PAGE SEVEN

ond

du bis-ssa, der aer-nsht fer-fer-hich ols-rafa chtie uff-hva, cher

des

naen Now

ouse rl is,

un

den

ihn

aman Ich's

breef

beiza

daets

mous

town

Har-

prin-s of

was

the vision

These

hletic

vill be

Central

in and school

w field

f rain

ock on Eliza-

short

e inun-

washed

muddy at Lan-ing the rwards.

(From)

ord

o feed

itless-

d just

away

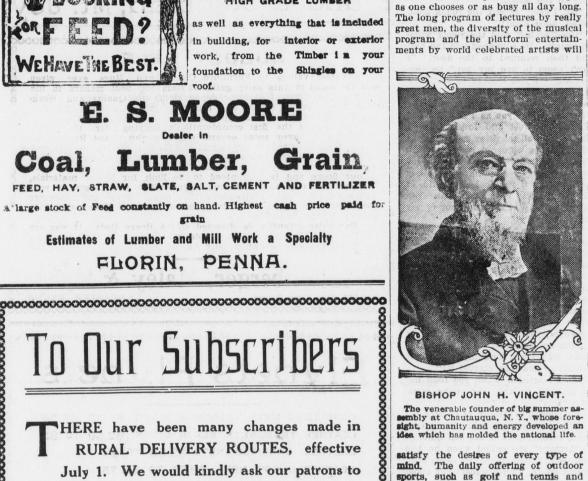

dollar

CHMAN

Book.

+

Six presidents of the United States have spoken on this platform. The leaders in American life and thought / have here found their most responsive audiences. This auditorium seats 5,300 people comfortably and will as commodate 7,500. Its open air sides afford perfect ventilation and comfort during the hottest days. and yearly donations from generous friends. Its summer schools and read-

THE BULLETIN, MT. JOY, PA.

Chautaugua Institution—World Famous For Forty Years

Popular Resort Combines Fishing and Philosophy, Recreation and Religion. Outdoor Sports and Inspiration.

ALL ROUND PROGRAM FOR 20,000 "FRIENDLY FOLKS."

TOR over forty years Chautauqua itual consciousness of life and its pur-Institution on the Lake, at poses which would give direction to Chautauqua, N. Y., has been Nowhere in the world can so many world famous as a summer resort, both for its educational features great minds be met with in the same which have been the pattern for all short space of time as at Chautauqua the home reading clubs, correspondence during the huge sixty-day program, which occupies the summer season schools and the summer schools now connected with every great university. through July and August. Without and for its general all round summer exception the greatest statesmen, the life.

Nowhere in the world can so extensive a program of lectures and concerts, dramatic entertainments, conferences of nation wide importance and platform entertainment be obtained, along with the equal of its bathing beaches. the twenty mile lake for boating, the golf course, fast roque and tennis courts, ball ground and a score of other athletic games and outdoor sports. Not a Commercial Enterprise.

But Chautauqua Institution is not commercial enterprise, as many suppose. It is incorporated as an educational and philanthropic project. The income is figured on actual cost and is supplemented by endowment funds sides give perfect ventilation and com- tauqua; Bishop Francis J. McConnell fort during even the hottest days of of Denver and Dr. Samuel B. McCorthe year. Five years ago a magnifi- mick, University of Pittsburgh, will cent Massey organ, the gift of the also be on the program for a series of manufacturer and worth at least $30,- talks. Special weeks this summer will be

To have been a member of this devoted to particularly live topics. Chautauqua audience is to have enjoyed a tremendous privilege. To have question for some 500 lawyers to wranbeen a speaker on this greatest of the gle over, under the leadership of Jus world's public forums is a distinction tice William L. Ransom of New York which thousands covet and but a com- City's city court. George W. Alger will would be suspected by the 50,000 peobe featured with his series of lectures, based on matter recently published in the World's Work Magazine. And Dr Katharine Bement Davis, New York Chautauqua's eight week program than Chautauqua's eight week program than city commissioner of correction, will speak on "Prison Reform." Temperance week will bring a live small gate fee of $8 per season. The discussion of the national prohibition campaign. Ex-Governor Malcolm R. Patterson of Tennessee will tell "Why I Changed Front on the Liquor Question," and Hon. J. Denny O'Neil of sional lines from the big universities, Pittsburgh will speak on "Prohibition From the Business Man's Point of musicians just off tour, preachers whose names are household words and View." Many other prohibition and temperance speakers will attend, and William Jennings Bryan has indicated Very often there are forty events or more scheduled daily. And at least 120 his desire to be present. lectures and 200 popular concerts are

Wednesday, August 18, 1915.

Shrewd Housewives Will Hurry to Secure Their Wants From This August Blanket Sale Commencing Saturday, Aug. 21 For One Week Only

Many women have asked us if they could save any money by purchasing their winter blankets early. Our new blankets had not then arrived, but now they are here, and a finer lot of blankets would be hard to find. For this one week, we have marked special prices on several lots of blankets. These reductions will mean great savings to those women who anticipate their winter needs during this sale.

