Kauffman—Barr
A beautiful wedding was solemnized last evening at 6:30 when Miss Catherine H. Kauffman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Kauffman, became the bride of Homer A. Barr. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, on West Donegal street, by Rev. N. A. Barr of Tremont, father of the groom. The bride wore a handsome costume of white voile and lace, and wore a corsage bouquet of valley lilies and roses. Miss Jane O. Kauffman of Philadelphia, sister of the bride, and Mr. Solon V. Barr of Steelton, brother of the groom, were attendants. Miss Emma Renk of Lancaster, played the wedding march from Lohengrin as a processional, and afterwards, the wedding march from Mendelssohn. After the ceremony and congratulations, an excellent supper was served. The table decorations were in roses and carnations, carrying out a color scheme of pink and white. The house was handsomely decorated with palms, ferns, and cut flowers. The bride received handsome gifts of silver, cut glass, china and linens. Mr. and Mrs. Barr left that evening on a short trip by auto to Philadelphia and other points, and after November first, will be at home to their friends in their newly furnished home on Marietta street. Among the guests present were: Rev. and Mrs. N. A. Barr of Tremont, Mr. Solon Barr of Steelton, the Misses Alma Kauffman, Jane O. Kauffman and Ethel Chryst of Philadelphia; Miss Emma Brenner of Millersville; the Misses Iva and Bertha Martin, Emma Renk and Alice, Eisenman, Mrs. Naomi Stephens and Nesta Stephens of Lancaster; Miss Daisy Dourich of Elizabethtown and Mr. Irvin Glafelter of Rowenna.
Mr. Barr is the proprietor of Barr's Garage in this place. The Bulletin joins their many friends in wishing them much happiness.

SUMMER PLAYERS AT CHAUTAUQUA, N. Y.

Wonderful Amateur Company Produces Best Plays With Settings of Burlap and Pasteboard.

Few stock companies have ever attracted as much attention as the amateur company of Chautauqua Players, which produce the best obtainable plays, both modern and classic, in the big auditorium at Chautauqua, N. Y. M. Benedict Papot, who is an instructor of languages at Chicago university, directs the company of twenty and, with the common combinations of burlap and pasteboard backgrounds, obtains effects that are pronounced marvelous by the best critics.
M. Papot has long been known as the "best amateur stage director in America" and has a wonderful capacity for contriving scenic effects. He is a hard worker and during the Christmas vacation took his company to New York city, where they produced their repertoire under the auspices of the House of Play Foundation, at St. Mark's church on the Bowery.
The New York Times gave them high praise, and their stay had to be prolonged to repeat several productions.
Everywhere there is now a great vogue for amateur theatricals and for simplicity in stage effects. Chautauqua has taken the lead in this respect, and her players have won applause wherever they have gone.
Pino's "Sweet Lavender," Clyde Fitch's "Nathan Hale" and Grundy's "A Pair of Spectacles" will be given this season.

WOMEN INDORSE CHAUTAUQUA

Strengthened and Encouraged by It, Declares Noted Club President.
From Chautauqua, N. Y., I go back to the million women of the General Federation of Women's Clubs strengthened and encouraged and tell them of that place where a woman can be reinvigorated and sent back home proud of that noblest profession—being a woman," said Mrs. Percy V. Pennbacker, president of this largest organization of women, in a recent interview.

