Some one advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I had taken so much medicine and my doctor said he could do me no good so I told my husband he might get me a bottle and Iwould try it. By the time I had taken it I felt better. I continued its use, and now I am well and strong.

"I have always recommended your medicine ever since I was so wonderfully benefitted by it and I hope this letter will be the means of saving some other poor woman from suffering."- Sellers Mrs. MARTHA SEAVEY, Box 1144, Unionville, Missouri.

The makers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have thousands of such letters as that above - they tell the truth, else they could not have been obtained for love or money. This medicine is no stranger - it has stood the test for years.

If there are any complications you do not understand write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Many have been the notable religious services held at the Homes since the opening of Grand Lodge Hall, and high is the standard established for these services, by reason of the pulpit oratory and the excellence of the musical talent presented.

At the very summit of the pinnacle of this distinction, stands the religious services of Sunday, July 11, 1915. This was the date set apart for the pilgrimage of the members of the Fraternity of York County, with their friends, to the Homes, and to conduct the services. A Committee of arrangements, under the efficient chairmanship of Brother Samuel H. Strack of Lodge, No. 451, have the credit of the complete success of their efforts. At 12:30 o'clock, they had the satisfaction of seeing an assemblage of upwards of one hundred automobiles with their human freight lined up at the front of the church at York, and as the procession moved off, on its pilgrimage, the bells of the church rang out the chimes of "Onward Christian Soldiers," played by Brother Lewis B.

They arrived at the Homes shortly Electrical Contractor after 2:00 o'clock and were accompanied by the Rev. Samuel H. Stein, Pastor of the Trinity First Reformed Church of York, and a member of Lodge, No. 502 of Mechanicsburg, Pa. They were also accompanied by the splendid quartet choir of Trinity Church, which is composed of Mrs. T. Byron Smith. Elsie C.