Hotel and Boarding House Keepers would do well to select from these offerings.

$1.00 Cotton blankets, 85c pr. In double bed size, tan col-or only. Bound with neat mohair binding.

$1.25 Cotton Bed Blankets, 98c pr. Full size. Bound with a neat mohair binding. $1.50 Cotton Blankets at $1.25 pr. Large enough for any

. In grey, tan or white. $2.50 Fancy Plaid Blankets, $1.89 pr. Large size. In grey bed. and white, blue and white, pink and white and tan and white plaids. At $2.00 we offer blankets that we consider the greatest value ever offered. They are full size and weigh 41 lbs. In either grey or white, with colored borders. Mohair binding, same color as the borders. At $2.50—Blankets of part wool, in grey and white, with colored borders. Double bed size.

At $3.00-Blankets of half wool, weighing 51 lbs. Full size in grey only At $3.50-White Wool Blankets, that are almost all-wool, and worth at least a dollar more. Have blue and pink bor-ders, bound with pretty mohair binding.

At $5 and $10 we are showing the finest display of the bet-ter grade Blankets, in part wool and all wool, that we have ev-er shown. They are here in white, greys and fancy plaids.

MONEY-SAVING PRICES ON BED SPREADS At $1.00 we offer the finest Bed Spread that we have ever offered at this price. You must see it to appreciate this fact.

$2.50 Satin Marseilles Bed Spreads at $1.98 each. Hand-some patterns and of a most desirable weight. A splendid spread at this little price. $4.50 Satin Marseilles Bed Spreads at $3.00. Don't fail to see these spreads at this reduced price.

Colored Bed Spreads, in navy, brown, light blue and pink-$1.00, $1.50 and $2.00

10c Bleached Shaker Flannel at 8c yr. 32 inches wide and extra heavy at this price. Bleached Shaker Flannel, 5c yd. 27 inches wide. Quantity limited

Ready-MadeSheets, Fillow Cases and Bolster Cases

Bleached Sheets at 29c, 55c, 59c, 62½c, 75c and 80c Bleached Pillow Cases at 10c, 12½c, 15c, 17c and 20c Bleached Bolster Pillows at 22c, 30c and 33c. Hemstitched at 43c, 48c and 50c Bleached Hemstitched Pillow Cases at 17c, 22c and 25c Bleached Sheeting, full width at 23c, 25c, 28c and 33c Pillow case Muslin at 11c, 13c, 15c and 18c yd.

NEW YORK STORE LANCASTER, PA.

Subscribe for the Mt. Joy Bulletin.

best known authors, the wisest educators, the foremost politicians, the most famous travelers and the most active propagandists have all found a place there and a friendly welcome to Chautauqua's platform. The great am hitheater, which seats 5,300 people confortably and can accommodate 7,500, has been the scene of many an important address dealing with the greatest issues of the day. Six presidents of the United States each individual.

have graced this platform and praised the institution as the great world's forum that it is. The acoustics of this huge outdoor amphitheater are well known to speakers of every nationality. The open 000, was installed.

parative few enjoy. Expensive "Talent."

More money is spent on "talent" for entertainers of the highest grade.

given during the period, so that every type of mind and individual taste may Chautauqua life brings speakers and

FORUM-CHAUTAUQUA, N. Y.

Speakers and Mammoth Program.

thought have always found the Chau-

This coming season a noted and va-

Mary Antin, world famous as a Ward. Wisconsin's state adviser on

We will be unable to know what individual changes have been made owing to the complicated rearrangements of various routes over entire Northern Lancaster County send in their new address, and also the old address.

SOLD BY DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE

Read the Bulletin

spepsia Tablets

W. GARBER

lieve Your Indigestion

clined to the athletic. The work of the ple who get its full benefits for th summer schools occupies 2,400 adult budget runs into the tens of thousands. students and runs the gamut from basketry to music through 300 separate | But the very best is thereby obtainedcourses under the best available teach- statesmen fresh from their duties at Washington or the various state capi-Those with the religious bent will tals, authorities on social and profesand many worth while conferences and lecture courses. America's Greatest Forum.

roque, bathing and boating of all kinds, track events, tramping and riding and driving, give free play for those in-

Chautauqua Life Is "Different."