"Women everywhere are taking a live interest in public affairs, civic and social administration. Their minds are open to gather facts. At Chautauqua they find the greatest preachers, the best teachers, famous writers and statesmen.
"The democratic air of comfort and informality brings speaker and audience closer together. The rolling hills, the pleasant walks, the bracing highland lake air, strengthen the careworn. This combination makes every one glad they are alive, whether woman or man or child."
Summer Schools at Chautauqua, N. Y.
For many years registration in Chautauqua's Summer Schools has annually exceeded all previous records. The reason is obviously in the excellent service which is given by the corps of university teachers and instructors along professional lines. Two thousand four hundred students and more were registered during July and August, 1914. The institution supplies 110 instructors, according to their regular categories. Ten college buildings and 300 separate courses are available. Nine hundred children are cared for in classes under their special department. These schools were organized in 1885. By President William R. Harper of the University of Chicago and have since set an example which has been the standard for nearly all the great summer schools of this country.
Twenty scholarships entitling the holders to Summer School privileges are given out annually to teachers in Ohio, Pennsylvania and New York. Bishop Vincent's motto, "Education Ends Only With Life," has a real meaning for most people at Chautauqua. Men and women of all ages, and two being in the dignities, are registered in the Summer Schools. All show a keen interest and a youthful enthusiasm.

CHAUTAUQUA.

What the Word Means and Where it Came From.
An Indian chief pulled a big muskrat lounge from the cool waters of a twenty mile lake and properly called it Chautauqua lake. Bishop Vincent and his coworker, Lewis Miller of Akron, O., sought a beautiful point on its shores for their convention of Sunday school teachers in 1874. And with Bishop Vincent's popular ideas for educating folks of middle age and teaching them how to enjoy life the place grew into an institution at Chautauqua, N. Y., that is now world famous.
The name is borne by five towns in Illinois, Kansas, New York, Texas and Washington, by many industries in western New York state, by apartment houses in New York city and by a

UNIVERSAL PEACE

This nation is now in the midst of a controversy as to how best to promote universal peace. That question we will leave for diplomats to discuss, but peace within nations is no less important than peace between nations and it is heavily laden with prosperity for every citizen within our commonwealth.
Many leading politicians and oftentimes political platforms have declared war upon business and no cabinet crisis ever resulted. Many men have died in high places and hurled "gas bombs" at industry; trust bayonets into business enterprises and bombarded agriculture with indifference. Party leaders have many times broken diplomatic relations with industry; sent political aviators spying through the affairs of business, and political submarines have sent torpedoes crushing into the destiny of commerce. During the past quarter of a century we have fought many a duel with progress, permitted many politicians to carry on a guerrilla warfare against civilization and point a pistol at the heart of honest enterprise.
No man should be permitted to cry out for universal peace until his record has been searched for explosives, or for noisel armed or laden with munitions of war should be given a clearance to sail for the port of Universal Peace. Let us by all means have peace, but peace, like charity, should begin at home.

GRASPING AT THE SHADOW

No man—especially if he is married—would deny woman any right she demands. Take the earth and give us peace, but why does woman long for the ballot?
When all is said and done, is not the selection of the butcher more important to the home than the election of a mayor; is not the employment of the dairyman a far more important event in the life of the children than the appointment of a postmaster; is not the selection of books for the family library more important than voting bonds for jail and court house? Why does woman lay aside the important things in life? Why leave the substance and grasp at the shadow?
It is said to the credit of womanhood that it is not, as a rule, the woman who rocks the cradle that wants to cast the ballot; it is not the mother who teaches her children to say "Now I lay me down to sleep" that harangues the populace; it is not the daughter who hopes to reign as queen over a happy home that longs for the uniform of the suffragette. It is, as a rule, the woman who despises her home, neglects her children and scorns a method that leads paradise and smashes windows.

WOMAN REFUSES OPERATION

Tells How She Was Saved by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Louisville, Ky.—"I think if more suffering women would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound they would enjoy better health. I suffered from a female trouble, and the doctors decided I had a tumorous growth and would have to be operated upon, but I refused as I do not believe in operations. I had fainting spells, bloated, and could hardly stand the pain in my left side. My husband insisted that I try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am so thankful I did, for I am now a well woman. I sleep better, do all my housework and take long walks. I never fail to praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for my good health."—Mrs. J. M. Resch, 1500 West Broadway, Louisville, Ky.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, it is not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering in a like manner?
If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
