 1915, when Brother Fuller Bergstresser of Middletown will deliver his humorous lecture, which has met with unstinted praise wherever it has been given.

Memorial Day Services will be held in Grand Lodge Hall on Monday, May 31, 1915 at 10:00 A. M. The members of John M. Good Post, No. 566 G. A. R., General Nelson A. Miles Camp, No. 26, Sons of Veterans and the Boy Scouts have accepted the invitation to be present.

The Homes are fortunate in having secured, for the occasion, the able services of Brother Samuel Hamilton, District Deputy Grand Master of District No. 38, of Wilkesburg, Pa., to deliver the address.

The interest of the occasion will be enhanced by the presence of R. W. Grand Master, J. Henry Williams and Mrs. Williams of Philadelphia, and also by Brother Past Master George W. McCandless, a member of the Committee on Masonic Homes, from Pittsburgh, who will be accompanied by the officers of the 53 Lodges in Allegheny County.

Wire Nail Kills Steer
Several days ago a valuable steer belonging to Harry M. Frey, of Central Manor, became ill and refused to eat the food in its trough. A veterinarian was called, but was unable to diagnose the animal's ailment. After a week had passed and the steer had not eaten, signs of strangulation began to develop and a small lump made its appearance on the outside of the animal's throat. A few days ago the steer became worse and its efforts to get its breath were indeed pathetic. It was then decided to kill the steer and after its death the throat was cut open and in it was a wire nail over three inches in length which had closed the passages in the throat and wind pipe. It is believed the nail was in the feed and found its way into the steer's throat while eating. The steer weighed over 1200 pounds and had been sold by Mr. Frey for $100, and was being held by him for the purchaser until he was ready to take it away.

Stole Fish—Lost Watch
The farm of Henry Shank, who resides just north of East Petersburg, was visited by trout fishermen a few nights ago. Mr. Shank had a number of fine, large trout in his spring and several were taken by the night anglers. He was, however, handsomely repaid for the loss of the speckled beauties because one of the prowlors lost a fine gold watch, which was found close to the spring by Mr. Shank next morning. The owner of the timepiece has not called for it as yet and it is very doubtful if he will, but it's a safe bet that he has some sad thoughts whenever he hears the name trout.

He's Much Better
H. H. Engle Rowenna, has been quite ill from the effects of ptomaine poisoning, during the past week. He is again able to be out doors some of the time, but is far from being in his usual health. He and Mrs. meant to go west in the near future, but from present indications the trip will not be undertaken at the time that had been decided upon.

Lancaster county is gradually being relieved from the many restrictions placed upon it by the Federal Board of Animal Industry, due to the recent outbreak of hoof and mouth disease. Effective today, an order has been issued from Washington, making Lancaster county a modified area. By this is meant, that interstate shipment of cattle, sheep and other ruminants and swine is permitted for immediate slaughter without any official inspection, to points in the quarantined area.

Animals may be moved into Lancaster county from points without for any purpose. Dressed carcasses of animals, the hide the skins, wool, hair and hoofs of such animals, and of hay, straw and similar fodder, can be moved within and to points without any restrictions whatever.

This last order will be a great relief to the hides and grain dealers in Lancaster county, for their business has been at a standstill practically since last October.

The counties effected by the recent orders are Berks, Bucks, Chester, Cumberland, Dauphin, Delaware, Lehigh, York and Montgomery. Lebanon county is made an exposed area under the recent federal orders.

NEED 18,000 MEN
Bumper Crops of West to Require Many Laborers

The Division of Information of the Bureau of Immigration, of the U. S. Department of Labor, has been advised by the Commissioner of Labor of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, that from 16,000 to 18,000 men will be needed this season for the harvesting of grain. The Department is informed that the vast majority of farmers of Oklahoma want English-speaking white men. For this reason, persons other than English-speaking white men, who wish employment in the harvest fields of Oklahoma, should first communicate with W. G. Ashton, Commissioner of Labor, of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, to find out whether or not he can secure employment for them.

It will be necessary for all persons desiring this harvest work to defray their own expenses to and from the place of employment.

Harvest will begin in the Southwestern part of Oklahoma about June 5; in the North Central counties about June 8, and in the extreme Northwestern part of Oklahoma about June 12th.

County Rich in Possessions
The wealth of Lancaster county is shown by statistics just compiled from the assessor's books. The number of property owners is 21,658; there are 22,140 tenants, 8217 single men and 1531 single women who pay taxes. The assessed value of real estate is $110,826,238, and church and school property exempt is valued at $8,295,979. There are 58,432 acres of timber land and 515,597 of farm land.

Taxes are paid on 29,511 horses, valued at $2,152,581 and on 28,980 cattle, assessed at $852,621.

The amount realized from county taxes is $263,838.72. There is invested in mortgages and judgments $32,376,794.

The Printer's Wickedness
Unobserved and announced the president of the Church society entered the composing room just in time to hear these words from the mouth of the printer, says the Wau-pun Democrat: "Billy, go to the devil and tell him to finish that 'murder' he began this morning. Then 'kill' William Jennings Bryan's Grandchild' and dump 'The Sweet Angel of Mercy' into the hell box. Then makeup that 'Naughty Parisian Actress' and lock up 'The Lady in Her Boudoir.'"

Horrified, the good woman fled from that place of sin and her children wonder why they are not allowed to play with the printer's youngsters.

Have You a Horse to Sell?
Lancaster County horses are going to Europe for cannon food. J. D. Bair of New Holland, recently sent 400 to a Richmond buyer, who sends them to France, half for artillery and half for cavalry. Horses must be 15 hands high and five to eight years old.

Cigar Factory Entered
The Doyle cigar factory at Elizabethtown was entered by thieves on Sunday night. They pruned open one of the back windows and all they took was a few cigars. The theft was discovered by the employees when they went to work on Monday morning.

No More Paper Balloons
The bill forbidding the sale or use of any balloon made or intended to contain fire for the purpose of ascension, has been signed by the Governor. The measure prohibits any person from setting adrift paper balloons either during the daytime or nighttime.