Chautauquans-and there are mil-Mons of them-have a purpose in life. The ideal, which John H. Vincent, the founder, so sturdily cultivated in his people, was the balanced life, a strong body with a strong mind and a spirknown actress, Edith Wynne Matthison, find something of information, educawill give a series of recitals from his tion or inspiration to carry home for written plays, "The Servant In the the coming year. House," "The Terrible Meek," etc. Special addresses will also be given audience close together with its air of comfort and informality. by Thomas Mott Osborne, warden of Sing Sing penitentiary, noted for his advanced prison methods; Hamilton WORLD'S GREATEST PUBLIC Wright Mabie, literary editor of Outlook Magazine; Harold J. Howland, associate editor of Independent Maga-zine; Rabbi Stephen S. Wise of New York, Amos P. Wilder, Dr. Katharine B. Davis, New York's commissioner of correction, and Superintendent William M. Davidson of the Pittsburgh public schools The Chautauqua Players, under the of the nation's great statesmen, aulead of M. Benedict Papot, "the leadthors, educators, travelers and propaing amateur actor in America," will present a series of well known plays, one each week. Music will be represented by the Chautauqua chorus of during the last forty years. 500, under Mr. Hallam, and by the faried array of such talent is offered: mous Russian Symphony Orchestra, with William Wade Hinshaw of the Metropolitan Opera Company and Ernest Hutcheson, noted pianist, as soloists. The Religious Features.

The religious features of the program Turner Bailey, America's greatest exwill be in the hands of Dean Shailer Mathews, president of the Federal returned from his task of awarding Council of Churches and head of the prizes at the Panama-Pacific Exposi-Chicago Theological School at the Unition, will spend the summer at Chauversity of Chicago. He has just retauqua. turned from a special mission to Japan

Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, presiin the interests of international peace. dent of the General Federation of Such figures as Dr. Frank W. Gunsau-Women's Clubs, will give general adlus, president of Armour Institute; Bishop Charles D. Williams, Protestant dresses and also conduct special ex-Episcopal bishop of Michigan; Bishop ercises for her constituency. Charles tative in Mexico, will be among the John H. Vincent, chancellor of Chau- Rann Kennedy and his wife, the well speakers.

roadways and water courses. Picnic a Big Success The combined Sunday schools Wasn't From Missouri It wasn't a Missouri editor but a printer's devil who was going taru is first experience on "making un" is first experience on "making up" joys and sorrows owed him five forms. The paper was late and the years subscription. years subscription.

boy got the galleys mixed. The first part of the obituary notice of a ecunious citizen had been dumped in the forms and the next handful of type came off a galley describing a recent fire. It read like this: Kreider, president of the Mt. Gretna Campmeeting Association, was pre-The pall bearers lowered the body Campmeeting Association, was pre-to the grave and as it was consigned sented at a meeting of the Associa-to the flames there were few if any regrets for the old wreck had been that over $10,000 was handled by regrets for the old wreck had been that over $10,000 was handled by an eyesore to the town for years. Of the Association in the past year and course there was individual loss, but that $1,000 was expended to better their figures are good calculators.

Week of the Great War.

A week devoted to a study of the "War of Eleven Nations In Europe" will find several speakers of authority who are just back from the front. Dr. Lincoln Wirt, special representative for the World Peace Foundation and the Boston Herald, will return to make his first public report at Chautauqua. Norman Angell, whose books showing the logical fallacy of war upset mod ern ideas as to its necessity, will expound his widely quoted views. Dr. Herbert Adams Gibbons, special writ-Sixty Day Assembly Will Have Big er for the New York Herald and anthor of two recent books dealing with "Changes In Europe," will conduct The leaders in American life and summer classes and lecture on the subtauqua platform hospitably open to ject. Director Arthur Bestor will dethem, and there have been very few scribe Europe's war lords from his recent intimate studies of their personalities, and Sanford Griffith, who has gandists who have not appeared before just returned from Belgium, where he Chautauqua assembly at some time served as "special field investigator," will describe the horrors of war and life at the front as he saw it.

Community affairs will be discussed in every possible connection during a young Jewish author and champion of week in which sessions will be led by the immigrant, will lecture. E. J. Mr. E. J. Ward, Wisconsin's state adviser on civic improvements and the civic development, will direct a week's like. Social centers in the city and work on "Community Service." Henry public school centers in the country will be particularly featured. Inter ponent of art in every day life, just nationalism and Christianity will be the, final week, and the theme will be "What Is the Duty of Christianity as a Power In the Present Military Crisis?" Dr. Frank Gunsaulus, Dr. Charles E. Jefferson, Bishop James W. Bashford, Dr. Lemuel C. Barnes, Hon. Amos P. Wilder and Hon. John Lind, who was Maytown held a picnic at Chickies Park last Wednesday. It was the largest outing held this season and amusements were provided for everybody. Automobiles, hay ladder wagons and other conveyances were used to bring the people from May-town to Marietta, where special cars were taken for the park.

Call at Firestone Headquarters Above for Biggest Tire Value

Firestone Tire & Rubber Co. "America's Largest Exclusive Tire and Rim Makers" Akron, Ohio-Branches and Dealers Everywhere

32.15 39.80 51.50

Believe in Good Roads, Too The angual report of Hom. A. S.