RHEEMS

The P. R. R. Pay car was an early visitor through this place last Monday morning.

Church of the Brethren held their regular evening services at this place Sunday evening.

Church of the Brethren held their quarterly council meeting Tuesday, December 7th at this place.

Mr. John Hershey of this place still holds a large amount of choice apples which he sells cheap.

Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Boll and family of Maytown, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Weaver.

Mr. H. H. Bard attended the funeral of the infant of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Meiskey at Columbia last Friday.

Irwin Smith the Mt. Joy country butcher slaughtered two large porkers for John M. Weaver one day last week.

The usual number of wagons loaded with Christmas trees from the Conewago hills pass through this place on their way to Columbia, Mr. Joy and Marietta.

The B. H. Greider double house is rapidly nearing completion. Mr. S. Breneman, the Elizabethtown plasterer has his force preparing it for plastering it in the near future.

The frigid weather has caused the followers of husbandry to set their laborers upon their hay mows which they are baling and delivering to a place where they can dispose of it at a good price.

The Rev. Bressler series of evening meetings at the Mennonite Church Elizabethtown are attracting a large attendance from the surrounding vicinity filling the house beyond sitting capacity.

The Misses Barbara Musser and Mary Rutt teachers of the Rheems schools are making extensive arrangements to hold special Christmas exercises. The program to be rendered Friday evening, December 24th. Everybody invited.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. King spent about 15 days with Christian L. Helsey at Hyner, who conducts a Sportsman Camp up on the mountains where game has been quite plenty more than forty deer have been killed in that vicinity.

John G. Enterline in charge of a number of volunteers with teams and shovels were busily engaged several days last week hauling ground from the B. H. Greider new double house to the street leading to the church.

were operated to their utmost capacity during the pleasant weather during November and December until the sudden fall of snow Sunday night which proved quite a surprise to the early risers Monday morning, who found about 3 inches upon Mother earth.

Thieves Busy at Marietta

Thieving seems to be in vogue in Marietta and vicinity the past few days, and the intruders had better be careful, or they will visit the wrong house. At the home of Theodore Olsey, corner of Second and Walnut streets, they forced open the kitchen window and were about ready to enter, when the barking of Mr. Olsey's pet dog scared them off. They next went to the home of Chester W. Rudisill, Market street, and forced open a bar on the gate, when it made so much noise that Mr. Rudisill heard them, and they beat a hasty retreat. At the home of the late John Buchanan, West Marietta, wood and other articles are being carried away almost nightly, when no one is about the premises. Last evening they were seen and arrested may follow. Several have complained of losing chickens and poultry.

Want a Receiver

In the Court of Common Pleas yesterday Appel & Appel, F. L. Windolph and O. S. Sheaffer, attorneys for F. A. Ackey and W. Frank Gorrecht, trading as the Examiner Printing Co., and Amos M. Landis, filed a bill in equity against the Lancaster & York Furnace Street Railway Company, asking for the appointment of a receiver. The Court granted a rule to show cause why a receiver should not be appointed the rule being made returnable on Saturday morning.

Messrs. Thomas D. Bennett, Musser Stauffer, John Reist, and Ross Eshleman made a trip to Conewago, on Saturday for Greens for the Presbyterian Sunday School.

We think we have a very good line of boys' and girls' shoes for dress and every day wear. Ask to see them at Martin's.

A Beautiful Gift Think of Giving Your Child Such a Gift. Hager's Make It Possible With A Piano or Pianola

What can you give to a child that will be of more lasting benefit than a fine Piano or Player Piano? Children hunger for music. Into the heart of each little one Nature implants a love of harmony, unlimited in its possibilities for future culture and content. Only a very little cultivating is needed to insure beautiful, joyous lives.

No mother who has at heart the future welfare of her child should neglect its musical training. The musical home is invariably the home of good morals and refined tastes. The careful cultivation of musical knowledge will be reflected in the sweetness of the children's faces, in softening of voices and in refinement of manner.

In no other association than in music may mother and child breathe in closer companionship or with greater possibilities for influencing the child's future.

There are in this broad land thousands of earnest mothers who thus give liberally and unselfishly of their time—their reward is the life-long appreciation of loving, cultured sons and daughters so benefited and in the knowledge of duty well done.

Especially if you have children in your home, a good piano should be there also. A Heppie, Steck, Schomacker or other well-known Piano at Hager's is the right instrument to get. You will always be satisfied with it, and its superb quality will insure the most rapid development of the child's musical taste.

Just a little of your Christmas money will place one of these superb instruments in your home.

If you can afford it, you should, by all means, get a Pianola. It will be of great help to your children in their musical studies. By hearing good music on the Pianola they will learn to love good music. Then they will want to practice and produce good music themselves.

At the same time it will prove a source of never-ending enjoyment for the father or brother who may know nothing about music, but whom it gives technical ability to play the world's masterpieces. No other player-piano will give the lasting satisfaction of a Pianola.
