ETOWN AUTOIST IN WRONG

Held Under $200 Bail for His Appearance Before a Justice

Isaac Zerpher of Elizabethtown, Pa., is held under two hundred dollars bail for his appearance at the office of Squire Rodfoud, on a charge of injuring Mrs. H. B. Blumenstock of Royallton. A team driven by Mrs. Blumenstock was standing in front of Witman's Bakery, on North Ann street, Middletown, on Wednesday evening, when an automobile crashed into the wagon, throwing Mrs. Blumenstock to the ground, causing serious injuries. The driver of the car made his escape, and no clew to his identity was found until Sunday, when Officers Engle and Stipe of Middletown and Constable Richard Plummer of Elizabethtown, arrested Zerpher. When cross-examined the young man confessed that the license he carried was not his own, and was being used until a new one arrived.

Neal of the Navy

A serial story conducted along entirely new lines will begin in The North American for Thursday, Aug. 26, and be continued a chapter a day.

The title of the story is "Neal of the Navy"; the author is William Hamilton Osborne, one of the leading American creators of fiction. Incident after incident of the most thrilling character combine to make the story grip the attention of the reader, and motion pictures based upon these incidents will be shown in leading theatres, thus heightening the interest of the reader. The first episode of the story—the first six instalments and the first two reels of the motion picture—are based upon the catastrophe of Mount Pelee, and so successfully have they been written and planned that they send the story off at a rattling gallop. The picture of the scenes described will include many feet of real volcanic eruption, one of the most marvelous bits of action ever shown on the screen. "Neal of the Navy" represents another departure. Never before has a writer of the standing of Mr. Osborne written an original story with the purpose of having it screened. It marks a new departure and a new class of motion-picture play.

INCORPORATION PLANS OPPOSED

Property Owners Are Divided on Making Mt. Gretna a Boro

A movement for the incorporation of Mount Gretna into a borough is on foot, but considerable opposition has developed among the property owners. The plan is unique in that this is the community of summer residents only, and while there are 2,500 or 3,000 inhabitants during three or four months of the year, there are less than a half-dozen legal voters within the confines of the proposed borough.

The summer community is made up of cottage owners and tenants, who occupy some 500 cottages and bungalows on the slope of the South Mountain, within the confines of two corporate communities—the Pennsylvania Chautauqua and the United Brethren Campmeeting Association and the vacationists summering at Hotel Conewago, on the top of a hill above the town. The two corporations, which, with the Cornwall and Lebanon Railroad Company, own all the land hereabouts except that used by the State in the National Guard encampments, have sold small parcels to the cottagers under certain restrictions, and these corporations have assumed responsibility for roads, water, sewerage and lighting facilities, which have developed the chautauqua community. It was because some $3,000 is annually paid by the cottage owners to the townships in which the corporate lands are located as school and road tax and because these tax monies are used by the townships for improvements outside of the Mount Gretna district that the plan of a borough government was suggested in order to keep the taxes at home.

A joint committee, which has appointed a board of three members, has taken the standpoint of the chautauqua and campmeeting associations, but already a spirited opposition to the plan has been launched. Senator E. E. Beldeman in a heated debate at a meeting of property owners called for the informal exchange of opinions on the plan. Senator Beldeman has been a summer resident in the chautauqua community for a number of years. Certain it is that there will be vigorous opposition to the plan, and the necessity of securing a sufficient number of voters to declare their legal residence in the place while it is virtually deserted from September to May promises hard sledding ahead for the movement.
