A grain of thought is the real thing in rapid transit.

Those Cossack Boots would be more appropriate if this were Russia.

A man seldom does anything the way a woman thinks it should be done.

Britain finds it especially difficult to "muddle through" the enemy's lines.

It's no cinch belonging to the fire department in a war munitions community.

Everybody that does not wear them is willing that overalls shall be pink.

Well, May Irwin's views about the President certainly should have weight.

While waiting for a dead man's shoes you could probably earn a better pair.

Judging by Constantinople's reports, every day is Turkey day on Gallipoli.

Nobody calls Mr. Bryan "Colonel" any more. He was colonel once but it did not take.

Whenever there is a lull in the world's affairs Arnold Bennett publishes a book.

Somehow, these prominent peace-at-any-prices, irresistibly remind us of the Liberty Bell.

Anyway, T. R.'s and Woodrow's preparedness discussion can hardly be called prophetic.

If the Russian boot is generally worn in winter, why not the Fiji stocking in summer?

"Administration says we will not oppose Kitchin." Well, Kitchin now about a little reciprocity.

These Irishmen coming over here to avoid fight should change their color from green to yellow.

The old blue laws were probably enacted for the purpose of preventing men from painting town red.

Possibly military necessity compelled the torpedoing of Battling Bob LaFollette by Uncle Ike Stephenson.

"To live as a member of the great white race of men, to share its thoughts and its aspirations, it is necessary that a man should read his newspaper," said U. S. Senator Sterling, of South Dakota, in an address to the students at the University of South Dakota.

"The newspaper," he continued, "has come to be indispensable. It goes and penetrates everywhere. It has been said of the newspapers that they are to the whole civilized world what the daily house talk is to the household; they keep our daily interest in each other; they save us from the evils of isolation. I like to go back to the splendid principle on which the fine structure rests. And that principle is the freedom of the press. Our forefathers must have had the gift of prophecy in regard to the press; they must have foreseen to what power and influence it would come. They had no dread of publicity of official acts or motives. They had faith in the ultimate triumph of truth. Jefferson was willing that error might be presented if truth could only be left free to combat it. He was opposed to a censorship of the press, and said that if he must choose between a government without newspapers and newspapers without a government he would prefer to risk the newspapers without the government. He believed that public opinion would measurably correct things if public opinion were left free, but that government without a free expression of public opinion would soon become a despotism."

Suffrage Conference on Wednesday Suffragists are urged to keep in mind the Suffrage Conference to be held on Wednesday, Dec. 8, at 2 o'clock in the Woolworth Building. Every suffragist is invited to come with question to have answered or to answer, plans to propose or changes to suggest. The conference will be short and practical. The delegates to the Philadelphia Convention represented every part of the county and have come home full of news and plans to discuss on Wednesday.

MASTERTONVILLE

Local Dealer Paying Good Prices for Hides

Many rabbits have escaped this year and next year the bunnies should be found galore.

N. E. Ginder's old horse kicked himself out of his harness and smashed part of the wagon.

The price of fat hogs has dropped considerably and they are now selling at 7 and 7 1/2 cents live weight.

Mr. Willis Burkholder returned from his wedding visit and has again resumed his duties in the store.

Revival services opened at Chiques meetinghouse, on Saturday evening, December 5th. All people are invited to attend.

The tobacco is selling very rapidly now and it looks as though good prices will prevail. The prevailing price is 10 and 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Landis G. Becker visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elias Geib, on Sunday, being entertained at a wedding reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Becker visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Helsey, when several others were also entertained, namely, Mr. and Mrs. John Helsey, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel N. Becker, Mr. and Mrs. Abram Helsey and Willis and Mary Helsey.

The Mastertonville school, is in full swing and the classes are rounding into shape. The Literary Society reorganized on Friday.

David Helsey, president; Katie Zug, secretary; Paul Zug, editor; Rufus Helsey, critic. This Literary Society will endeavor to train the boys and girls in pure literary work. Great interest is manifested and great results will come.

Charles G. Becker will buy your raw furs paying highest prices for good stock. Skunk No. 1, $3.00; muskrat, No. 1, 25 cents; opossum, No. 1, 75 cents; fox, No. 1, $3.50, raccoons, mink, weasels, etc. Put your furs up right and you can make money, because good furs have doubled in value. Do not catch fur bearing animals too early.

Too Good To Live He never smoked; he never drank; He never said "How dry I am!" The filthy weed he thought was rank, He never used the cuss word, He came home early every night— Of this fact I am positive— And on his tombstone one might write:

"Alas, He was too good to live!"

A model man in all respects, He even went to Sunday school; Quite free was he from all defects; He'd never heard of Kelly pool; His hard-earned salary each week To Friend Wife he would always give, And those who would his tombstone seek Might read: "He was too good to live!"

He paid subscriptions in advance; He never knocked his native town; He wielded no reformer's lance; He never sought for cheap renown; If you but pleased him, he would write

And tell you how much joy you give (Not many persons so polite)— Alas, He was too good to live!

We're in That Too The St. Joseph and All Lancaster foot ball teams both claim the championship of the city and county and an effort was made to have these teams meet. St. Joseph refused because they claim the team that played at Mt. Joy the Saturday after Thanksgiving was padded too much and had too many F. & M. varsity stars that never played with the team except on that day. St. Joseph defeated us early in the season when the locals were just trying out green material. The All Star aggregation, with all its padding, only beat us 13 to 3. In our opinion, with only the regular men playing on those Lancaster teams, Mount Joy could trim either one of them. Wonder which is the best team in the county?

H. C. is One of Them Affairs at the Masonic Homes at Elizabethtown for the next year will be directed by a committee which includes two prominent members of the order in this county—H. C. Schock of this place, county treasurer, and Andrew H. Hershey of Lancaster. Both have previously been on the committee and have manifested great interest in the affairs of the Homes. The following comprise the committee which was elected on Wednesday at the Quarterly Communication of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, F. and A. M., at the Masonic Temple, Philadelphia: George B. Orlady, Edward W. Patton, George W. McCandless, William M. Donaldson, Andrew H. Hershey of Lancaster; Henry C. Schock of Mount Joy and J. Henri Williams.

Being a favorite some furnishes many of the pleasures of holding the Supreme Office with none of the drawbacks.

"Red pepper" robbers ought to realize that particular people do not like their spoilation highly seasoned.

Amiability will make a goodshield and buckler against foreign aggression when water runs uphill.
